(By Mail.)

included, one year . included, six months.

(By Carrier,)

How to Remit—Send postoffice money or er, express or personal check on year loca sigh. Stamps, coin or currenty are an own for risk. Give postoffice address in bull. iny and state.

singe Rates 12 to 16 pages, 1 cent; 18 pages, 2 cents; 54 to 48 pages, 3 cents; 60 pages, 4 cents; 62 to 76 rages, 5 i 78 to 82 pages, 6 cents. Foreign postge, double rates.

Easiern Business Office—Verres & Conkn, Brunewick building, New York; Verres &
snakin, Stager building, Chicago; Verres &
unakin, Free Press building, Chicago; Mich;
an Francisco representativa, R. J. Hidweil,

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS,

champion a cause with all his might realized that much needed mending in of country was a passion and carried by his example he strove to elevate developed a new and higher type of when there was no peace.

When there was no peace.

He would have struck when the politician. He regarded party as a means of public service, and he did Lusitania was sunk, and he more than deemed it false to that ideal.

the abounding energy of Roosevelt's ested him, from international statesto know all the mysteries of nature, especially of man, and to solve all the out of war." problems which they presented. As a oy he studied animal life; as a man he studied man as the most absorbing atirred him to bitter denunciation of the eve of his death, he should the idle rich, the loafers, the morally have said: "There must be no sagging inefficient and the crooked. His life in the West revealed to him its great wealth of resources and fired him with a sound conclusion while slowe brains were laboring toward it, and he promptly hastened to put it in execution, beating down opposition and slaying with invective all who stood in his way. An opinion was no sooner formed in his mind than it was ommunicated to the world in speeches, books magazine articles and all the many ways of publicity, and was championed with restless vigor. As we trace his public career, w can almost see him grow from a local politician to a statesman of world renor, were preparation for greater work, for which he showed his fitness when, as Assistant Secretary of the Navy, he ordered Dewey to Manila to the ambitious designs of the Kalser. was produced by Roosevelt and by th His combativeness and his yearning to e on the scene of action put him at him. the head of the Rough Riders in the charge up San Juan Hill. His impatience of restraint in the presence human suffering and official blundering led him to circulate the famous round robin at Santiago. When he saw what he deemed a wrong, his uncontrollable impulse was to smash it, and the greater the wrong the greater 35 feet, for there is good reason to flying immeasurably more challenges

When fate called Roosevelt to the Presidency, these qualities had full depth mentioned will be permanent has marked any phase of transportaplay, and the great capacity and many all the year around, as was decided at tion and travel in the history of the sides of the man were revealed. He the conference with Colonel Zinn, and world. ruthlessly attacked corporate wrongs that the channel will be widened, for in all their varied forms. He drove it is now only half the width of that thing that comes to pass in the methe irrigation bill through Congress, up the Elbe to Hamburg. and committed the Nation to the policy of conservation. He brought the long controversy over the isthmian actual minimum depth and unless it is canal to an end, turned Congress from Nicaragua to Panama and seized the "take Panama" promptly that he was falsely, though with some superficial show of reason. accused of having staged the revolu- they pass the word around among tion. After trying one man after another, he found in General Goethals the man to dig the canal, and by cutting the trammels which Congress had tradict us, and the owner of his ves- be duplicated whenever a determined devised he gave Goethals the undisputed power that was necessary.

Roosevelt's pugnacious energy forme a show of reason for his being called to live down a bad reputation, a militarist by those whom he contemptuously termed mollycoddles. In fact, he accomplished more to preserve peace among nations than any other man of his time, not excepting carefully avoid quoting the whole quently in extending our commerce. phase, "Step softly, but carry a big stick." He advocated use of the big stick only when other means of destanded the blockading powers to arbitrate their Venezuelan claims, yet he is styled an advocate of war, et in the less as load practically as long to milk her, and at as winner of the Nobel peace prices the difference of 20 appraised abroad than by his Americappraised abroad than by his Americappraised abroad than by his Americappraised abroad than Boosevelt at the close of his second term, but then close of his seco

