

REVIVAL SIGNS SHOWN BY LUMBER INDUSTRY

Oregon and Washington Companies Call for Labor.

GOOD POSITIONS OBTAINED

Increased Demand for Railroad Machinists and Farm Help Aid Employment Situation.

Evidence that the lumber and logging industry in this section will soon be operating in full swing is produced by the increased number of calls from concerns of this kind for skilled, semi-skilled and unskilled labor received by the office of the United States Employment Service, Third and Oak streets.

Daily reports from branch offices at La Grande, Pendleton, Baker, Astoria, Marshfield, Salem, Eugene, Roseburg, Medford and from the short-job office at 247 Davis street, Portland, led Federal Director Wilfred P. Smith to predict yesterday that the lumber and logging men are taking an optimistic view and that a great portion of the men now out of work in Portland will be placed in the lumber and logging industry.

Good Positions Obtained. Twenty-three men to do rigging and work around donkey engines were placed yesterday with the Murphy Timber Company at Clatsop, The Banner Lumber Company, North Bend, obtained an edgerman and a resawyer at $5 a day each. Six pile-driving men at $5 a day went to the Wheeler Lumber Company at Cochrane. Eleven railroad men departed for the Bay City Logging Company at Beading.

Master mechanics are being steered into good positions by the United States Employment Service. A master mechanic sent to the George Palmer Lumber Company, La Grande, at $200 a month, returned to Portland yesterday to make arrangements to move his wife and family to the Eastern Oregon city. This concern also accepted two blacksmiths at $150 a month each. Another master mechanic is wanted by the Wisconsin Timber Company, of Midway, Wash., at $150 a month. The department is searching for such a mechanic.

Railroad Machinists in Demand. "Most of the camps are doing railroad work now, preparatory to the opening of the season," said Federal Director Smith yesterday. "We have a great demand for men along that line. Railroad machinists are wanted. Have just placed eight of them in shops in the city and on the road and can use 50 more, if we can get men who know something of locomotives. The cases cited are typical of the great number being received by the office."

Four electric linemen were sent to Kistman, Wash. Ten first-class joiners found work at the G. M. Standifer Shipbuilding Corporation, Vancouver, and Sonmarstrom Brothers, placed five more at Columbia City. These men will work on wooden ships.

Increased call for farm help is also aiding the situation. A group of 29 men a day are being sent to work on farms.

Soldiers Taking Former Jobs. Captain J. O. Conville, of the soldiers' sailors' and marines' division of the Federal Bureau, with headquarters at the Liberty Temple, receives an average of 60 calls daily from discharged service men who want work. All are being placed. "We are encountering a little difficulty with some firms relative to them taking back boys who enlisted to serve their country," declared Captain Conville yesterday. "However, these cases are few and far between and no representative business man will not give the lad who left as good or better position than he had at the time of his departure. All returning service men must be placed in the position held when they left."

City Commissioner C. A. Bigelow, chairman of the committee appointed by the various clubs and civic organizations to check up and see that every service man is given his old job, is calling on all firms having difficulty in finding employment for their old employees.

All Interest in America. "All of them excepting Henry married American girls, and their children were born here. Some of them have any interest in Germany, and we have no business connection there. Henry has been here for 25 years and I do not see how he could be other than an American in sympathies, but he is the bachelor member of the family and has lived more or less alone."

Unfair Dealing is Charged. Charges that the Portland Western Union Telegraph Company officials have started the practice of discriminating against returned soldiers who were former employees were made yesterday by H. W. Preston, State representative of local No. 92, Commercial Telegraphers' Union of America.

Many Women Want Work. Mrs. Bruce Scott, of the woman's division, 210, 211, 212 Lewis building, reports 2308 registrations from December 2 to February 1. Of this number 894 were placed. Mrs. Scott urges employers to call personally and talk with their prospective employees. If desired, she will arrange to have persons interviewed between herself, employer and employee.

