S. Gile, president of the Pheasant Northwest Products Company.

Mr. Gile recently returned from Washington, where he put up the fight to eliminate the taxation provision which would have increased the revenue tax from one cent per gallon to 20 per cent at valorem, on all soft drinks, and from 20 to 90 cents per gallon on loganberry juice. The proposal would have increased the tax on apple and grape juices as well as on loganberry juice.

Among Those Whose Freedom Is Sought Starts Trouble.

NEW YORK, Dec. 17.—Alleged anarchists, pacifists, Industrial Workers of the World and other radicals, who attended a conference here tonight, called by the Workers' Defense Union, engaged in a general fight, in which a score of persons were bruised and which cleared the half of nearly half of the 400 persons assembled there.

The announced purpose of the meeting was to inaugurate a Nation-wide campaign for the liberation of all labor and political prisoners imprisoned during the war.

A speaker who was introduced as "Comrade Abrams" precipitated disorder by introducing a resolution calling for the specific inclusion of awarchists among those whose freedom was to be sought.

A violent debate ensued and the chairman lost control of the meeting. A man who began a heated altercation with one of the speakers was promptly hurtled into the audience and a series of group fights broke out. Several men who attempted to climb to the platform were thrown off.

Cries for the police were set up in vain, as a detail of policemen had departed half an hour earlier, convinced by the orderly opening of the meeting that no trouble was impending.

DR. ANDREW HALL SPEAKS AT UNIVERSITY CLUB BANQUET.

British Army Officer Says Peace-Loving People Responsible for Fall of Kalserism.

"We ofther will get rid of all war or we will blot out civilization."

This is the way Dr. Andrew Hall, exCanadian army officer who has just returned to Portland from Europe, expressed his approval of President Wilson's peace programme in a talk last night at a banquet in his honor at the University Clob.

University Club,
Dr. Hall dwelt in his speech on the brutality of the German people under their system of militarism. "They are brutal enough to beat the devil at his own game," he said. "I have seen captured German officers refuse to carry a dying man from a muddy field to a first-aid station. I am sure that General Foch or Per-shing or Haig would never do such a thing, no matter what the circumstances."
Dr. Hall marveled at the fact that at a moment's notice, the people he terms the most peace-loving of all, the British, jumped into the war and succeeded in outdoing the war-loving Ger-mans. "And after all," he said, "it is the peace-loving nature that enabled them to outdo the Germans. Every improvement that was of real value in the war was developed by the peace-

Dr. Hall spoke of the wonderful wel-come that President Wilson would get if he visits England. "This is coming to him," he said, "because of the warm feeling toward America and the knowledge that President Wilson is a typical American. The British people realize that without America the war would have been lost."