aggressive nature combined with his trampled on Belgium would stop at hibit the liquor traffic had succeeded that is, by force. when once he espoused it. He early for the life of democracy and civiliza- the first time submitted to the people ticians were held in low esteem; but mercy for hyphenated Americans, who clamored for a spurious neutrality, or politics into public service, and he for pacifists, who bleated of peace ot scrupie to cast it aside when he any other one man aroused the American people to realization of their duty But politics could not exhaust all of to their country and the world's freedom. He refused a new nomination All things in the world inter- for President and promoted reunion of the Republican party in the cause manship to ornithology, and he craved of Americanism against the party which boasted that it had "kept us

He proved that his was no merely vocal patriotism when he offered his services to lead a division in France. of all studies; as a politician and when he gave his four sons to the statesman he studied cities, states, and, Army and when, on receiving news finally, nations. His quick sympathy that his son Quentin had been killed ingly the following from the Emporia had extremely flexible boundaries, and with human nature was aroused on in an air fight, he said he was "very with human nature was aroused on behalf of the sweatshop worker in New York, the drudge-wife of a Western farmer, the naked negro of East Africa or the oppressed nations of Europe and Asiatic Turkey. His indignation was stirred by the greed of the trusts, the betrayal of the people by their servants at the behest of the bosses, the wrongs formerly perpetrated by the railroads, the infamies of child labor and the crime of race suicide. His love of the strenuous life that in his last public statement, issued on the every of his death, he should represent the surpellor on the eve of his death, he should represent the surpellor of the same and the crime of race suicide. His love of the strenuous life that in his last public statement, issued the surpellor of the strenuous life that in his last public statement, issued on the ever of his death, he should represent the surpellor of the strenuous life. behalf of the sweatshop worker in Shad the Young man "had the Chance to render some service to his back in the fight for Americanism." For he was the greatest example of that invincible spirit which has carambition to stop their waste and to ried the American flag triumphantly forward in many a battle from Lexpromote their use, for his desire was to see all men and all nature in this broad continent at work to their highest efficiency. His quick brain leaped nent, new bids fair to win the whole orld for democracy.

For twenty years the National life around Theodore Roosevelt. Whether he was in or out of office, he has down. ments, he will live in history as a moral force which lifted the people up to the high level of idealism that passed; but the economic lesson sur- mans and Magyars, and only accordstatesman will be remembered as the practical application of his ideals. We can only measure the change which perplexed us before Roosevelt became a National voice and a National asset It is a veritable moral, political, social destroy the Spanish fleet and thwart and economic transformation, and it men who received their impulse from The Nation has rarely seen his equal, and has never seen his like.

MAKE THE CHANNEL DEEP AND WIDE his arder, for nothing could daunt his believe that such depth will be needed the imagination than traveling on the

To say that we have a channel of a certain depth is folly unless that is the momentous incidents in airplane hismaintained at all time, not merely after the annual dredging is com so pleted. Although we may deceive Egypt, to the border of Baluchistan. ourselves, we cannot deceive ship cap- to a region heretofore almost unknown tains who navigate the channel, and and practically unmapped. their craft all over the world. If we Andes, reaching an elevation of 19,700 should claim greater depth than we feet under practical flying conditions, have, some ship captain would con- which make it plain that the feat can sel would believe him in preference, aviator sets his mind to the job.
When thus discredited, we should not Gianni Caproni, Italian make ports may be expected to visit Port- other which will accommodate 100 land, and it will be worth much to passengers, furnishing them with the port if their captains carry away modern conveniences, including cabfavorable reports about the depth and ins, meals and beds. that arch-pacifist, W. J. Bryan; but width of the channel and the excel-be refused to keep the peace at the lence of the harbor facilities. It will building a plane for a trans-Atlantic sacrifice of right, even though this be worth much more if the facts agree voyage. An effort is to be made, permeant war. He was proud of the title with the statements sent abroad. We haps as a part of German after-the-'practical idealist" which he gave him- shall then establish a reputation for war propaganda, to obtain for Gerself, for he refused to ignore hard, the port and for the reliability of its many the distinction of having first unpleasant facts in pursuing his ideal published statements which will prove made the voyage. of peace. His pacifist critics love to a valuable asset in obtaining ships at Oregon Agricultural College betrays made a flight with fifty passengers. no secret in a recent statement that fending the right had failed, but his "feed cost of poor-producing cows in significant few weeks in the history known readiness to use it scared Ger- Oregon is but little lower than of high- of navigation. Height, distance and thing to oblige. many out of Venezuela when he producing cows," but it does a service carrying capacity all are involved in threatened to send Dewey and the in presenting precise figures which these reports. For we are willing to Atlantic fleet. He thus prevented ought to impress any owner of one or accept the trans-Atlantic voyage as made to burn, wrong and probably also prevented more cows. Thus, it is shown that it fait accompli. The thing can be done ar.

