Senator Mellogg, of Minnesota, said "criminal" propaganda aiming at a violent overthrow of the Government was active in the United States.

Senator Weeks, of Massachusetts, Republican, declared that the American people did not understand that the real purpose behind the propaganda was the overthrow of their Government and that until they do understand, it could not be stamped out. Violence in seeking government reforms was deplored by Senator Borah, of Idaho, Republican, as unnecessary because of the power held in the American ballot. He urged that Senators, after Congress adjourns, "go on the rostrum and preach Americanism."

Senator Walsh asked if the judiciary sub-committee was authorized to investigate such propaganda as that under discussion. Chairman Overman said it was not and Mr. Walsh drafted and presented his resolution, which was it was not and Mr. Walsh drafted and
