

REDS ARE ROUTED IN FURIOUS FIGHT

Berlin Stronghold Is Retaken by Government.

MANY SPARTACANS PRISONERS

Twenty Reported Killed in Vorwarts Building Fight.

PANIC REIGNS ALL NIGHT

Light Artillery, Mine Throwers and Gas Bombs Used in Attack by Ebert Forces.

LONDON, Jan. 12.—Fighting has been resumed in Berlin, according to advices received here tonight from Copenhagen. The Spartacans are said to be still holding a portion of the Tagelblatt building. The Spartacans losses since the outbreak of the revolution are about 1500 persons killed.

BERLIN, Jan. 11.—(By the Associated Press.)—The plant of the Vorwarts was recaptured by government troops this morning in heavy fighting. Three hundred Spartacans are reported to have been taken prisoners. More than 20 Spartacans were killed and 40 wounded in the fighting. The government losses are said to have been slight. The building was attacked from adjoining streets and housetops. The attacking forces used light artillery, mine-throwers and gas-bombs in an all-night bombardment. The Spartacans, who were barricaded in the building, replied with heavy rifle and machine-gun fire. Panic reigned throughout the neighboring district during the bombardment.

Temporary Truce Arranged.

Newspaper Row, where the plants of the Tagelblatt, Vorzeitung and Lokales Anzeiger are located, was temporarily quiet this morning as the result of a truce patched up Friday night between the government forces and the Spartacans. The armistice, which was without claims of honor, was dictated by the urgent need of the civilian population living in the danger zone to attend to its marketing and to afford business firms in the neighborhood an opportunity to look over the situation.

By the terms of the truce hostilities can only be resumed after 12 hours' notice given by either party. The government troops and the Spartacans are dividing the work of patrolling the streets leading to the big publishing plants, whose owners are still excluded from their property. Street traffic in the district was resumed immediately after the signing of the truce.

Spartacans Lose Heavily.

The Tagelblatt building is badly scarred from rifle and machine-gun fire and virtually all the front windows have been blown in. In the window space, the Spartacans have piled up rolls of print paper as barricades.

The losses of the Spartacans during the fighting in this district Friday are said to have been heavy, while the government troops declare that only two of their men were wounded.

During Friday afternoon, a squad of Spartacans attempted to enter the Tagelblatt building in a motor flying a Red Cross flag on the pretext that they wanted to bring out the dead and wounded. The government troops halted the car and found that the occupants were armed with revolvers and hand-grenades.

The Spartacans are said to have lost 20 dead and 40 wounded in the three days' fight around the Brandenburg gate at the western end of Unter den Linden.

PARIS, Jan. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—A republic has been proclaimed in Luxemburg. Grand Duchess Marie has withdrawn to her chateau near the capital.

For some time there has been considerable agitation in Luxemburg of a republican tendency. A dispatch from Metz, January 10, said a large crowd had paraded in front of the palace in Luxemburg, requesting the abdication of the Grand Duchess and the proclamation of a republic. The dispatch added that a committee on public safety had been appointed.

Previous advices were to the effect that the Grand Duchess Marie Adelaide had decided to leave Luxemburg, owing to the unfavorable political situation.

The Grand Duchy of Luxemburg is bordered on the north and northeast by Rhinish Prussia, on the south by Alsace-Lorraine, and on the west by the Belgian province of Luxemburg. The Grand Duchy is presided over by the Grand Duchess Marie Adelaide, who was born in 1894. In the treaty of London, of 1867, Luxemburg was declared neutral territory and its integrity and independence were guaranteed. At the outbreak of the present war, however, the Germans passed through Luxemburg in their invasion of Belgium, notwithstanding the protests of the Grand Duchy.

Mr. Gregory's letter of resignation, dated January 9, and the President's reply, cabled from Paris the next day, were made public tonight at the White House. The Attorney-General's letter disclosed that he had long considered retiring from office and had discussed the matter with the President before Mr. Wilson went abroad.

Successor Not Yet Named.

Mr. Gregory's successor has not yet been appointed, and there has been no official intimation as to who he will be. In speculation today the names of Frank L. Polk, counselor of the State Department, and Acting Secretary while Mr. Lansing is in Europe, and Senator James Hamilton Lewis, of Illinois, were mentioned.

No subordinate was ever more deeply grateful for the numerous friendly words and acts of his superior. During the continuance of actual warfare I did not feel at liberty to weigh these personal considerations in the balance against the public duties with which I was charged. By

MADAME LEBAUDY ADMITS SHOOTING

Wife of "Emperor of Sahara" Confesses.

"DESERVED IT," WOMAN SAYS

Husband Said to Have Threatened Her for Years.

ACQUITTAL COUNTED SURE

Nurse at Phoenix Lodge Tells of Events Following Tragedy. Curious Crowds Gather.

WESTBURY, N. Y., Jan. 12.—Madame Marie Augustine Lebaudy admitted today to District Attorney Charles R. Weeks, of Nassau County, that she shot and killed her husband, Jacques Lebaudy, known as "Emperor of the Sahara," as he entered her home, Phoenix Lodge, here last night, according to a statement issued by Mr. Weeks tonight.

