

PRESIDENT ACTS TO BRING ABOUT PEACE

Chile and Peru Are Urged to Settle Differences.

SITUATION IS HELD GRAVE

Acting Secretary Polk Makes Public Text of Note Handed to South American Nations.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 12.—Acting Secretary Polk made public at the State Department today the text of the note handed by the United States Ambassadors recently to the Presidents of Chile and Peru, urging that the two South American nations owe it to the rest of the world to compose their differences and informing them that the United States stands ready to tender, alone or in conjunction with other countries of this hemisphere, all possible assistance to bring about an equitable solution.

FARMER SLAIN IN REVENGE

C. A. MOREY, MORROW RANCHER, KILLS A. SCHAFER.

Following Shooting, Rancher Drives to Heppner in Automobile and Surrenders to Authorities.

HEPPNER, Or., Dec. 12.—(Special.)—C. A. Morey, 40, a farmer in the sand country, 20 miles north of Lexington, shot and killed Alfred Schaffer, a neighbor rancher, yesterday.

AMERICA OFFERS SERVICES

In giving out the note Mr. Polk made no comment on the fact that the American Government had suggested that all South American countries, not Argentina alone, join in the effort to compose the difficulty.

SITUATION DECLARED GRAVE

"The President of the United States feels it is his duty to draw to the attention of the governments of Chile and Peru the gravity of the present situation and to point out to these governments the danger which they owe to the rest of the world and to mankind in general to take immediate steps to restrain popular agitation and to establish their peace relations."

BRITISH VOTE NOVEL IN NATION'S HISTORY

Balloting in One Day to Relieve Usual Suspense.

600 SEATS ARE CONTESTED

Return of Mr. Lloyd George's Coalition to Power Unquestioned by Political Leaders.

LONDON, Dec. 12.—British voters will go to the polls Saturday in the Parliament elections under circumstances wholly novel in the history of the country. All the balloting will be done in one day, instead of there being elections in different districts spread over weeks, with long drawn-out excitement and suspense. Another novel proceeding is that the votes will not be counted for a fortnight, in order that the ballots of soldiers abroad may be counted with the others.

CONSCRIPTION MADE ISSUE

This quarrel obscured other issues during the first day of the electioneering. Afterwards the opposition criticized the Premier's policy looking to the punishment of the former German Emperor, getting big indemnities from Germany and expelling the Germans from this country.

LIVESTOCK SHOW TO GO ON

NEW ORGANIZATION FORMED BY PROMINENT BREEDERS.

Frank Brown, of Carlton, Elected President and William Pollman, of Baker, Vice-President.

The Pacific International Livestock Association is undergoing a period of reconstruction. Last night at a largely attended meeting of representatives of the livestock interests of the Northwest, a new organization was formed to maintain the annual show on a proper scale, and members of its board of directors and leaders chosen. At 5 o'clock this afternoon the breeders will meet at the imperial to adopt the constitution and by-laws authorizing the necessary steps for incorporation. It is probable the existing corporation will be taken over by the new, as it will be the consensus of opinion that co-ordination of all the breeders must be had to organize and maintain the association on the plane it should occupy.