By his mediation he brought about feed cows which produced 300 pounds tails are attended to. Not a student peace between Russia and Japan, and of butterfat than it did to feed those of flying is there that doubts it. he did much to pacify the turbulent which produced 400 pounds, and the nothing, that the allies were fighting in 1887, when it was, we believe, for tion, and that, if they should be as a constitutional amendment after dom of Bohemia, deposing German private indulgence then, will venture back the waves of Bolshevism on a to say that it would have been practicable. Is it not a reasonable as- vanced to the farthest limits of Transumption that, if state-wide prohibition had been tried and had failed, the day of effective control, or virtual Italy's claim to Dalmatia, and the elimination, of the liquor traffic allies have occupied the province in bled boche.

Magyars.

alien population. Poland, for example, at one time held sway from the Baltic

Flagging a train with torpedoes, that quor may be unloaded in an unfreenough to see the young people fought for the freedom of the seas.

Redding is too neighborly altogether.

You never saw anything solider than

The native and acclimated Oregonian

Shorter skirts this year will settle that "two looks" rule or regulation,

Put the members in masks and let enjoys rain, but ice is a sufferance and the condition of the Portland banks as kept secret.

discovers the fact.

guess.

tobacco? If so, we are to behold in- claims the widest stretch of territory teresting times.

GOING AHEAD.

The Chicago Tribune quotes approv-

Gazette:

ment to the returning soldier has something to do with it; but building lions and it would never be done. For the period of the war road con- convention-fixers? struction was mostly suspended. Their need was never so obvious. If there had been a system of National high-United States has revolved ways, the transportation service of the league of peace. An effective Government would not have broken The profitable use of well- in the hands of the great democratic usually been the central figure. Great as have been his practical achievenomic ways, was a demonstration to all of their importance and necessity, other nations' rights to self-determinathey now occupy, and his acts as a vives and the economic need remains. ing to the methods of democracy. The Illinois bonding law is said to be modeled on the Oregon law. It was a constructive and wise measure. he chiefly has wrought by comparing Other states are going ahead, some of veloped in the Army. This is a small programme devised by the state in the civilian is not. 1917 may be safely enlarged.

AVIATORS BREAKING THE TRAIL

It would be a mistake to suppose that the spruce industry recently developed with reference to its bearing upon airplane construction has seen its best days. Indeed, if we read the signs aright, aviation is now passing through a period corresponding to that It is well that the Port of Portland of the automobile some twenty years amission and the Dock Commission ago, with this difference, that the auhave taken up the question of deep- tomobile already has broken the trail ening the Columbia River channel to of engine construction, and also that by the time it is attained. It is to be ground. The psychological factors all oped that the work will be done in point to development of aviation at a such manner as to insure that the rate relatively far more rapid than

We are no longer amazed by any able to appraise calmly the recent tory. For example:

Within a few weeks a British Major-General has flown from Cairo, Lieutenant Godoy has crossed the Gianni Caproni, Italian maker of be believed even when we told the great airplanes, says that he has altruth, and the channel would have ready constructed a machine capable of carrying thirty persons and a heavy In the near future ships from all cargo, and that he is working on an

The Navy Department at Washingte his phase "big stick," but they favorable charter rates, and conse- ton has announced that an American- whichever it be. built craft, equipped with Liberty mo tors developing 1200 horsepower, had Certainly there never were a mor

Henry Ford wants a recount. Any-Tough on the woodpile, but fuel is fitting close of strenuous life.

shown in the latest reports.

snow an abomination.