"Yes, I shot him," Mr. Weeks quoted her as saying. "He had been threatening my life for 15 years and I couldn't stand it any longer."

Mr. Weeks said he would place the case before the Nassau County grand jury tomorrow, calling probably as the first witness Madame Lebaudy's 15-year-old daughter, Jacqueline, who first notified the authorities of the shooting.

Statement is Corroborated.

Constable Charles O'Connor, of Westbury, who questioned Mme. Lebaudy for more than an hour, reported to Mr. Weeks that she had admitted to him also that she fired the five shots.

The constable said Madame Lebaudy declared her husband "deserved it" and predicted she would be acquitted. "Like Mrs. Carman and Mrs. De Saullies," Minnie Wiedener, Madame Lebaudy's nurse, told officials that after the shooting Madame Lebaudy returned to her room, threw herself on the bed and reaching out, dropped "something" into the drawer of her dresser, exclaiming "God will never forgive me." A revolver containing five empty shells later was found in this drawer.

Lebaudy's Arrival Stormy.

The story of Lebaudy's arrival at the home in which he was unwelcome, was told by the Lebaudy cook, who said that Lebaudy "burst in" through the kitchen door, carrying a can of kerosene oil in one hand and a black grip in the other. About five minutes later he said, she heard the shots, and running into the main hall, saw Lebaudy lying at the foot of the grand staircase. Madame Lebaudy, she said, was slowly ascending the stairs. She said she had heard

ANARCHY RAMPANT IN BUENOS AIRES

Fighting Goes On in All Parts of City.

FOREIGN AGITATORS BLAMED

Federation of Labor Disclaims Responsibility.

CIVILIANS FORMING ARMY

Thousands Reported Volunteering for Defense of Government—Central Market Is Fired.

BUENOS AIRES, Jan. 12.—The commanders of the Government troops officially report 250 dead and 700 wounded as a result of the strike riots in this city.

The ranking naval officer, discussing this report, said: "If you double it, you will be nearer the real casualties."

BUENOS AIRES, Jan. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Although the iron workers' strike was settled yesterday and the general strike which had been declared by the Regional Federation was called off last night, there was only a slight decrease in the acts of anarchy during last night and today. The Federation, which is known as an anarchistic organization, issued a statement today disclaiming any connection with the lawlessness, which it was asserted was due to foreign agitators.

Throughout last night and during today there was shooting in various parts of the city and cavalry patrols clashed with armed groups of men. Probably the most serious fighting took place at daybreak at the penitentiary, the city water works and at several police stations.

The Fifth and 12th cavalry arrived in Buenos Aires today and there also came into the city 300 Marines and a regiment of mountain artillery, the latter being mounted.

Early this morning rioters set fire to the central market, in which several million pounds of River Plata wool were stored. The market, which is the largest wool market in the world, had been closed since the withdrawal of the American wool commission and lack of buying. This afternoon a mob set fire to a large print paper warehouse.

General Delleplaine, who assumed the military dictatorship last Friday, said today that the settlement of the strike had improved the situation, but that the troops would continue their activities in view of the anarchistic outbreaks which were being led by foreign agitators. Simultaneously with the announcement of General Delleplaine thousands of civilians reported to the police stations to enroll for the common defense. Many persons offered their automobiles and horses, and even their homes, in the general movement to assist the army in suppressing the disorders.

In many instances the residents of entire neighborhoods enlisted as a whole and were armed at the police stations, where they remained in reserve for possible calls to duty. Hundreds of students who are not required to attend their classes also are held in readiness for emergency and today were being drilled under the direction of Rear-Admiral Garcia.

Many Agitators Arrested.

Two hundred agitators thus far have been arrested. None of them has been placed in jail, but all have been interned aboard warships or in the military barracks. They include a well-known anarchist, who had been riding wildly through the city on horseback, agitating open rebellion.

The food situation in Buenos Aires was more critical today. Meat was not obtainable and vegetables were scarce. The prices for vegetables were so high that the poor were unable to purchase them.

The few milkmen who received supplies from suburban farms agreed to pour the milk into the gutters, fearing that they were likely to meet the fate of their comrades who attempted to serve milk in the Plaza Hotel Saturday.

General Delleplaine today accepted the offer of an American packing-house to supply the army and the police force with beef. The offer, however, did not extend to the public.

Some of the street railroads were operating today with infantrymen on the platforms.

Smoke Fall Over City.

The city was permeated today by a thick white smoke from burning garbage. The garbage for several days had been dumped on the street corners and it was considered necessary by the Board of Health that it should be disposed of in order to prevent possible pestilence.

The newspaper Criticon this afternoon says that the casualties resulting from the disorders thus far aggregate 143 persons killed and 700 wounded. It is admitted by the police authorities that the figures compiled by the police do not include all the casualties. It is declared that in organized attacks, such as those on the penitentiary and the water works, the rioters removed their dead and wounded
