Ireland's Address to Free Nations Concludes With Anhouncement of Complete Independence.

DUBLAN, Jan. 22.—(By the Associated Press.)—The Sinn Fein Assembly met at the Mansion House Tuesday afternoon The Assembly stood while a declara-tion of independence was read an-nouncing the establishment of an Irish 3114 TROOPS REACH PORT republic and demanding the evacuation of Ireland by the British garrisons.

A crowd of perhaps 1000, including many women and children, wearing green, white and yellow ribbons, pressed around the door of the Mansion House, watching the delegates enter. Only two policemen were visible, but the Sinn Fein had its own police—youths wearing white armbands—to 346th Field Artillery of 91st Di-

Mention of the name of Sir Edward Carson, leader of the Ulsterites, was the cause of much merriment during the sesion. The most striking feature of the programme was the reading of the declaration of independence. Pirst, in Irish, with the delegates standing, and afterwards in English and French "Ireland's address to the free nations"

It concluded with an announcement of the "complete independence of the Irish republic against the arrogant pretensions of England, founded in fraud and sustained only by an overwhelm." PAIR, APART, REUNITE HERE COL. GARRIGUS SUCCUMBS

Brilliant Game of Winners Is Featured by Sensational Basket Shooting.

BY RICHARD R. SHARP. The South Parkway basketball team defeated the "Fighting Medics" quintet of Camp Lewis 23 to 19 on the Y. M. C. A. floor Tuesday night in one of the fastest and hardest-fought basketball contests ever played in the history of the local hoop game. Although out-weighed at least 12 pounds to the man, South Parkway did not give way an inch, and fairly battled their way to a victory over the speedy Camp Lewis

ve. The brilliant basket shooting of Jack Gurian, left forward of the South Park-way team, was the individual feature of the game. Gurian made five baskets in the first half and one in the final period. He not only made the baskets, but made them from every imaginable angle and gave the crowd a thrill every time he turned in a score.

Caesar Hard Opponent.

Morris Regoway, South Parkway center, and Abe Goldstone, right forward, figured prominently in the victory. Rogo cy had a tough man to play against in Carl Caesar, but did not flinch.

Denny Williams, former Jefferson High star, and Herman Presber stood in the limelight for the "Fighting Medics." Denny scored 12 of his team's points and played stellar basketball throughout. He registered three baskets and four fouls in the final half, when they were most needed, but without avail. Carl Caesar, center: Lee Waldron and