Those Who Come and Go.

So there remains to be done noth-Two Grant County boys, discharged Central American republics. He took cost for those yielding 200 pounds the initiative in calling the second Hague conference, he caused arbitration of disputes with Britain and personal second pounds. The difference, the caused arbitration of disputes with Britain and personal second pounds and the second was only $8.78 less than for those airplanes. The hidden recesses of at the Imperial. One is M. J. Steach, vast mountain chains will be visited to flow the aviation service, have arrived was only $8.78 less than for those airplanes. The hidden recesses of at the Imperial. One is M. J. Steach, vast mountain chains will be visited to flow the aviation service, have arrived was only $8.78 less than for those airplanes. The hidden recesses of at the Imperial. One is M. J. Steach, vast mountain chains will be visited to flow the aviation service, have arrived was only $8.78 less than for those airplanes. The hidden recesses of at the Imperial. One is M. J. Steach, vast mountain chains will be visited to flow the aviation service, have arrived was only $8.78 less than for those airplanes. The hidden recesses of at the Imperial. One is M. J. Steach, vast mountain chains will be visited to flow the aviation service of a the Imperial of the Imperial suaded the blockading powers to arbitrate their Venezuelan claims, yet he is styled an advocate of war. The acclaimation with which he was spected departable credited to it or that paper, and also it be local enough many cannot denew published a preserved.

All feshs of repulseation of special dismines a preserved.

THEODORE ROOSEVELT.

The severest critics of Theodore Roosevelt will agree that he was one of the greatest Americans. By sheer strength of will be triumphed over strength of will be trangthed because he did not to fail the appear of the airplane builders in time of beace.

But he made rich amends in the least ax year of his life for any error which is the product of the inthe airplane builders in time of beace.

But he made rich amends in the least ax year of the life will be a will be a triumphed o charge. Sergeant Fox was discharged Thus it is that the Czechs are occuat Camp Eustis, Va.

realized that much needed mending in American public affairs and that no man can accomplish much without allying himself with party. His love of country was a passion and carried of the fourth engage of the provisional government of country was a passion and carried of the fourth engage of the provisional government of the fourth engage of the provisional gover James F. Corbett, train dispatcher at of country was a passion and carried him into politics at a time when politics at a time when public opinion and the tolerance of Ukrainians on another, while they dam him into politics at a time when public opinion and the tolerance of Ukrainians on another, while they dam has been public opinion and the tolerance of Bolshevism on a back the ways of Bolshevism on a service.

third side. The Roumanians have addespite the profests of the 303, is in the city for a rest. He is now Artillery has left France yet. If n
The Jugo-Slavs contest a junior Lieutenant; before he went to when will it leave? What is its prese sylvania despite the protests of the war he was in the local hydrographic location and where will it be demoble office. For some time he taught navigation at Pelham Bay, and later was would have been long postponed?

