MR. DODSON ADDRESSES REALTY BOARD.—D. B. Dodson, executive secretary of the Portland Chamber of Commerce, will speak before the Portland Realty Board at its luncheon at noon today in the crystal room of the Pen-nson Hotel, on the subject of "The Real-Estate Market and the Chamber of Commerce and How the Realty Board Can Best Co-operate."

WIDOW TO CONTEST WILL.—A legacy of $1 out of a $4000 estate did not appear to Mrs. J. H. Taylor, who filed a contest in the County Court yesterday in an effort to break the will of her husband, J. H. Taylor, who committed suicide September 2, 1918. To his mother, three sisters and a niece, the deceased left $200 each. The remainder of the estate was to be converted into cash and divided among the beneficiaries with the exception of his wife. The widow contends that the decedent was mentally incompetent and also that he had been under the influence of S. H. Haines and William F.
Rouse. What that influence was is not clear.

REALTY MEN GO TO SEATTLE.—Four Portland men left last night for Seattle to attend the meeting of the executive committee of the Inter-State Realty Association, which will be held there today and tomorrow. About 30 men from Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana and British Columbia will be in attendance, including the officers of the association and three directors from each state and British Columbia.
The Portland delegation includes P. E.
Taylor, past president and founder of the association; Fred German, director for Oregon; Paul A. Cowgill, secretary and treasurer, and O. H. Skothelm, director of the membership campaign.

JURY CONVICTS ROBBERS.—Deliberations lasting all of six minutes were sufficient for the jury in the court of Circuit Judge Gantenbein yesterday afternoon to find guilty James Jarvis, who was indicted with James Steel, George Johnston and M. Kamouchi for the assault and robbery of K. Murashima, proprietor of a Japanese lodging-house on Flanders street. The other men indicted are yet to be tried. Jarvis, who is colored, is accused, with the other men, of going to the residence of the other man and taking a valuable ring and $250 cash in the raid made the night of November 11, 1918.
Sentences will be pronounced tomorrow.

RECEPTION COMMITTEE MEETS TOMORROW.— Plans of welcome for the 64th Coast Artillery boys will have place in the session of the committee of the Inter-State Realty Association, which will be held this evening in room 201, Courthouse.
The committee members also have important tasks in connection with the dance and entertainment now set for February 14 and the work being carried on at Liberty Temple for the returned men. These developments will have attendance and special activity on the part of the committee.

ARCHITECT SPEAKS TONIGHT.—The first of a series of Friday evening lectures to be delivered by Portland builders and architects, will be delivered this evening at 8:15 at the Housing Bungalows, Fourth and Stark streets. The lectures are designed to be of assistance to persons planning on constructing homes here and will cover a wide range of subjects. The subject for this evening's lecture will be the "Victory Movement."

DIRECTOR-GENERAL NAMED IN SUIT.— Walker D. Hines, United States Director-General of Railroads, is made a joint defendant with the Northern Pacific Terminal Company and suit for $100,000 damages filed in the Circuit Court yesterday by C. D. Christensen, administrator for the estate of Henry Froberg, an employe of the company who killed the railroad yards by a switch engine November 11, 1918. He left a widow and three children.

BROTHERS FIGHT COURT ACTION.— With the assertion that his brother had used funds of the firm for personal expenditure, and had refused to permit an inventory, Oliver C. Helfrich filed suit against Albert H. Helfrich yesterday for the dissolution of the partnership of Helfrich Brothers Company, a drygoods store at 821 Mississippi avenue.

LEAGUE COMMITTEE NAMED.—Richard W. Montague, acting president of the Oregon branch of the League for International Peace, has appointed a committee to urge upon the Oregon Legislature the importance of adopting resolutions favorable to the same. The committee consists of A. L. Veszie, chairman, Ben Selling, Everett Ames, Milton A. Miller and Fred W. Brown.

$1100 OF FUND RAISED.—Through the efforts of Rev. A. C. Yearwood, pastor of the African Methodist Zion Church, $1100 has been raised in the past week towards the fund of $2300 which the church expects to raise within 10 weeks. Colored citizens are interested in the church drive which was launched from the church a week ago.

AUDUBON SOCIETY TO MEET.—Services will be held at the Congregation Novak Zadek Palmist, 610th and 6th streets, tonight at 8 P. M. and tomorrow morning at 9 A. M. Rev. Abraham I. Rosenkrantz will officiate. All men and women are welcome.

CHRONIC HEAD HEADACHES.—Which hurry the usual methods of treatment for years, often tried at the clinic and treatment at the Moore Sanitarium, Phone East 47, Office 908 Selling bldg., Phone Main 6101.—Adv.

ALBERS HEARING DELAYED.—Because
final arguments in the case of F. B.
Bold, of Bonanza, on trial for sedition, were only begun yesterday, it is not expected that the trial of Henry Albers, indicted by the grand jury on eight counts, all concerning alleged seditious utterances, will begin before noon today. United States District Attorney Haney and Deputy District Attorney Barney Goldstein will take the field against Mr. Albers, who will be defended by Henry McClint.

WOMEN WORKERS FILL QUOTA.—So loyally have the women of Portland responded to the call for helpers at the Soldiers' Club that a man from Everett Ames reported yesterday no further need for volunteers. The names of more than 40 women who offered to assist without remuneration in the club and its canteen have been recorded. There has been slight delay in extending the hours of service. This reason some of the want volunteers may not be called into active duty immediately. All names have been filed and will be forthcoming and hours will be arranged soon, said Mrs. Ames, adding that the hearty response is keenly appreciated by the club leaders.

YOUNG SOLDIER HEARD FROM.—Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Scott have received a letter from their 19-year-old son who was overseas with the 42nd Central Postal Directory Company and from whom they had not heard since the arrival of a letter written in France on July 28. On August 12, 1918, the wounded three times, young Scott was taken prisoner and he and one other boy are the only survivors of the 20 schoolboys who enlisted together last year. He expects to return to Toronto within a few months. Mr. Scott is employed at the Standard Oil Co. Mrs.
Scott is head of the Women's Branch of the United States Employment Bureau.

THINGS STARTED HERE. Koch saw Hatfield, who had given him a deed for the land Hatfield promised to make an adjustment and in doing so he disappeared into California. Hatfield was arrested in California, fought extradition, fled from the extradition area and was arrested in Oakland, Calif., by Deputy Sheriff Sherman. Hatfield now faces a sentence of from two to 20 years in the state prison.

Barber Prices to Stay
PORTLAND SHOPS REPORT RISE IN SUPPLY COSTS.
Financial Secretary of Union Says Reductions Must Await Lower Living Cost.

Shave 25 cents. Haircut, 50 cents.
These are the prices which are destined to remain some time in Portland union barber shops, according to a statement made yesterday by Mr.
Goldrainer, financial secretary of the Portland Barbers' Union.
The prices of barber supplies have risen ever higher since the barbers last raised their prices and there has been no complaint either by the public or by the barbers, according to Mr.
Goldrainer. "We do not expect the public to demand lower prices until the cost of living has decreased," he said.
"Excluding San Francisco, and I am not sure about conditions there, no reductions have been made in barber shops anywhere in the Pacific Coast."
