

WASHINGTON OFFICERS ON WAY TO FUNERAL

Vice-President Marshall to Represent President.

FLAGS PUT AT HALF MAST

Wilson Issues Official Proclamation to American People Paying Tribute to Mr. Roosevelt.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—Vice-President Marshall, acting as the personal representative of President Wilson, left Washington tonight for Oyster Bay, N. Y., to attend the funeral tomorrow of Theodore Roosevelt.

President Wilson, at Paris, sent a personal cablegram to Mr. Marshall today asking that he attend the funeral as the President's representative. Later Mr. Wilson sent an official proclamation to the American people in which he paid tribute to Mr. Roosevelt and directed that flags on all Government buildings be displayed at half-mast for 30 days and that suitable military and naval honors be rendered.

Law Forbids Closing.
Inquiries as to why Government departments were not ordered closed during the funeral revealed that an act passed in 1893 forbids such marks of respect to former Government officials. As far as possible, however, Government activities will cease. The Senate adjourned over tonight until Thursday and the House will meet for only a brief session. Most committee hearings set for tomorrow were abandoned.

General March, chief of staff, will represent the War Department at the funeral.

Philippe will act for the State Department, and Rear-Admiral Cameron McIlwain for the Navy Department.

Congressmen Go to Funeral.

About 40 Senators and Representatives comprised the Congressional funeral party which left here today in three special cars, accompanied by Senate and House sergeants-at-arms and other officers. The Senate delegation, with Senator Lodge of Massachusetts, the Republican leader, as chairman, included Senators Calder of New York, Johnson of California, Knox of Pennsylvania, Kellogg of Minnesota, Poincaré of Washington, Curtis of Kansas, Harding of Ohio, Chamberlain of Oregon, Smoot of Utah, Phelan of California, Henderson of Nevada, Gay of Louisiana, King of Utah, Martin of Kentucky, New of Indiana and Sutherland of West Virginia. Other Senators left on later trains. The Senate committee was enlarged, under revised plans made today, because some Senators originally appointed on the committee were unable to leave, including Majority Leader Martin, while others were absent from Washington.

Kitchen Unable to Attend.

Members of the House committee included Speaker Clark and Representatives Sherley of Kentucky, Webb of North Carolina, Flood of Virginia, Dent of Alabama, Sherwood of Illinois, Padgett of Tennessee, Steadman of North Carolina, Estep of Louisiana, Riordan of New York, McAndrew of Illinois, Galt of Massachusetts, Seney of New York, Mann of Illinois, Fordney of Michigan, Gillett of Massachusetts, Volstead of Minnesota, Cooper of Wisconsin, Kahn of California, Butler of Pennsylvania, Mott of New York, Hicks of New York, Chandler of New York, Cannon of Illinois, Rodenberg of Illinois, and Bowers of West Virginia. Representative Kitchen of North Carolina, the Democratic leader, who is at the bedside of his daughter in Richmond, Va., was unable to accompany the party.

a cablegram today from Lieutenant-Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., saying that he and his brother, Lieutenant Kermit Roosevelt, both with the American expeditionary force in Europe, were together. Captain Archibald sent a cablegram in reply.

Theodore said also in his message that Dr. Richard Derby, husband of Ethel Roosevelt, was sailing at once for America. Lieutenant-Colonel Derby is in the medical corps, having sailed for France early in the war. Mrs. Derby is at Sagamore Hill.

Prominent Persons Call.

Many persons of prominence called at Sagamore Hill today. Representing Cuba came Carlos Manuel Cespedes, Minister to the United States; Alfonso Foreade, Secretary of the Cuban House of Representatives; and Cayetano de Quensada, vice-consul. After telling Captain Roosevelt how high was the esteem in which the Cuban people held his father, they informed him that at the request of the people of Cuba the government proposed to erect in Havana a monument to the Colonel.

Another Sagamore Hill caller was Colonel Alexander Sautbert, Medical Corps, United States Army, who had at various times attended the Colonel. After talking with Mrs. Roosevelt he said that she was bearing up remarkably well, adding that the American people had little realized how much the ex-President depended on Mrs. Roosevelt throughout his career. Captain Roosevelt replied today to the cablegram in which President Wilson expressed to Mrs. Roosevelt his sympathy for her loss. The message was dispatched in New York by Elton Hooker, who was treasurer of the old Progressive National Committee, and who was a Sagamore Hill visitor today. In his response to the President, Captain Archibald Roosevelt, said:

"President Woodrow Wilson, American peace Mission, Paris, France: 'Permit me to thank you, on behalf of Mrs. Roosevelt, for your courteous message of sympathy.'

"ARCHIBALD D. ROOSEVELT, 'Captain Twenty-sixth Infantry.' Besides the callers at Sagamore Hill today, long distance telephone messages came from Vice-President Marshall in Washington and Governor Alfred E. Smith in Albany. Each talked with Captain Roosevelt, extending personal sympathy, and said he would attend the funeral tomorrow.

Sculptor Makes Mask.
It is understood here that Governor Smith of New York and the Governors of several other states have appointed committees to attend the funeral tomorrow. The Roosevelt family today telegraphed the Governors suggesting committees be limited to one or two members.

The casket in which Colonel Roosevelt will be buried is of plain oak with three silver handles on either side. The face is a simple plate of silver with the inscription:

"Theodore Roosevelt, October 27, 1858, January 6, 1919."

As a tribute to the Colonel's memory, Oyster Bay will suspend its business activities tomorrow at noon for three hours.