The Newberg attitude is interesting to The Oregonian because it discloses four or five in Russia, and their boundaries are fixed by the good old formers who have succeeded, or think they have, with prohibition. Is their next great cause to be prohibition of at all modest about their claims. Each two rival governments in Siberia and sent to sea in the submarine chaser, a boat 110 feet long, carrying a crew the submarine chaser, a boat 110 feet long, carrying a crew of 23 and with a fuel capacity for three weeks. Lieutenant Gibbons please note that the 65th was assigned for early convoy on December 7, but proposed at all modest about their claims. Each on board gets seasiek. During his two rival governments in Siberia and a boat 110 feet long, carrying a crew the submarine chaser, a boat 110 feet long, carrying a crew of 23 and with a fuel capacity for three weeks. Lieutenant Gibbons please note that the 65th was assigned for early convoy on December 7, but months of cruising he rever saw as to be be prohibition of the sub-chaser as a sure cause to be prohibition of the sub-chaser as a sure cause of seasickness. Everyone on board gets seasiek. During his two rival governments in Siberia and a boat 110 feet long, carrying a crew the submarine chaser, a boat 110 feet long, carrying a crew the submarine chaser, a boat 110 feet long, carrying a crew the submarine chaser.

The Oregonian has numerous inqui-ries of this nature regarding the 65th three weeks. Lieutenant Gibbons please note that the 65th was assigned for early convoy on December 7, but prove the submarine chaser. months of cruising he never saw a sub, although the 303 was ready to scoot it ever held in the days of its greatest power, though this may have been held hour, for only a brief period many centuries

Roy N. Bishop, general manager of ago and may include solid blocks of the Palace Hotel in San Francisco, registered at the Benson yesterday on his way home from Spokane, where he has Eugene; A Subscriber, Astoria; Mrs. some mining interests.

to the Black Sea, but not for long, and it ruled over Lithuanians, Ger-Mr. and Mrs. Horace Palton, of Gold Hill, are at the Imperial. Their home is in Sam's Valley, where the Rogue River Indians made their last stand. mans, Ruthenians and Cossacks, Poland is now reaching after the old boundaries, and is determining herself Mrs. Palton says the Indians were not forced to jump from Table Rock into by stout blows delivered at the humthe river, as some people contend, be-cause it would be a three-mile jump. Does any man in his senses imagine that these people, fired with the pent-work, where he can be self-respecting and provided with the common necessaries of life, at least, until something better is of lered.

The war has somehow given the good roads movement a new impulse. The common desire to give employment to the returning soldier has somehors of the league, vote ment to the returning soldier has a conding to the dictates of justice and lasks when he ran his boat so far a conding to the dictates of justice and lasks when he ran his boat so far a conding to the dictates of justice and lasks when he ran his boat so far a conding to the dictates of justice and lasks when he ran his boat so far a conding to the dictates of justice and lasks when he ran his boat so far a conding to the dictates of justice and lasks when he ran his boat so far a conding to the dictates of justice and a conding to the dictates of justice and a conding to the league, vote Down at the Multnomah are a couup hate and ambition of centuries and something to do with it; but building roads, or any public work, merely to pay wages to somebody would not be of the leastly after the time being wrecked in a sufficient reason for spending mil- of the league after the time-honored the South Seas and how he subsisted on manner of diplomacy and of American canuts after reaching an island via the raft route.

The emancipated peoples have much E. M. Blake, who has a shipyard at to learn before they can practice the Oakland, Cal., is at the Hotel Portland. high ideal which has been set for the Ross Finnigan, at the Benson, yesof their education will be the big stick terday received two letters from overformer manager of the Benson, who is now at Brest, France, and the other was from George Underwood, a former Benson employe, now with th Now, the military exigency has tion, not excepting the defeated Ger- Field Artillery, who has been fighting with the American forces near Ver-dun. Mr. Underwood writes that the only thing he wants now is to get back to Portland. He is fed up on war.

of mental aberration that have de-Dr. W. J. Kerr, president of the Orpolitician to a statesman of world reported to a states are going ahead, some of the ore to a states are going ahead, some of the oreally return. If so, what is the control of them on the Oregon plan. Here it is for early return. If so, what is the enemy property and sold, what becomes the form of the property and sold, what becomes the form of the property and sold, what becomes the perfect to a states are going ahead, some of the property and sold, what becomes the perfect to a states are going ahead, some of the property and sold, what becomes the perfect to a states are going ahead, some of the property and sold, what becomes the perfect to a states are going ahead, some of the property and sold, what becomes the perfect to a states are going ahead, some of the property and sol

