WASHINGTON HONORS ROOSEVELT'S MEMORY

Officialdom Expresses Regret at Sudden Death.

FLAGS ARE AT HALF MAST

Senate, House and Supreme Court Adjourn and Press Club Frolic Is Postponed for Time.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6 .- Washington. representing the Nation at large, gave representing the Nation at large, gave solemn and earnest expression today to the country's regret at the death of Theodore Roosevelt and its admiration for his character and achievements. Plags on every Government building throughout the United States and at every Army post and on every navalvessel were ordered placed at half mast. The Senate and House adjourned after culogies of the former President had been delivered by both Republicans and Democrats and committees had been appointed to attend his funeral and the supreme Court took unprecedented action in adjourning without the tranraction of any business.

Formal tributes were paid Colonel Roosevelt by Government officials, members of Congress and Cabinet officers President Wilson was cabled the news by the executive offices of the White House. Many touching statements of personal grief were made by men and women who had been associnied closely with the ex-President during his life in Washinston, and members of the diplomatic corps expressed the admiration which the people in forelgn lands held for him.

Party Harmony Forecast.

Political effects of Colonel Roose relit's death began to be discussed. Inassuch as Colonel Roosevelt had been mentioned prominently as a possible Presidential nominee in 1920, it was inevitable that his passing should cause speculation as to other candidates.
There had been reports that Colonel ocratic leaders took the that Colonel's Roosevelt's loss left the Republican party without a leader or potential Presidential candidate.

In the Capitol lobby discussions the name of General Pershing was men-tioned frequently as a possible Repub-lican standard bearer in 1929. Some Republican leaders, however, declared emphatically that General Pershing could not be seriously considered. The Republican opinion generally seemed to be that there was plenty of time in which to select a candidate and plenty In presenting the formal resolutions in the Senate, Democratic Leader Mar-tin eulogized Mr. Roosevelt as "a truly

Since the Republican schism of 1912 and the return of the Democrats to power, Colonel Roosevelt admittedly had been out of harmony with some elements of the party.

Republican leaders asserted that the feath of the founder of the Progressive party would mean the complete reunion of the Republicans.

interfere with the complete Americanization of our people. Our principle in this matter should be absolutely simple.

"In the first place we should insist that if the immigrant who comes here does, in good faith, become an American and assimilates himself to us, he shall be treated on an exact equality with everyone else, for it is an outrage to discriminate against any such man because of creed or birthplace or origin. But this is predicated upon the man's becoming in very fact an American, and nothing but an American.

"If he tries to keep segregated from men of his own origin and separated from the rest of America, then he isn't doing his part as an American. There can be no divided alliance at all.

"We have room for but one flag, the American flag, and this excludes the red flag, which symbolizes all wars against liberty and civilization just as much as it excludes any foreign flag of a nation to which we are hostile.
