Wife Tells Attorney She Killed Husband to Protect Daughter From Insane Father.

MINEOLA, N. Y., Jan. 12.-Fifteen-year-old Jacqueline Lebaudy, fear for whose safety is said to have driven Madame Jacques Lebaudy to kill her eccentric millionaire husband "the Emeccentric millionaire husband "the Emperor of Sahara," in their home at Westbury Saturday night, took the witness stand here today and told the Nassan County grand jury what she knew of the tragedy.

Jacqueline, the first witness called by District Attorney Weeks, was in the grand jury room only ten minutes. According to Mr. Weeks, her testimony "anded nothing new to the case."

She was followed to the stand by Minnie Eidiner. Madame Lebaudy's nurse, who told the authorities yesterday that she had seen Madame Lebaudy

Bolshevism Spreading," Says Wilson; "Cannot Be Stopped by Force, but Can by Food."

WASHINGTON, Jan. 13.—Appropriation of $100.000.000 for famine relief in Enrope, outside of Germany, was approved tonight by the House, which passed the Administration measure after its enactment had been urged anew today by President Wilson as the only affective means of combating the westward spread of Bolshevism. The bill now goes to the Senate, where its early passage is planned.

bill now goes to the Senate, where its early passage is planned.

Party lines were effaced in the House debate and vote, and despite energetic demands by opponents of the bill for more specific information regarding the proposed expenditure, and criticisms of the President, Herbert C. Hoover, and Vance McCormick, chairman of the War Trade Board, a special rule reported by the rules commitcial rule reported by the rules commit-tee, was adopted and afterward the bill was passed 240 to 73. One Amendment Accepted.

The only amendment accepted was one by Representative Sherley, in charge of the measure, which permits use of part of the funds for relief in countries contiguous to Europe. This would make it possible to aid the Arnerfuns and other suffering people in the Near East.
President Wilson's urgent appeal for the appropriation was sent to Senator Martin and Representative Sherley, chairmen of the Congressional appropriation of the Congressional appropriation committees, and was read in the House by Mr. Sherley. It was supplemented by a report to the State Department from Henry D. White, Republican member of the American peace delegation.
