PIERCE ARROW.

1913 model, 7-pass., seat covers, and much special equipment. This car is owned by one of Fortlands most prominent families and has from the first been in the honds of one, and one only, of the very best chauffeurs in Portland. Consequently car has been kept well and is in remarkable condition for its age. Now being offered at a very low price.

1917 Model, Very little difference between it and latest model. Overhauied and repainted. Our price is considerably less than one-half the present new price, which makes this a most attractive buy. In order to sell the large number of new cars we do, we find it necessary to trade in a great many cars of other makes. Our polley is to trade them in right and thereby be enabled to sell the mat attractive prices.
