

WILSON WILL SEE PREMIERS SOON

Orlando Is Expected in Paris Thursday.

LLOYD GEORGE COMING LATER

Four-Power Conferences to Be Held Next Week.

PRESIDENT TO VISIT FOCH

Home Business Is Attended to Between Official Calls; Women Cheer at City Hall.

PARIS, Dec. 16.—The arrival of the various officials to meet President Wilson has now been arranged for. The Italian Premier, Vittorio Orlando, and Foreign Minister Sonnino, will reach here Thursday. The British Prime Minister, David Lloyd George, and Foreign Secretary A. J. Balfour, will probably reach Paris next Saturday or Sunday. With Premier Clemenceau, the presence of these peace delegates will permit of discussions between the four leading powers, Great Britain, France, the United States and Italy.

The Inter-Allied Conference probably will assemble next Monday, but the session will be brief, not exceeding two days.

The initial meeting of the Inter-Allied Conference probably will be held in the French War office and will give President Wilson his first opportunity to meet the delegates around the conference table. After two days the various leaders will separate for the Christmas holidays.

President to See Foch.

President Wilson will proceed tomorrow to Senlis, Marshal Foch's headquarters, to confer with the allied commander. Later he will visit the battlefield at Chateau Thierry, where the first American divisions distinguished themselves and also Rheims. During the intervals between official calls and visits today, the President was engaged in affairs of state such as the manner of his procedure in the White House office. He did considerable business over the telephone, just as at home.

President Wilson has been insisting that the American peace mission organize its machinery so that the people in the United States can begin to know what is happening. Meanwhile, the mission is trying to get itself settled so as to begin preliminary work.

News Service Arranged.

Joseph C. Grew, formerly counselor of the American Embassy in Vienna, will take charge of the official announcements to be transmitted to the United States. He will have as assistants Ray Stannard Baker and Maximilian Foster.

The reception of President Wilson at the City Hall today, while not attended by the huge crowds which welcomed him on Saturday, was impressive. The President was received by the Municipal Council at the main entrance and walked through the spacious corridors, which were tastefully decorated.

More than 6000 persons were within the building, for the most part women.

Women Cheer President.

The women cheered the President in a manner, which, while not as lustily as the President had been accustomed to hear on the college campus, must have sounded sweet in his ears, as he smiled and bowed repeatedly.

Adrien Mithouard, president of the Municipal Council, read the address, the President replying in loud, clear tones in which there was a tinge of emotion.

After the official ceremonies, the President inspected the various rooms in the City Hall, ending finally in a small room where a buffet had been installed and refreshments were served. Several officials were presented and many others showed eagerness to shake his hand. Shortly the President left, returning to the Murat residence.

FRANCE VENERATES WILSON

President Acclaimed Apostle of Rights of Humanity.

PARIS, Dec. 16.—M. Aulrand, prefect of the Seine, addressing President Wilson at the Hotel de Ville, said: "Mr. President, a day memorable beyond all is that on which for the first time a chief of the great American Republic crosses the threshold of our Hotel de Ville."

"None among your illustrious predecessors, not even those most deeply venerated for their genius and their virtues, came to sit for an instant at the hearts of the people of Paris."

"Thus, in mourning the death of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, our fathers had felt a deep regret that they could render only a posthumous homage to the great men who had been the object of their enthusiastic veneration."

Republic's Joy Is Precious.

"The joy which this visit gives us is of a rare and precious sort. Ours have been most serious preoccupations, to seek to know, in an hour of need, what judgment America would pronounce upon our cause, to recognize the face and to understand the intimate thoughts of the man whom destiny had chosen to be the arbiter of the fate of civilization."

"Today we need no longer seek to..."

MODERATES IN BERLIN APPARENTLY GAINING

EXTREMISTS SEEM TO HAVE FAILED TO SEIZE POWER.

Hohenzollerns and Their Attendant Troop of Petty Kings and Princes Declared Forgotten.

