SOLDIER WORKERS MEET TONIGHT.—A meeting to consider the problems of the returned soldiers will be held this evening in room 226, Courthouse. Miss Wyner and J. C. Engler, of the Red Cross, Captain Conwill of the Employment Service, and the members of the new State Commission charged with the handling of the state appropriation will be among the speakers. "Both from the point of view of our obligations to the returning soldier boys and that of meeting some of the causes of social unrest, the problems to be discussed at this meeting are of great importance," said A. B. Geopart, president of the Social Workers' Club, under whose auspices the meeting has been arranged. "We shall welcome all who are interested in meeting this problem in the best and most efficient manner. The meeting will convene promptly at 8 o'clock."

STATE MOTOR ASSOCIATION ELECTS.—Directors of the Oregon State Motor Association yesterday noon met at the Imperial Hotel and elected the following officers to serve during 1919: President, Charles F. Wright; vice-president, John H. Hall; treasurer, F. C. Stettler, re-elected; secretary, C. M. Menzies; assistant secretary, George M. Chambers, re-elected. The retiring officers are: President, Frank E. Watkins; vice-president, Dr. W. C. Connelley; secretary, James D. Abbott. A legislative committee was appointed. The members are: John K. Hall, chairman; James D. Abbott, Harry B. Clark, Robert S. Farrell and K. K. Kubil.

HARDWARE MEN UNABLE TO MEET.—When the demon influenza peremptorily postponed the annual convention of the implement and hardware dealers of Oregon, which was scheduled to open yesterday at the Imperial, he failed to consult dealers all over the state. Therefore, not to be disturbed by the postponement of the convention, dealers from all over the state migrated to different hotels for their annual vacation. The greater number, however, had failed to learn the convention was indefinitely postponed and expressed considerable disgust regarding influenza, conventions in general and the postal service.

POLICE SEEK LOST MAN.—Police aid was enlisted yesterday in the search being made for Wilfred Johnson, who has not been seen by his friends since Thursday morning and is believed to be in one of Portland hospitals, suffering from influenza. In reports of missing persons in Portland Monday, Mr. Johnson's name by error was given as Miss Wilfred Johnson. The missing man left the Collins rooming-house on Fourth and Clay Thursday morning to consult a physician, fearing that he had contracted influenza. A check of the hospitals has failed to locate him. $25,000 DAKOTA SUIT FILED.—Twenty-five thousand dollars is demanded from the Standard Brick & Tile Company in a complaint filed in Circuit Court yesterday by E. E. Malvin, who alleges that gross negligence on the part of the company resulted in his small son losing the sight of his right eye, the first joint of his thumb and the end of his index finger. The company, he alleges, stored dynamite and fuses in a vacant house near his home in Hillsdale. His son entered the house in play and caused an explosion.

AD CLUB TO MEET TODAY.—The Portland Ad Club will meet at luncheon today at noon in the Hotel Benson, when A. L. Mills, president of the First National Bank, will be the principal speaker. The program for today will be "The Visiting Nurse Association," R. G. Dick, president, and Miss Marion Crow, superintendent of the association, also will give short talks on the work of the visiting nurses. The entertainment will consist of one act from the Hippodrome and songs from E. Malvin Evans, baritone.

LECTURES AT ART MUSEUM.—Dr. Joseph K. Hart, of Reed College, will speak today at the Museum of Art, in connection with the exhibit of the aircraft by the aides in occupational therapy, on "Undiscovered Resources." This lecture will be followed by one on the succeeding Monday on "War-Time Awakening" and on Wednesday on "The New Arts of the New Peace." These lectures are under the auspices of the Arts and Crafts Society of Portland.

SWEDENBORG LECTURE TONIGHT.—" Emanuel Swedenborg, Scientist, Philosopher and Seer," the first of a series of lectures on the illustrious Swede and his writings, will be given tonight in room 226 of the Central Library, by the Rev. William R. Reece. The lectures to follow will be upon Swedenborg's work "Heaven and Hell Wonders, the World of Spirits and Hell From Things Seen and Heard."

GIRL AWAITING ADOPTION.—Dr. W. C. Woodruff, of Oregon, has admitted a 699 Union avenue, has a three-day-old girl available for adoption. Fourteen infants have been adopted from the Woodruff Hospital during the past 15 years. There were 46 applications for a baby boy last summer.

AMERICAN PRISONER WRITES HOME.—Leo L. Graham, having been held a prisoner of war in Germany since February, 1918, expects to be back in Portland by next month, according to a letter received from him by his mother, Mrs. Kate Lawrence, 4197 East Sixty-sixth street. He was in London when the letter was written. He was taken prisoner at the time the schooner Endeavor, which sailed from Portland, May 1, 1917, under the command of Captain Olson for Australia, was captured by the German raider Sea Wolf. He, with a number of others, was taken to Kiel. He hopes to be home by February 1.

FRAUD TRIAL IS IN PROGRESS.—The trial of D. A. Hatfield, recently brought here from California on two indictments, began in Judge Tucker's court yesterday morning. Hatfield is charged with obtaining a signature under false pretenses, by means of fraudulent signatures. It is alleged in the indictments, Carl P. Koch, of Portland, was induced to sign a deed conveying to Hatfield his property in this city. Attorneys Tom Garland and Carl Travis are appearing for the defendant, while Deputy District Attorney Pierce and Bernard are handling the case for the state.

CITY EMPLOYEES MUST HOLD ONE JOB.—City employees no longer will be permitted to work on extra jobs if they are working full time for the city. Mayor Baker has prepared a resolution to be introduced to the Council this morning, denying this privilege to city employees. During the period that labor was scarce, city employees were encouraged to work in the shipyards in addition to their regular duties. The new edict is for the purpose of providing as much work as is possible for the returning seafaring men.

VETS TO MEET TONIGHT.—Important business will be considered at a meeting of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, to be held tomorrow night at 5:15 in Courthouse. The organization is composed of all veterans who have seen service in foreign countries and it is possible that some steps will be taken to include veterans of the present war, even though they have not seen foreign service. Already many of the boys who have returned from overseas have enrolled.

LABORER FALLS UNDER CAR.—William J. Cooper, 2921 Sixty-first avenue, Southeast, an employee of the Northwest Steel Company, fell while attempting to board a Portland Railway, Light & Power Company car at One Hundredth street at the Mount Scott line yesterday morning and had one leg cut off and the other badly crushed. He was taken to the Good Samaritan Hospital by the Ambulance Service Company and died from the effects of his injuries. He leaves a widow.

SOLDIER ARRESTED FOR VANDOUVER.—W. E. Wilkes, said to be a soldier was arrested by Inspector Morak yesterday and held in the Vancouver, Wash., authorities where it is said he is wanted on a statutory charge. Yesterday Deputy Sheriff G. S. Sanford of Clark County, came to Portland for the prisoner.

NARCOTICS VIOLATOR PLEADS GUILTY.—Tal Foo, aged Chinese resident, who was arrested by Federal authorities on the charge of violation of the anti-narcotics law, yesterday entered a plea of guilty and was fined $100 by Judge Wolverton. Assistant United States Attorney Goldstein handled the case for the government.