R. L. Taggart, former football star o' the Oregon Agricultural College, arthe Atlantic Coast and "over there."

Mrs. John Withycombe, and Miss label Withycombe, of Salem, are Anybody who thinks the old world Mabel is out of gear should stay up late among the Portland Hotel arrivals.

ing the playhouses and make another Herbert Hanlon, editor of the Pe cific Shipping Illustrated, a Seattle magazine that devotes considerable space to Portland, is at the Multnomah. The last time he was here Mr. Hanlon brought his mother down to the Grand There should be enough captured and surrendered U-boats to distribute a number at the principal American ports, as exhibits of how the Huns Frank Albers, of San Francisco, and George Albers, of Scattle, arrived yes-terday at the Benson. They are mem-bers of the Albers Bros. Milling Com-Shoe manufacturers would do well to remember that there is a limit to the brevity of short skirts, which is pany, of this city.

Ben Brown, Sheriff of Malheur County, came to the Imperial yesterday imposed by the high cost of shoes as to look 'em over. It is no news that Western men are Senator Waiter M. Pierce, of La Grande, sold a car of fancy Hereford beef cattle from his Grand Ronde Valmore intelligent than those of the East. It will be news when the East ley farm yesterday for the highest cember 7. It probably has sailed by price ever paid in North Portland this time, but had not appeared in lists California will please head her yards, 11 cents. This is the highest up until January 3. Watch arrival lists quakes the other way. That one at price paid for a full car.

> 308th Enginers. PORTLAND, Jan. 6.—(To the Editor.)
> —(1) In what division is Company C.
> 308th Regiment Engineers?

If all that Sir Arthur Pearson says about the expertness of the blind, what's the use of eyes, anyhow? (2) Where was it when the armistice Big joke at El Paso. Six hundred (3) Where is it now?

Mexicans have organized for peace (4) What work are they doing? (1) It is in the 83d Division. His house was in order and he (2) Lemans and Castres, France, (3) No further announcement. assed as in a pleasant dream. It was > difficult to say. 354th Aero Squadron,

ORCHARDS, Wash., Jan. 5.—(To the Editor.)—Please publish whether the 354th Aero Squadron is detailed to come home or if it is in the Army of Occupation. A SOLDIER'S WIFE. It is not yet listed for return, but is not in the Army of Occupation. Company D, 37th Engineers,

NORTH BEND, Or., Jan. 5.—(To the Editor.)—Please tell me in what divison the 37th Engineers, Company D. is. Are they listed for early return?
A SOLDIER'S WIFE.

It is not in a division. Was last reported at Souilly, France, with no intimation as to immediate return.

ACTIVITY OF FOURTH ENGINEERS

Letter From France Gives Brief History of Operations of Unit. OAKLAND, Cal., Jan. 3 .- (To the Editor.)—The following extract from a letter written November 23 by Lieutenant Meldrum M. Rinearson, 58th In-

I am sorry G. M. B. K. failed to sign his or her name, for I would have been glad to have mailed letters of interest

Demobilization of 65th Coast Artillery HUBBARD, Or., Jan. 4 .- (To the Edi W. E. Gibbons, late of the sub-chaser tor.)-Please tell me if the 65th Coast the sailings and arrivals as printed in after them at a rate of 37 knots an the news columns. Under present practices the unit will undoubtedly be demobilized at Fort Stevens. This is all the available information we can give Constant Reader, Portland; Subscriber, R., Hood River.

> Battery D, 119th Field Artillery, TILLAMOOK, Or., Jan. 4.—(To the Editor.)—Please tell me in what division Battery B, 119th Field Artillery, is, and if it has been ordered for home. Are Marines whose time expired during the war, but who were held until the war was over, discharged o kept in the Army of Occupation until all come home? A MOTHER.

> The 119th Field Artillery is in the 32d Division Army of Occupation, last reported with headquarters at Consdorf, Luxemburg. Such Marine will probably be held only until he can be released without inconvenience if he seeks release.