BY J. C. SEGRUE.
(Copyright, 1918, by the Press Publishing Company—The New York World, Published by arrangement.)
BERLIN, Dec. 16.—(Special.)—In the fortnight that has elapsed since my last visit here, the political situation in Germany seems to have grown hopeful. The storm that had been brewing over the country has broken and the failure of the extremists to seize supreme power both here and in Berlin has resulted in accession of strength to the moderate elements.

Complaints against the central government are loud and frequent and there is much sympathy in Germany still drifting but it seems likely to get through the dangerous period between this time and the meeting of the National Assembly without disorder.

Herr Eisner, the Bavarian Prime Minister and one of the most striking figures now in Germany said to me: "Difficulties will no doubt continue to arise, but I do not anticipate any political convulsion. The new regime seems to have been accepted by all classes. It is curious to note how completely the public has forgotten the Hohenzollerns and their attendant troop of petty Kings and Princes. Before the revolution you could not walk 10 miles in Germany without meeting a King. In four weeks all those royalties have been effaced."

"A Socialist majority in the National Assembly may be regarded as certain. The political tendency of all the parties in toward the Left. Conservatives will rapidly disappear as the force and policy of the former Center party will assume radical direction of affairs."

"What of the 'Los von Berlin' (Get rid of Berlin) movement?" I asked.

"That movement is very strong in various German states," he replied; "but it does not represent a desire to break away from Prussia. We are determined to put an end to the old Berlin influence without interfering with German unity. The movement in favor of selecting a new capital is growing."

WILSON TO VISIT YANKS

President to Eat Christmas Dinner With Troops in Germany.

PARIS, Dec. 16.—President Wilson will leave Paris Christmas eve and go to American general headquarters. From headquarters he will proceed to the American front. He will have Christmas dinner with the American troops, and not with the American commander-in-chief or other officers.

From the above it would seem evident it is the purpose of President Wilson to have Christmas dinner on German territory in the region of Coblenz with the American forces of occupation.

GREEKS AND TURKS CLASH

Disorders Reported Recently in Constantinople.

ATHENS, Dec. 14.—Slight disorders occurred in Constantinople last week, according to a dispatch from the Turkish capital to the Embros. A Greek sailor was killed in front of the Mosque of St. Sophia and a detachment of Anglo-Greek troops was sent to the scene and restored order. At another time a Turkish patrol attacked some French sailors, two of the seamen being killed.

Greek units have been debarked to protect the Greek legation at Constantinople.

MRS. W. J. BRYAN IS ILL

Wife of Ex-Secretary of State Taken to Hospital.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 16.—William J. Bryan brought Mrs. Bryan to Johns Hopkins Hospital today for a consultation with Dr. L. F. Barker. They came from their summer home at Asheville, N. C. Mr. Bryan said Mrs. Bryan had been ailing for six months and that he was here to find out if she could get well.

It is understood that Mr. Bryan will remain at the hospital for at least two weeks. Mr. Bryan expected to go to Washington tonight and make daily trips to the hospital.

ARMY BARS EX-PRINCE

Former German General Not Allowed to Remain as Private.

COPENHAGEN, Dec. 16.—The former German Crown Prince at the outbreak of the revolution asked that he be allowed to remain with his army as a General, but his request was refused, according to the Deutsche Zeitung, of Berlin. He then offered to remain as a common soldier, but this also was rejected.

As he was forbidden to join his family as a civilian, the paper adds, he decided to go to Holland.

Details of Recent Gibraltar Sinking Made Known.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—Seventeen men, members of the crew of the British steamer Larchgrove, lost their lives when that ship was sunk in a collision with the American steamer Hawaiian in the latter part of October in the Strait of Gibraltar, it was learned here today, with the arrival of the Hawaiian.

The American ship was leaving the strait and the British entering when the accident occurred.

GOVERNMENT HAS CHANCE

Ebert-Haase Regime Can Exist, It Is Said, If It Disarms Those Not "Rightfully" Holding Arms.

BY ARNO DOSCH FLEUROT.
(Copyright, 1918, by the Press Pub. Co., The New York World. Published by arrangement.)

