Kiddie Star Coming.

BABY MARIE OSBORNE, the diminutive Pathe star, is to make a tour of the country, visiting 24 cities and including Portland in her itinerary.

Baby Marie's first picture was made three years ago in the nature of an experiment. It was titled "Little Mary Sunshine," first shown in Portland at the Majestic Theater, and it launched the child upon a screen career that has made her a favorite with millions of picture followers.

Marie, despite her remarkable success, is said to be an unspoiled, lovable youngster. She's a comedy admirer and, after Charlie Chaplin, adores Harold Lloyd.

Columbia.

Olya Petrova, famous Polish star, is today's Columbia Theater headline attraction, opening an engagement in "Tempered Steel," a photo-tale of a young Southern girl from a sleepy village, who invades New York's theatrical world and valiantly struggles for recognition against hostile forces.

J. Herbert Frank, Thomas Holding and William Carlton are among Petrova's supporting players. The production is said to give her an opportunity to wear the most extensive wardrobe

Screen Gossip.

"No comedian can be funny 16 hours a day," asserts Charlie Murray. Which is worth thoughtful consideration from many screen funny (?) men.

"Kinograms" is the name World Film will use to issue its twice-a-week news pictorials.

Dustin Farnum has just returned from a duck and quail shooting trip into Mexico. He discovered that the Gringo is no more popular than a year or two ago and had to make a speedy exit.

Miss Virginia Rappe, a society girl of Los Angeles, who accepted an offer from Henry Lehrman a short time ago in Sunshine Comedies, proved herself so clever in the art of creating laughter that Mr. Lehrman probably will offer her a long-term contract to appear in important parts in many of his future productions.

Paramount-Bray pictographs have caught Douglas Fairbanks in training stunts. "Doug" is kept busy keeping himself in trim for the strenuous things he does in his pictures.

Irene Rich, who became leading lady over night, and is to be seen in that capacity with Dustin Farnum in "A Man in the Open," is a modern Diana. She went duck hunting recently and bagged three birds.

Catherine Calvert, Ruby DeRemer and Eugene O'Brien have been chosen to play the leading roles in the Salvation Army picture which will be made by the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation.

The first hero from the ranks of the motion-picture industry has returned home with high honors. He is Lieutenant William J. Moore, formerly an employee of the Famous Players-Lasky Corporation. Moore arrived in New York on the steamship Maui and was the first to reach shore. On his chest was pinned the Croix de Guerre. Moore is a member of the old 68th, of New York (now the 155th Infantry) and was wounded twice and gassed once.

"Little Women," the William A. Brady production based upon Louisa M. Alcott's immortal story of New England life, which will be released as a Paramount-Artcraft special early in January, has a particularly interesting cast, the members of which include such people as Isabel Lamon, Dorothy Bernard, Lillian Hall, Florence Filmm, Henry Hull, Conrad Nagel, Kate Lester, Julia Hurley, George Kelson and Lynn Hammond.

Your Boy in France

HE will tell you that the French have a very valuable Baume which helps to take the stiffness out of his muscles after a hard day chasing the Boche. They call it difficult to pronounce, but easy to rub on. One of the oldest and most famous of French remedies, it was originated in the laboratories of Dr. Jules Bengue of Paris.

You will find it quite remarkable in relieving pains of rheumatism and neuralgia. It is also effective for colds and catarrhal affections of the nose and throat.

But be sure you get the genuine, on sale at most drug stores, in spite of war conditions.

What France Has Done for Democracy

France has poured out blood and treasure to the breaking point to make the world safe for democracy. America owes her an enormous debt of gratitude for this and also for a perfect remedy for stomach, liver and intestinal trouble found by her peasants and used with reported marvelous results in this country. Geo. H. Mayr, for many years a prominent Chicago chemist, imports the ingredients and sells this remedy under the name of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Druggists everywhere.—Adv.
