GOLD HILL, Or., Dec. 26.—(Special.)—L. O. Walker, 27, reported wounded in Tuesday's casualty list, and address given as Ashland, Or., was a resident of Gold Hill for a number of years. His home is closed and his wife, Millie P. Walker, a Gold Hill girl, has been residing with relatives in Ashland since his enlistment in 1917. He is known in Gold Hill and Ashland, where he formerly resided, as "Deacon Walker," a nickname given him while a student at the Ashland Normal School.

HOOD RIVER, Or., Dec. 26.—(Special.)—Mrs. Ida Parker is unable to reconcile an official telegram received today and stating that her son, William H. Parker, of the 91st Division, has been missing since November 4, with a letter just received from the young man. A note added hastily apparently to the undated letter, reads: "This is the 11th and we will soon be home."

Mrs. Parker believes the War Department's telegram is erroneous and she has started an investigation through Washington officials.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Dec. 26.—(Special.)—Mrs. M. C. Given, of Bolstort, today received a telegram stating that her son, Louis Miller, who is with the American Army in France, was severely wounded November 7. The nature and actual extent of the wounds were not given.

OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 26.—The following name appears in today's casualty list: Albert G. C. Gifford, Ottawa, Ont. Prisoner repatriated—F. Vogell, Mus-selshell, Mont.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 26.—During the week ended December 26, 1483 wounded and sick soldiers were landed in the United States from the American expeditionary forces. The Surgeon-General's report today shows that 5326 were landed at New York and 1540 at Newport News.

HILLSBORO, Or., Dec. 26.—(Special.)—Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Bates received word today from the War Department in Washington that their son, Millard Bates, had died in a hospital in France, November 17, of wounds received in action at Chateaub-Thierry last July. The young man was reported to have died on two previous occasions. The dispatch received today was confirmed officially.

Millard Bates was 19 years of age, and had been in the hospital receiving treatment for injuries to both limbs, through which he had been shot. His brother, B. Carroll Bates, was killed in June, his being the first name on Hillsboro's casualty list.

FIRST DEATH OCCURS AMONG GRASS VALLEY SOLDIERS.

Henry S. Baker.

Private Henry S. Baker was killed in action on the western front October 4, according to word received by his father, L. W. Baker, of this city. This is the only death among the 63 soldiers sent from Grass Valley.

Henry S. Baker was a member of Company D, 363d Infantry, and left with the 91st Division from Camp Lewis early in July.