BERLIN, via Copenhagen, Dec. 16.—(Special.)—The government had hardly weathered the Spartacus group storm by bringing loyal troops into the city when the thunder clouds began to gather again.

Even President Fehrenbach of the National Arbitrator Soldatenrat, demands that the Reichstag reassemble, saying that the government cannot longer continue with the one-sided support of the workers and soldiers. He gives as his chief reason for the demand his belief that the entente will not deal with the Soviet.

British at Wilhelmshaven.

Whatever the entente position is in this respect, the opinion has been growing in the last few days that before beginning peace negotiations the entente will insist that Germany have a government not based on Soviet powers. Indications from Paris and London which point that way are given much prominence in the newspapers. Another indication came Saturday when it was learned that the British fleet at Wilhelmshaven had refused to deal with the local Soldatenrat.

This last incident seemed to confirm misgivings as to the attitude of the entente. So when President Fehrenbach called for the immediate reassembly of the Reichstag as the sole body with which the entente would deal, the demand proved less of a shock to revolutionary Germany than it would have been a fortnight ago.

Red Flag Not Shown.

The demand comes when for several days troops fully armed have been pouring into the city from both divisions and conservative feeling has increased. None of the divisions has shown red flags. There have been regimental banners and individual soldiers have carried red, white and black flags with a picture of Hindenburg in the center. Former guard regiments of the Kaiser and Kaiserin have carried small flags bearing their separate emblems.

A cavalry guard division has published a demand for the disarmament of all who have no right to arms, meaning the followers of the Spartacus.

American Aviation Station Plays Important Role.

SEICHEPREY VITAL IN WAR

Though Not on Map, Little Town Marks Limit of German Advance During Great Part of 4 Years.

EIGHTEENTH LETTER.

BY EDGAR B. PIPER.

PARIS, France, November 21.—(Editorial Correspondence.)—The amateur in war is never at a loss for thrills. On the sea it is the submarine which to his unlighted apprehension may be seen to approach from any quarter of the compass; but rarely does, if there is a destroyer hanging anywhere around. On the land it is air raids.

Everybody in London and Paris and every other great center within range of the Prussian night flyers has his story to tell about the latest and most deadly assault from the skies. The first view from his hotel window, at London, enjoyed by one of the American editors, was of a neighboring building completely wrecked. Ordinarily, he would have thought the builders had torn it down to put another in its place; but in war time there was, of course, another reason for the destruction. Diligent inquiry, later, failed to elicit the exact facts. Sometimes they let you believe, about such things, whatever you prefer. There is a vast conspiracy in Europe to prevent the tenderfoot from sleeping nights.

Air Visits Numerous.

But there was no doubt about the reality of frequent and persistent air visits in the vicinity of St. Mihiel salient. Base Hospital 45, where the Portland unit is located (Bazilles-on-the-Meuse), had become so familiar with the hum and buzz of the venturesome aces and deuces of German devilry that they merely put out the lights and waited for the bombing marauders to pass on.

To give the devil his due, he did not as a rule appear to be aiming at hospitals. But he had a set aversion for aerodromes and railway stations and supply depots and the like. So long as the German had mastery of the air, or an equal show against the increasing forces of the enemy, he showed great enterprise in his exploits behind the allied lines.

Near Colombey, a town between Chaumont and the St. Mihiel, is a great American aviation station. It is a rendezvous for many hundreds of machines and other hundreds of aviators. It had a large part in the great September advance toward Metz by the Americans, for there in that affair was such an

CHICAGO BOLSHIEVIKI ROUT ITALIAN ENVOYS

LABOR MISSION FLEES WHEN REDS RIOT AT MEETING.

Socialist Disturbers Set Upon by Others and Labor Gathering Soon Resembles Western Front.

CHICAGO, Dec. 16.—Rioting, accompanied by shooting and some bloodshed, greeted the efforts of several members of the Italian labor mission, now on a tour of the United States, to address a meeting of Chicago's Italian labor men tonight. The trouble was attributed to radical Socialists and Bolsheviki among the audience.

