Captain Rose Alleges He Was One to Sink Destroyer.

BOCHE COMMANDER DARING

British and Americans Make Every Effort to Capture or Sink Hun. but He Manages to Escape.

LONDON, Nov. 27.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—It was the German submarine U-53, commanded by Lieutenant-Captain Hans Rose, which sank a number of vessels off the coast of Nantucket, that sent to the bottom the United States torpedo-boat destroyer Levels 100 to 1 destroyer Jacob Jones, the first American warship to be sunk by the enemy in the war.

Word has come directly to London that Hose asserts he sent a wireless call for help when he saw that the American destroyer was doomed. That statement has not been corroborated, but if it is true, it is the only case on record where a German submarine commander called for help for his vic-tione also declares that he sunk the United States Coast Guard cutter Tampa, and if that is true, he sank all the American fighting craft sunk by torpedo during the war, Rose's Boat Interned.

Rose's submersible career did not end in surrender with the scores of other U-boats, but with internment in a Swedish port at the direction of Rose.

After the U-53 dashed into Newport and then played havoc with shipping off the American coast every anti-submarine craft commander in the British ravy tried to "get" Rose. This armada was augmented when the United States entered the war. During the latter part of the war there were two boats that became the center of interest on the anti-submarine craft—the U-86 and 1-53, but for very different reasons. The U-86 had sunk the hospital ship Idandovery Castle when it was impossible to mistake her type. Every Rose's Boat Interned. possible to mistake her type. Every sallor wanted revenge. In chasing Rose, however, there was more of the desire best a wily and dangerous adversary but against whom there was no know stain of committing atrocities. On October 29, when the U-boats were recalled, Rose went to the Cattegat.
The story brought to London, which there is no reason to doubt, is that Rose feared to take his ship to Kiel after the revolution there and placed her in charge of Captain von Schrieder. Rose went to Kiel and ascertained that if he took the U-53 there she would be surrendered, so he sent word to Cap-tain von Schrieder to take her to a Swedish port and intern her, Location Not Known. The Admiralty, as yet, is not aware of the port in which she interned, but sooner or later she will be turned over to the allied navies—not in the humiliating surrender, however, which Rose wished to escape. A dispatch from Amsterdam, under A dispatch from Amsterdam, under date of January 7, stated that the then Emperor William had conferred the Order Pour le Merite on a submarine commander named Kophamel, on his return from a cruise during which he sank an American destroyer and 14 merchantmen.

As the Jacob Jones was the only American destroyer sunk by a German submarine, it was assumed that Kophamel had been decorated for this Killed in action—

Found Dead in Beds.

MILES CITY, Mont. Dec. 15.—Entering the home of a neighbor a few days ago, J. B. Baer, of Ismar, found the farmer and his wife with two children, lying dead in their beds and a third child dying on the floor. All were victims of influenza. The last child died shortly after he had been taken to another ranch for treatment.

Indications rhowed that the outire tamily had been stricken together and had died partly from starvation, being unable to help each other. The horses in the stable on the ranch were in a dying condition, having been without food or water for days. The ranch lies just across the slontana line in Dakota.

GREAT PEACE CONFERENCE OMEN OF CHRIST'S RETURN

Permanent World Peace Soon to Be Ushered In by the Personal, Visible Presence of Christ, Declares Evangelist Dickson.

Bible Foretells Mighty Struggle, and Sweeping Epidemics Before Millennium Begins.

Evangelist L. K. Dickson

That the peace conference of the nations is one f the greatest omens of the soon establishment of the kingdom of God which has been seen in modern times, and that permanent world peace will soon be ushered in through the coming of Jesus Christ to the earth, were declarations made by Evangelist L. K. Dickson in his lecture on "The Peace Table in the Light of Bible Prophecy" at Christiansen's Hall, Eleventh street between Morrison and Yamhill, last night.

Mr. Dickson, emphatically stated that the millenium of peace is dawning and will be preceded by great political and economic upheavals. This condition, he said, would be brought to a close by the personal, visible coming of Jesus Christ in the clouds of heaven. The evangelist made plain the statement of Christ that great epidemics would sweep the land just before exeriasting world peace would be ushered in.

Taking for his text Hag. 2:7, the evangelist said in part:

"Permanent peace will come to this earth, and the din of war and strife will be forever passed away when God fulfills this desire of all nations by sending Jesus to the world again. Today we are standing upon the threshhold of an hour which stands unique in all the annais of human history because of the efforts of men and nations for universal peace. The desire of the world and the efforts of great men today are most laudable in character for they have as their purpose the freedom and prosperity of all peoples and all lands, and they are so notable in all the history of the world that the Sacred Word has emphasized their im-Taking for his text Hag. 2:7, the evangelist said in part: dom and prosperity of all peoples and all lands, and they are so notable in all the history of the world that the Sacred Word has emphasized their importance through the words of the prophets. The message which comes through the lips of Micah is a message giving us one of the great forerunners of the dawning day of peace, namely the gathering of the nations in a peace conference. This vision of the prophet was given over 2750 years ago, and we are witnessing the fulfillment of the prophetic scene. Micah said it would take place in the last days and we are standing in the last days witnessing standing in the last days witnessing the fulfillment of his words. How happy we should be that to us it is given to know that this glorious reign of per-manent peace is very near at hand. The prophet does not intimate whether the present efforts of the nations for per present efforts of the nations for permanent world peace will be successful or not, but merely fore-records the fact that such a conference would be held when-disarmament would be the theme voiced by many nations, and states that 'in the last days it shall come to pass."

ome to pass." "It is interesting for us to know that the bleased word fore-records the facts of history which are being made in our day, but it is of supreme importance that we catch the focal thought of the prophecy and understand that when such a movement among the nations takes place that we are very near the conditions of all things earthly."

nd of all things earthly. Evangelist Dickson referred his large audience to the thought that the prophecy of Daniel the second chapter ism, or the efforts of one nation or one man to gain control of the world could but come to nought. He said:

"We found in our perusal of the prophecy of Daniel 2 that it was unequivocally stated that no such ambitious fellow would be successful, and but to the first of France in the first of Fran EXPORT BUSINESS GREATEST IN
