Urgent, Post-War Reconstruction Work Precipitates an Immediate AUCTION of the entire ATIYEH stock of fine ORIENTAL RUGS —BEGINNING WEDNESDAY AT 2:00 P. M.

Reasons for the Sale Importance of the Sale Mr. A. Atiyeh is retiring from activity in the local business and is withdrawing his capital to visit the Oriental rug markets to renew Atiyeh connections that were disrupted by war and to establish importing and wholesale headquarters in New York City. Nearly 2000 Rugs, varying in dimensions, colors and designs —Rugs for the most pretentious homes, Rugs for the modest home and Rugs rare and antique for the critic and connoisseur are included. It is seldom, if ever, that such an immense collection of exquisite, dependable and carefully selected Oriental Rugs are offered for sale at auction. In testimony of the well-known fact that we specialize on the better class of Oriental Rugs, we refer with justifiable pride to the National reputation achieved through the grand prizes we have won everywhere at National exhibits.

Results of the Sale These new connecting links to be established in New York and the Orient will fortify the local store to better than ever continue its 20 years' record of representing the best interests of the retail and wholesale Oriental Rug trade in Portland and the Pacific Northwest. Everybody—here in Portland, in Oregon, or in the Northwest—who can arrange to attend this sale, will be able to buy Oriental Rugs of highest quality at their own price. Our known reputation for assuring our customers absolute satisfaction will be maintained during this sale. In case you are not satisfied with your purchase after you take it home and try it, you can exchange it after the Auction Sale, at any time within a month. Today or tomorrow up to 2 P. M. you can make selections for reservation until sale begins, when they will be offered to the highest bidder, regardless of price.

ABERDEEN PLANS WELCOME Committee Appointed to Arrange for Soldiers' Memorial. ABERDEEN, Wash., Jan. 13.—(Special)—A meeting of delegates from 25 civic and religious organizations was held here Saturday night for the purpose of arranging a fitting welcome to the men who have seen service in the United States forces upon their arrival home. A committee was named to take charge of such activities. In addition to welcoming the living, the matter of honoring fitting recognition to those who have died in the service was taken up and discussed. It was decided steps should be taken to erect a fitting memorial, and a committee was named to formulate plans. Welcoming plans will take the form of gala days at intervals most convenient to the returning men. YAKIMA CANS 20,800 TONS. YAKIMA, Wash., Jan. 12.—(Special)—Figures compiled by Harry Glen, district agent for the Northern Pacific, show that 20,800 tons of fruit and vegetables were used by Yakima by-product factories last year. The products included canned goods, dried fruits and vegetables, cider, vinegar, etc. Phone your want ads to The Oregonian, Main 7070, A 5955. BAD BREATH Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets Get at the Cause and Remove It. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel, act gently on the bowels and positively do the work. People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purifying the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does—without any of the bad after effects. All the benefits of aasty, sickening, griping cathartics are derived from Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets without griping, pain or any disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after seventeen years of practice among patients afflicted with the bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take one or two every night for a week and note the effect. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. —Adv.