Field Hospital 167. LA GRANDE, Or., Jan. 4 .- (To the Editor.)—Kindly state where these Artillery expected home? Hospital 167; Sanitary Field (1) Train 117: 42d Division. Where are they at present? When are they slated for re-C. H. turn?

1 and 2. The hospital and train are a part of the 42d Division, now in at Mersch, Luxemburg. 3. Slated to remain Seized Enemy Property.

SIFTON, Wash., Jan. 4.—(To the Ed-ltor.)—When the property of an enemy

The property is held in trust for the liquor may be unloaded in an unfre-quented spot, may lose somebody a job. Such doings cannot always be one of the transports crossing between the military disadvantage of this country.

ALSEA, Or., Jan. 4.—(To the Editor.)
—In The Oregonian several days ago Company 17, of the Air Service Muchanics, was listed for early return home. Does this include the First Regi-ment Motor Mechanics, of the fourth battallon? A SUBSCRIBER. battallon?

the First Regiment, M. M., A. S., evi- presumably will remain in Germany, dently belonging either to the Fourth or Fifth Regiment.

Fifth Corps Artillery Park PORTLAND, Jan. 6 .- (To the Editor.) -Has the Fifth Corps Artiflery Park, M. O. R. S., left France yet? If not, is It among the units coming A SUBSCRIBER.

The Fifth Corps Artillery Park was listed for convoy home on date of Deup until January 3. Watch arrival lists in The Oregonian.

PORTLAND, Jan. 6.—(To the Editor.)

—Are the non-commissioned officers now in the officers' training schools in France to be retained until they make yet, when will it be? F. M. ROBBINS. their commission, or will they be mustered out with their old regiments?

MRS. M. SPURLIN.

A non-commissioned officer in training has the option of being discharged with his unit or of finishing his train- was Hayingen, Germany. (4) This is a depot division and just ing and taking a commission in the what the duties of its enginers are is Officers' Reserve.

> Company F. Second Field Artillery. PORTLAND, Jan. 6 .- (To the Editor.) -Kindly tell me if possible where Company F. Second Field Artillery, is. Settember 16 it was at Fort Sill, Okla. WORRIED MOTHER AND SISTER.

It is a part of the Eighth Division. The Eighth landed in France about the been listed for return. time the armistice was signed and the artillery has been ordered home.

Now in the 65th Coast Artillery, MORO, Or., Jan. 4.—(To the Editor.)
—Kindly tell me if Battery C, 65th Artillery, which was stationed at Fort Stevens before going overseas, is now Stevens beigre going development of 65th Coast in the 65th Field Artillery or 65th Coast Artillery.

A READER. Artillery.

It is in the 65th Coast Artillery,

In Other Days.

Twenty-five Years Ago. The Oregonian of January The Portland Chamber of Commerce condemned the statements contained in Governor Pennoyer's Christmas ter to President Cleveland as b "erroneous, misicading, injurious and not warranted nor substantlated in any manner by the facts or condition existing in any section of the state, or Berlin .- An agreement regarding the Russian treaty of commerce reached on all points but the Russian side. The difficulty now remaining is the duration of the treaty. Russia tavors a short and Germany demands a long period.

Oregon City.—Report of the local U. land office for 1893 shows that 576 homestead entries were filed covering 82,447 acres. Final proof numbered 379, embracing 56,921 acres. There were also 62 homestead commutations, Sheriff Kelly did not receive any varrant for his fees during the month of December. According to a state-ment made by Judge Moreland, his revenues will be cut off entirely until he has liquidated his debt to the county Sheriff Kelly remarked that he would be ready to settle with the county just as soon as he could secure the final report on the delinquent tax roll.

Fifty Years Ago.

From The Oregonian of January 7, 1869. New York.—Vigilance committees are being organized in most of the wards of the city for the purpose of bringing rogues to justice.

