Socialist Leader Goes to Chancellor's Palace and Confers With Ministers; Result Unknown.

LONDON, Dec. 26. - The mutinous sallors who had been holding out the Red Palace at Berlin have bolsted the white flag and have been allowed to leave under guard, cording to advices from Berlin the Exchange Telegraph correspondent at Amsterdam. Governmen Government roops, the message adds, now occupy he palace and the royal stables. The Red Palace was looted by the sallors and many private possessions of the Emperor and former Empress were carried away or destroyed. Nearly 100 persons were killed in the street fighting which began in Berlin on Tuesday morning, according to the latest reports from the German capital.

Republicans Are Repulsed. he Republican Guards tried several times to take the Royal stables and the headquarters of the revolting sailors, but were repulsed.

Many soldiers belonged to the Berlin Guard and a few of the Republican Guards joined the sailors, Vorwaerts

When these reports were sent, a large number of armed civilians were continuing to join the sailors, not only at the royal stables, but in the Koenig-strasse. The street with all its houses, was reported in the hands of the sailors, who were supported by the Spar-tacans. They demanded that Premier Ebert and Secretary Haase resign and replaced by George Ledebour and Dr. Karl Liebknecht, Liebknecht Visits Palace. Dr. Liebknecht, the advices add, went to the Chancellor's palace and had a long conference with the Ministers, the result of which was unknown.

Further fighting was anticipated, it was added, as the Spartacans and the gallors had decided to attempt to force the guards to return to Potsdam. The markets were stationed in Uniter den guards were stationed in Unter den Linden and on the Werderschen Platz. The Afexander and Franzer regiments have openly joined the revolting saflors in Berlin, and it is predicted in advices sent from Berlin late Christmas night that nearly the entire Berlin garrison will support them, leaving the governwill support them, leaving the government without troops.

These advices were transmitted by the Exchange Telegraph correspondent at Copenhagen. They add that large numbers of sailors are reported to be coming from Kiel to join their comrades in Berlin.

STOCKTON, Cal., Dec. 25.—Edward L Hedges, 91, founder of the firm of Hedges-Buck, died yesterday in Oak-and. Mr. Hedges entered business in Stockton in the early '60s and achieved Stockton in the early '60s and achieved success in fortune and prestige. A native of New Jersey, he came from an old colonial family that brought a title to the colonies. A peculiar fact in the life of the deceased was that he avoided all politics, which is said to have been due to a promise made to his mother when he left her.

Dr. J. Richard Lighty, a recent graduate of North Pacific Dental College, died Christmas morning in Bellingham, Wash., as a result of influenza. Dr. Lighty was engaged to marry Miss Edith Magurn, daughter of J. M. Magurn, 320 Hancock street, Portland. He enlisted in the Naval Reserves and while waiting for the call, he engaged in a successful practice in Bellingham. The body will be taken to Seattle, where the Masons will have charge of the funeral.

W. H. Strayer, Senator for Baker County, is one of the three Democrats in the coming Senate chamber. Mr. Strayer has been a resident of Oregon since 1895, at which time he settled in Baker County, and has remained there since. For the past 13 years he has been practicing law. Mr. Strayer served in the Senate in 1915 and 1917, and his services were so appreciated by his constituents that they re-elected him to the Senate this Autumn to serve another four years. He is interested in mining legislation. Mr. Strayer was born in Iowa in 1866. Walter A. Dimick, Senator from Clackamas County, comes of an old Oregon family. He has been closely identified with politics for many years and has served repeatedly in the State Senate. This year he was re-elected, having defeated George C. Brownell for the nomination in the primaries. Mr. Dimick is considered by his opponents in the Senate as radical.