Tales without number were recounted today of the town life of the ex-President. There was the old German-American tradesman whose store stood as it stands today, in the heart of the village when "Teddy" as a boy was accustomed to pass each day. This elderly citizen of enemy birth, but possessing an Americanism as staunch, perhaps, as that of the Colonel himself, entered the Oyster Bay Inn yesterday when he learned of the death of the Colonel, to demand confirmation of news which had shocked the world. Informed that what he had heard was true, he collapsed in a chair and gave way to unrestrained emotion.

"If he's gone—if he's really gone—I'm through," the old friend of Theodore Roosevelt said. "There is nothing more for me to live for if Teddy is never coming by here again. Teddy—why, Teddy used to sit his dog on me when he was a boy."

Family Life Simple.

The flood of reminiscences which has swept Oyster Bay brought to public notice a circumstance which the townspeople have long been familiar with, but regarding which the outside world, perhaps, has never known. It is a circumstance which may be said to be eloquently characteristic of the gentle home life of the Roosevelt family. It was said that it was not until four months ago that the Sagamore Hill house was installed with electric lights.

Noted visitors from many lands, men of renown with international reputations by foreign governments, have come to the Sagamore Hill house to find the Colonel writing, dictating or reading by the light of oil lamps. Throughout his great home oil-burning lights only were to be found until a few months ago. On the desk at which the Colonel wrote, in his Presidential chair during White House days there stood an oil lamp.

It was neighborly reminiscences today which revealed what the townspeople have long known, but which they have not been able to put in electric lights. The servants demanded it.

"You know," the Colonel was quoted by a neighbor as saying half-apologetically, "we just had to put in electric lights. The servants demanded it." High in the air over Sagamore Hill last night and today Army airplanes from Hazelhurst Field maintained a ceaseless vigil, occasionally swooping toward the earth to drop a waft of laurel among the elms near the mansion.

ASSEMBLY ADOPTS RESOLUTION

Montana Legislators Express Regret at Personal Loss.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 7.—"With a sense of personal loss and profound grief," the House of the 16th Montana Assembly took official notice today of the death of Theodore Roosevelt. When all members standing with heads bowed, they unanimously adopted the resolutions presented by a special committee named Monday for the purpose.

The resolutions advert to the years Roosevelt spent on the plains of Eastern Montana, romantic memories of which he ever cherished, to his later years in public life as a soldier, statesman, crusader for the right and true patriot; to the fact that he stood in the presence of kings and did not lose the common touch, nor did he submerge in mingling in the crowd the royal prerogatives of an upright heart.

Mr. Roosevelt's intense love of the opinion that a great light has been put out in the parliament of man that would have illumined many ways that are dark and problems now unseen.

Suitably engrossed, a copy of the resolutions will be sent to the Roosevelt family.

City's School Children Observe
Moment of Silence.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Elaborate plans for paying the last tribute of respect toward Colonel Theodore Roosevelt at the hour set for the funeral in Oyster Bay were in process of formulation here today. It was regarded as certain that at 2 P. M., for a period of at least one minute, not a wheel would turn anywhere in Greater New York.

The bells on the historic city hall tower, Trinity Church, St. Paul's Chapel, where Washington attended, and thousands of other places of worship over all the city, including the little Dutch Reformed Church, where Colonel Roosevelt used to go in his boyhood, will be tolled.

All the New York courts prepared to adjourn tomorrow for the entire day as a mark of respect.

The New York Stock Exchange board of governors decided to close the exchange at 12:30 P. M., and all commercial bodies, including the coffee and produce exchanges, took similar action.

SPOKANE, Jan. 7.—A proclamation asking that all industry cease for five minutes at 9:45 A. M. tomorrow, the hour of funeral services for Colonel Roosevelt, was issued today by Mayor C. M. Fassett.

Local Serbians, whose Christmas falls today, announced cancellation of their plans for a celebration and said the day would be observed instead as one of sorrow over the death of Colonel Roosevelt.

CHICAGO, Jan. 7.—All Chicago will join tomorrow in paying tribute to Colonel Roosevelt's memory. Business will be suspended for five minutes at the hour when the funeral services start at the Hamilton Club. At 1:42 P. M. all streets will be halted for five minutes.

All Chicago school children will observe a moment of silence and then for 30 minutes will participate in patriotic songs and eulogistic readings. Pastors will honor the ex-President in their Sunday sermons. Plans are being made for a great memorial meeting at an early date.

HAVANA, Monday, Jan. 7.—Cuba's flag will fly at half staff over all forts, naval vessels, public buildings and military posts on the island until after the funeral of Theodore Roosevelt, in accordance with a decree issued by President Menocal tonight.

The decree paid tribute to Roosevelt for the part he played in winning Cuba's freedom.

SEATTLE, Jan. 7.—Guns of Puget Sound forts probably will fire salutes every half hour tomorrow as a mark of respect to the memory of Colonel Roosevelt, the North Pacific Coast Artillery district headquarters announced here today.

tion worthy of all admiration and emulation by the people of America. "In testimony of the respect in which his memory is held by the Government and people of the United States, I do hereby direct that the flags of the White House and the several departmental buildings be displayed at half-staff for a period of 30 days, and that staff for a period of 30 days, and that the various groups having common interests. These will then be condensed and reduced to memoranda, which the interested nations will sign and pass to the peace conference to be incorporated, if satisfactory, in the final terms.

It is believed that by this method the great powers can avoid calling in the representatives of neutral states and nominal belligerents when their interests are discussed.

Under the present scheme the representatives of neutral states and the smaller belligerents will first meet the representatives of the powers with whom they have questions pending, with the object of settling them, while the others will be free to confer with those with whom they have interests. The conference will concern principally local questions. It will be a process of elimination which is expected to reduce greatly the detailed work of the general conference.