London.-It is said that Greece will introduce the claims of the Cretans into the Paris conference, and will command that they be allowed to declare who shall be their rulers by plebisci-Jucksonville Or .- The smallner is raging here. All business is suspended. There are 19 cases under treatment at the pesthouse, six of which are announced convalescent.

The West Side Railroad Company has isbursed since breaking ground last April nearly $75,000 in gold coin, besides large sums paid in lands and bonds; has finished 130,000 cubic yards of grading, and still has a large gradforce at work beyond the Previously Answered in News Columns PORTLAND, Jan. 6 .- (To the Edi--Please tell me whether the 146th Field Artillery, D, is still in France, If so, what part, and when will they return to the United States?

MRS. A. W. PORTLAND, Jan. 6 .- (To the Editor.)-Please inform me as to where Company D, 161st Infantry, is now located. What division is it in and is it listed for early return? "OLDIER'S MOTHER.

PORTLA: J. Jan. 6.—(To the Editor.)—Can you give me any information regarding the 91s* Division, especially the 364th Infantry, Mechanics? Are they being held for the Army of cupation, or will they be sent SOLDIER'S WIFE.

PORTLAND, Jan. 6 .- (To the Editor.)—In what division is Battery A, 147th Field Artillery, and where is it at present? Is it listed for early return?

COTTAGE GROVE, Or., Jan. 6 .the Editor.)-Please inform me wheth-er the 347th regiment of Field Artillery of the 91st Division is slated for early return home

A SOLDIER'S WIFE. The foregoing questions were answered fully in the news columns of The Oregonian on January 4.

48th Coast Artillery. PENDLETON, Or., Jan. 5,-(To the Editor.)-How soon is the 48th Coast

PORTLAND, Jan. 6,—(To the Editor.)
—Where is the 48th Coast Artillery, Battery E, now located. Are they listed for early return home? CONSTANT READER.

The 48th Coast Artillery was desiguated for return on December 14. Army of Occupation, with headquarters Watch sailings and arrivals in The Oregonian news columns

116th Engineers Assigned for Convoy PORTLAND, Jan. 6.—(To the Editor.)
—Kindly tell me if Company A and Company D, 116th Engineers, are listed

The 116th Engineers were assigned for convoy on December 28. owners and they will be reimbursed The Oregonian news columns for their as soon as there is no possibility that sailing. The 18th Engineers have not

> 145th and 146th Field Artillery. PORTLAND, Jan. 6.—(To the Editor.)
> -Please tell me if the 145th Field Artillery is with the Army of Occoupa-tion, also have you any information concerning the 146th Field Artillery? READER.

The 145th has been ordered home and he 146th is listed with the Army of Decupation. The latter is a part of the Company 17 is not listed as a part of 141st Division, now ordered home, but > Son's Obligation to Support Mother. GALVIN, Wash., Jan. 4.—(To the Editor.)—Who would be compelled by law to support a widow who has three married daughters and one married son, the daughters not having any children and the son having six? All par-ties are earning their support by day's The daughters have no propwnres. and sons-in-law refuse to help, The son is able to support his mot A SUBSCRIBER.

The obligation rests upon the son.

Battery C, Sixth Field Artillery. DALLAS, Or., Jan. 5 .- (To the Editor.)-In what division is Battery C,

It is in the First Division, Army of Occupation, and not likely to be retruned for many months. Last an-104th Aero Squadron. ASTORIA, Or., Jan. 5.—(To the Editor.)—Please tell me in what division the 104th Aero Squadron is and where located. MRS. BLUCHARD.

Aero squadrons are not divisional anits. Location of the 104th has not been given. Watch lists in The Oregonian news columns, as it has not yet

Ordered Home, But Has Not Sailed. ECHO, Or., Jan. 4.—(To the Editor.)
-Kindly state in tomorrow's Oregonian
Battery C. 46th Regiment, C. A. C., if Battery C. has sailed and, if so, SOLDIER'S WIFE It has been ordered home, but not listed in announcements of sailings. which you can follow in the regular news columns,