BILL IS FRAMED FOR BUREAU OF MARKETS

Measure to Be Introduced by Senator Huston.

CALIFORNIA LAW GUIDANCE

Movement to Win Higher Price to Producer and Lower Price to Consumer Formally Launched.

Producers representing various sec-tions of the state yesterday formally launched the movement for a state bu-reau of markets, which, it is believed, will do much to standardize and stabil-ize market conditions in Oregon.

Patterned after the California law, the proposed measure will be intro-duced into the State Legislature by State Senator Huston, who will be backed by organizations representing powerful interests all over the state. The meeting of producers was called by Alma D. Katz, of the Oregon Dairymen's League, who was empowered to name a committee of five to co-operate with Senator Huston in pushing the measure to completion.

The committee, it is said, will be chosen from the State Chamber of Commerce, Farmers' Union, State Grange, State Federation of Labor and Dairymen's League. They are expected to gather the facts and present them to various organizations and the Legisla-ture in an effort to make the measure Created by the bill would be a State Market Director and a secretary. While the authority of the director would be limited, it is planned to give him every possible chance to get in touch with market conditions and to advise and co-operate with other bodies.

California Instance Cited. The director must have a knowledge of market conditions that would enable him to stabilize prices and make more certain the return to the producer and a reasonable price to the consumer," said Senator Huston. "He must work with those interested and trust more In the power of public opinion than in any power that may be delegated to him.

"In California, since the establishment of the bureau in 1914, figures show that the raisin producer is getting 54; cents a pound instead of 1 cent, while the retail price remains the same. In other lines the conditions have likewise improved.

"It is estimated that California pro-ducers last year received $200,000,000 more for their product than they would have received if the bureau had not been in existence. Oregon products such as Royal Ann cherries and prunes—are being sold by Oregon stores un-der the California label—all because Oregon producers have not learned to co-operate and to find the best market. The proposed bureau must be to a great great degree educational."

OREGANA EDITOR ELECTED

ALBANY, Or., Jan. 9 .- (Special.)-Though their son, Sidney Montgomery, was killed in action in France October 2, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Montgomery, residing southwest of this city, received no word of it until yesterday. The young man did not write often and no anxiety was felt at the lack of news, so the telegram from the War Depart-ment announcing his death came as a sudden shock. Sidney Montgomery was 20 years of age and had spent most of his life in this vicinity. He was working in Eastern Oregon when he enlisted.

Why Meat Prices Vary in Different Stores

These newspaper quotations represent live cattle prices in Chicago on December 30th, 1918.

The list shows price ranges on nine general classified groups with a spread of $13.85 per cwt.—the lowest at $6.50, and the highest at $20.35.

Why this variation in price?

Because the meat from different animals varies greatly in quality and weight.

Although the quotations shown are in nine divisions, Swift & Company grades cattle into 34 general classes, and each class into a variety of weights and qualities.

As a result of these differences in cattle prices, (due to differences in weights and meat qualities), there is a range of 15 cents in Swift & Company's selling prices of beef carcasses.

These facts explain:

1-Why retail prices vary in different stores.

2-Why it would be difficult to regulate prices of cattle or beef.

3-Why it requires experts to judge cattle and to sell meat, so as to yield the profit of only a fraction of a cent a pounda profit too small to affect prices.

ORIGIN OF THE DISEASE.

Spanish Influenza, which appeared in Spain in May, has swept over the world in numerous epidemics as far back as history runs. Hippocrates reparts affected. At the same time, fers to an epidemic in 412 B. C., which is regarded by many to have been influenza. Every century has had its attacks. Beginning with 1831, this country has had five epidemics, the last in 1889-90.

in Few Hours.

Grip, or influenza as it is now called, usually begins with a chill followed by aching, feverishness and sometimes nausea and dizziness, and a general feeling of weakness and depression.

The temperature is from 100 to 104. and the fever usually lasts from three to five days. The germs attack the hours until three doses are taken.

It promptly opens clogged-up nostrils and air passages in the head, stops nasty discharge or nose running, relieves sick headache, duliness, soreness and suffings.

The symptoms.

The symptoms.

There is no occasion for panic—influenza or grip has a very low percentage of fatalities—not over one death out of every four hundred cases, according to the N. C. Board of Health. The chief danger lies in complications arising, attacking principally patients in a run down condition—those who don't go to bed soon enough, or those who get up too early.

How To Avoid the level seems to prove that this is a germ disease, spread principally by human contact, chiefly through coughing, severe head only the appearances of a severe head only the days.

THE TREATMENT.

Nature herself is the only "cure" for influenza and will throw off the attack if only you conserve your strength. A little Quinine, Aspirin or Dever's Powder may be given by the physician's directions to aliay the aching. Always call a doctor, since the chief danger of grip is in its weakening effect on the system, which allows complications to develop. These are chiefly pneumonia and bronchits, sometimes inflammation of the middle ear, or heart affections. For these reasons, it is very important that the patient remain in bed until his steam arising.
