

SYNDICALIST MEASURE DELAYED AT OLYMPIA

House Postpones Passage Over Veto Until Thursday.

NEED OF ACTION SET FORTH

Effort to Get Bill Approved Because of Seattle Situation Is Blocked by Labor Leaders.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Jan. 13.—(Special)—When the Washington Legislature convened at noon today the Senate Republican organization had apparently assimilated its preliminary symptoms of insurgency together with the insurgent organization with the House organization was supposed to be aided and insured against friction and impatient at any prospect of Senatorial disunion.

Proceedings Are Blocked. House Republican leaders had previously agreed to pass the bill over the veto and later remedy by amendment approved objections to the act. The Senate passed the bill over the veto by a vote of 35 to 5 and it was sent immediately to the House, conservative Seattle members being particularly anxious to pass it on account of the riotous demonstration there Sunday night.

The deciding factor in delaying action was a showing that 24 new members had never read the vetoed bill and would not vote upon it until they had done so, a circumstance that left the organization the support of two-thirds vote required to overcome a veto.

Measure Is Draconic. The syndicalism bill is designed as a special measure. It is drafted with the I. W. W. and other radical opposition to the Government, and is stringent especially in fixing liability for encouraging or participating in such demonstrations. It holds a landlord to criminal liability for disloyal declarations a speaker may make in a rented hall and provides for responsibility upon all who compose the audience.

These are the sections that would have been read at the public procedure declared to be held in reserve after the veto had been overcome. On the other hand, some of the more determined supporters of stringent regulation believed that if the bill were passed over the veto it would be eliminated from liability to a referendum through the action of the legislature, since it was passed last session. The general impression is that it would become effective once it passed again.

Renaming of Canal Urged. The Senate today adopted resolutions on Roosevelt's death, another resolution that the Panama Canal be renamed after the late ex-President, who built it, and a third endorsing National woman suffrage. The House failed to reach the resolutions of condolence, but passed the others. Both houses lost no time in passing the legislative expense appropriation of $115,000, and $15,900 more for printing, the same amount as expended last session.

Announcement of committee appointments aroused no noticeable symptoms of disappointment today, and they, with the Governor's recess appointments, went over to special order tomorrow. The more important Senate committees chairmanships include George McCoy, Clark, agriculture; Joseph H. Smith, Snohomish, appropriations; E. T. Cooman, Spokane, banking; Howard Taylor, King, public utilities; Ferryman, Chelan, railroads; Oliver Hall, Whitman, roads; W. S. Davis, Pierce, public morals; E. J. Smith, Federal relations; F. G. Barnes, Cowitt, industrial insurance; E. V. Kuykendall, Columbia, Judiciary; Dan Landon, King, Federal relations. The latter committee is in addition to the standing list and on account of co-operative reconstruction work between the state and Federal Governments is regarded as one of the most important of the session.

Woman Gets Chairmanship. J. S. Sizer, of Lewis, retains the agricultural committee chairmanship of the House. James H. Davis, of Pierce, appropriations; C. W. Ryan, Cowitt, is the new house chairman on banking; Fred J. Mease, King, Federal relations; George McCoy, Clark, industrial insurance; W. H. Sawyer, Yakima, irrigation; E. H. Gule, King, Judiciary; Mrs. F. M. Haskell, Pierce, public morals; J. C. Hubbard, Kittitas, roads. The House rules committee includes the speaker, Charles Roth, Mark E. Reed, George McCoy, Maurice Smith, Phil S. Locke, K. E. Healey, E. F. Baker, H. C. Lucas, W. H. Kirkman, Robert Grass, P. H. Allen, W. W. Conner, J. H. Davis, E. H. Gule.

The Senate rules committee, against which the so-called insurgent movement was directed, consists of the Lieutenant-Governor, E. H. Carpen, Oliver Hall, Howard Taylor, Oliver Cornwell, E. L. French, Ralph Metcalf. The latter was supposed to be the insurgent candidate for President position.

SUPREME COURT DECIDES PREPAID FREIGHT CASE.

Government Order Barring Sailings of Vessels Dissolves Private Contracts, Is Contention.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Refusal of ship owners to refund prepaid freight money on cargoes loaded but not departed, because of the Government's order of 1917 forbidding sailing vessels to depart for the war zone, was upheld today by the Supreme Court. Ready to questions certified by the Circuit Court of Appeals in proceedings brought against the Allamette Transport Corporation, the court held that the Government's order making impossible the delivery of freight at its foreign destination, dissolved contracts between the ship owners and the shipper for the transportation of freight.