Alceste de Ambris, chief of the mission, which consists of eight representatives and members of the Italian Parliament, was greeted with hisses by small groups of men in the rear of the hall when he arose to speak.

The disturbers were attacked by several persons standing nearby and in a moment the hall was filled with fighting men.

Several shots were fired without doing any damage. Knives and chairs were used by the struggling men until 100 patrolmen and detectives answering a riot call stopped the conflict. Several men were injured, but not seriously. The members of the mission escaped unhurt.

BOYS ARE DARING ROBBERS

Brooklyn Lads of 15 Collect More Than $6000 Worth of Jewelry.

NEW YORK, Dec. 16.—With the arrest today on a charge of juvenile delinquency of two 15-year-old Brooklyn boys, who had been reported as missing by their parents, the police assert they have captured two of the most accomplished and daring flat robbers they have dealt with for years.

According to the police, the boys have confessed to more than 40 robberies in the last two months. Jewelry and other valuables, worth $6000, were found in the furnished room they had rented and the police say the loot probably totaled $20,000.

Both boys were armed when arrested, and one, asked what they would have done had they been surprised while robbing a flat, is said to have replied: "Well, we are both pretty good shots."

LONDON, Dec. 16.—(Via Montreal.)—Several British prisoners telegraphed to the Daily Mail from Hottau, Germany, where the Australian, South African and Canadian war prisoners are interned, advising that all the Britishers are fairly well, but anxiously awaiting repatriation.

He adds that postal communication has been stopped.

In an ordinary traveling bag Mr. Ridsdale carried enough seed to grow 50,000 trees. It was asked for by the French government for experimental planting.

RED CROSS GUIDON RAISED IN OREGON

Crusade for Christmas Memberships Begun.

STATE'S GOAL IS 400,000

Campaign's Objective Is Not Money but Supporters.

HONOR BADGE ONE DOLLAR

Fellowship in Mighty Organization of Mercy Easily Obtained During This Week.

FIRST DAY'S DRIVE BRINGS IN BETWEEN $30,000 AND $35,000.

Between $30,000 and $35,000 was brought to police headquarters last night in the patrol wagon on from Red Cross headquarters in the Liberty Temple and deposited in the vault at the station for safekeeping until this morning, when it will be deposited in one of the local banks.

The sum represents the results of the first day's drive in the Red Cross campaign for membership. Neatly tied in packages of $2000 each, it filled a basket to overflowing, and two patrolmen staggered beneath the load as it was carried to the vault. The coin was mostly in silver dollars.

BY BEN HUR LAMPMAN.

In a blaze of late Fall sunshine, Oregon lifted the Red Cross guidon yesterday morning and set forth upon the crusade for Christmas memberships that should number 400,000 citizens of the state by next Monday if the dollar drive achieves the success that it should.

Not money, but memberships, is the objective of the Christmas campaign. For the payment of the membership authorized solicitors—Portland has 3000 such—membership in the mighty organization of mercy is conferred. Through such membership the potency of the Red Cross is multiplied, with all America behind it, and the organization will be enabled to complete its important programme during the reconstruction period, both here and in foreign lands.

Thousands Are Campaigning.

Portland's thousands of workers, with the scarlet arm-bands to designate them, were about their task early in the forenoon, plying the business districts and street corners, campaigning in squads through the residence sections, and ceasing not from their elected labors until late afternoon.

Owing to the fact that team captains will not present their reports until this morning, definite statement of yesterday's progress could not be made at the close of the day. But at noon today the big speedometer before the old Postoffice building will whirl to the figures that report both state and city. Eighty members a minute is the working day schedule that the membership campaigners have before them.

City Workers All Women.

The city campaign is unique in that its entire personnel is of women workers save for the directorship of Henry E. Reed, veteran of a dozen drives, who serves as city manager. On the eve of the opening Mrs. Reed's office will be confined to his home by a severe cold, so that the magnitude of the city management devolves entirely upon Mrs. A. R. Innes, second in command, who presides at Liberty Temple.

"Mrs. Innes is a little brick," said Mr. Reed with enthusiasm as he outlined his temporary abdication over the telephone. "She is efficient
