FATTY ARBUCKLE IN SCENE FROM HIS LATEST COMEDY, "CAMPING OUT," AT LIBERTY THEATER.

TODAY'S FILM FEATURES. Peoples—Dustin Farnum, "Light of Western Stars"; Majestic—Alice Brady, "In the Hollow of Her Hand"; Star—J. Warren Kerrigan, "Three X Gordon"; Liberty—Fatty Arbuckle, "Camping Out"; Mrs. Charlie Chaplin, "Borrowed Clothes"; Sunset—"Tarzan of the Apes"; Columbia—Charles Ray, "String Beans"; Globe—Mary Pickford, "Caprice"; Circle—Geraldine Farrar and Wallace Reid, "Carmen."

Majestic. "In the Hollow of Her Hand," a George Barr McCutcheon story of tragedy and romance in high society, with Alice Brady, piquant select star, in the leading role, is the new film headliner at the Majestic Theater, opening a three-day engagement yesterday. Miss Brady plays the role of Hetty Castleton in this story of a young girl who murders another woman's husband in self-defense and is later protected from the law by the wife of the man she murdered. Hetty, a young English girl, meets Challis Wrاندall, wealthy young American, while en route to America, and falls in love with him. She learns, while at a roadhouse, that Wrاندall is married, and a scene ensuing, she is forced to kill him in self-defense. The girl escapes unnoticed. Sara, Wrاندall's wife, protects the girl for she realizes the worthlessness of her husband. Sara attempts to arrange a match between her brother-in-law and Hetty, but the girl is in love with Brandon Booth, an artist. Detectives on the trail of Wrاندall's murderer accuse Mrs. Wrاندall. Hetty confesses to save her protector, and old man Wrاندall, after hearing her story, vows that the law shall not touch her. Brandon believes Hetty's story and renews his offer of marriage.

Wholehearted Approval, This. "Whoop-ee! Whoop-ee!" Merely a trio of cowboys placing the stamp of approval on a gun fight in the Zone Grey-Dustin Farnum photoplay, "Light of Western Stars," at the Peoples Theater, but the outburst, exploding the tense calm of a humane riot, almost caused a riot the other night. The Eastern Oregon chaps created no little amusement with their comments on a picture they were thoroughly enjoying, but their area of entertainment was limited to half a dozen seats in all directions until the big fighting "punch" of the picture came. The film cowboy defies the crooked Sheriff and his two henchmen, undimbed his gun, and dares his enemies to draw. Draw they do. There's the bark of six guns and four films are sent to the earth, with the cowboy hero passing out with the whisper, "Three to one; the odds was even." The dramatic quality of it all proved too much for cowboy flesh and blood. They simply "ris right up" and dynamited the air with their yells of emotion.

Foley Kidney Pills

The kidneys must do their allotted task continuously without fail if the blood stream is to be kept free from poisonous waste matter that Nature intends to be filtered out and washed from the body. When the kidneys become inflamed, weak, inactive, sluggish or disordered in any way, the blood stream becomes loaded with clogging impurities that cause backache, rheumatic pains, stiff or swollen joints, sore muscles, lumbago, puffiness under eyes, specks in vision, nervousness, weakness or irregularity of the bladder, waxy or dry skin, bad odor of perspiration or other symptoms. Try Foley Kidney Pills—a safe, useful and reliable medicine that heals, strengthens and invigorates inactive, sluggish or deranged kidneys. For sale everywhere.
