From Alaska to the Gulf -MAYO

All over this broad land, staunch out-o'-doors men are glad that they can get Mayo underwear again.

Men who need real underwear protection - men who've always insisted on Mayo-know that Mayo's 10-rib-to-the inch (as against the usual 8) mean more warmth, more wear, more comfort, greater freedom of movement.

Mayo production is rapidly coming back to normal. An immense new mill at Mt. Airy, N. C., is adding hundreds of dozens of Mayo suits a week to the regular output.

So here is our promise to wearers, dealers and jobbers. By next fall you can get all the Mayo you want.

You may get your warm Mayo suit even now. Ask your dealer.

Anyhow-remember Mayo.

BASEL. Switzerland, Jan. 21.—The draft of the proposed new constitution for Germany provides that all Germans shall have the same rights before the law and that all privileges and advan-tages of birth, social condition or creed shall be abolished, according to Berlin advices. The free exercise of religious practice is guaranteed within the lim-its of morality and public order and no one shall be compelled to take part in any religious act or ceremony or to make known his religious convictions. Scientific instruction, the measure provides, shall be free and accessible to all

It is proposed that the present dis-tribution of land property shall be modified with a view to the population of the country districts. The proposed constitution provides for a Reichstag composed of two cham-bers, one to be a poular observed.

bers, one to be a poular chamber and the other chosen by the states. The People's chamber shall be composed of deputies of the united German people, elected by secret, direct and universal ballot. All men and women, more than 20 years of age may vote. The lower chamber will be chosen on the prin-ciples of proportionate representation.

At Aberdeen and Hoquiam, on Grays Harbor, the wooden yards operated through refusal of the woodworkers to strike

The Puget Sound maritime district council of carpenters, controlling body of the wood trades employed in shipyards with jurisdiction over approxi-mately 8000 members in Washington, voted today, 78 to 15, not to join the metal trades strike. It was explained where the case was still pending, and that the carpenters declined to strike until a decision had been rendered. The carpenters ask the same scale as the metal trades, $8 for skilled workers and $5 for belpers and laborers. The metal trades unions' case was decided through a different body, the Macy board, a Federal wage adjustment

Today it was announced the carpenters had asked W. L. Hutcheson, president of the United Brotherhood of Car-penters and Joiners, to come to Seattle and attempt to negotiate a separate agreement with the shipyard employes.