English Singer Wins Popularity Here. Reluctant Laurie Ordway, the noted English comedienne, is one of the features at Pantages this week, a welcome visitor to Portland, where a few seasons ago she won the hearts of theatergoers.

Before Miss Ordway continues on her tour of the Pantages circuit she will be the recipient of many favors from her friends here, for Miss Ordway is extremely popular. With Miss Ordway this season is Miss Irene Fisher, at the piano. Each of Miss Ordway's numbers has been written especially for her, and they are heard here for the first time this week.

clusive," said United States District Attorney Haney, "that the United States court will punish any man, irrespective of his standing in a community, who is proved guilty of a crime. This verdict is a complete answer to those radicals who continually express the opinion that the rich man can do or say anything and escape punishment while the poor man, under like circumstances, would be found guilty."

War Activities Recalled. "All of the officers of the company had loyally supported the Government throughout the war and had subscribed liberally to every patriotic fund, including the Liberty bonds, the Red Cross and war work subscription. The company has no German stockholders and our officers have no family or business interest in Germany."

Dr. A. A. Ausplund, convicted of manslaughter in 1915, following the death from an illegal operation on a young woman in his office, seeks a pardon from Governor Withycombe, his attorney, Conrad P. Olson, notifying District Attorney Evans to this effect yesterday. Dr. Ausplund has served terms of his sentence of from one to 15 years, his case being now pending in the United States Supreme Court.

On October 15, 1915, Anna Anderson died in the office of Dr. Ausplund while undergoing an operation. The physician was arrested and indicted on a charge of manslaughter. His trial resulted in a conviction, following which he made an appeal to the Supreme Court of Oregon. The conviction was there sustained and the United States Supreme Court.

The appeal for a pardon will be opposed by the District Attorney, who grounds that it is undeserved and would be a bad example to place before other physicians who specialize in illegal operations, and whose prosecution is a matter of great difficulty. Mr. Evans will point out, also, that a pardon would not be proper while the case is pending adjudication in the highest court.

Gounod's Beautiful Opera Pleases Large Audience. Artistic Treat Given Portland People at the Auditorium.

It is not easy to estimate the artistic and educative worth, to a community, of two super-excellent grand operas, such as "Romeo and Juliet" and "Aida" (Verdi), so attractively presented yesterday afternoon and evening, respectively, in the Public Auditorium, by the San Carlo Grand Opera Company. People who have been fortunate enough to attend the performances, so far, are in luck.

To duplicate such operatic presentations, we are now experiencing this week, we should have to travel far. Grand opera is a necessary part in every one's musical education. Opera audiences at the Auditorium have been taxed to capacity.

In comparing the performances of the San Carlo Company with those of larger companies—notably the New York Metropolitan—the San Carlo stands favorable comparison, so far as soloists, modest music-aims, scenery and costumes, are concerned. One takes into account the cheaper prices for admission charged in Portland. There is the same earnestness of effort, at least, with the smaller company.

We are reasonably familiar with Gounod's opera, "Romeo and Juliet." It was presented twice with great success not long ago by the Portland Opera Association. Yesterday's rendition of the opera was, of course, more finished, more cohesive—because it was the work of trained professionals used to it every day. There is a wide difference between professional opera stars and amateurs, and this is speaking kindly of all amateurs. Shakespeare wrote "Romeo and Juliet" as a pure, romantic love story, and Gounod, in opera, has fashioned it in glorious, opulent music. The fine sentiment expressed in "Romeo and Juliet" especially endears it to all thoughtful women. The San Carlo staged the opera with lavish detail. Signorina Queensa Mario, coloratura soprano, is one of the loveliest and daintiest Julietes seen here. She is petite and girlish in appearance, and has a charming—but not strong—voice of splendid quality and carrying power.

County Road Aid Sought. Macksburg and Neady Delegation Meet Clackamas Court. OREGON CITY, Or., Feb. 5.—(Special.)—A large delegation from Macksburg and Neady met with the County Court today and discussed a proposed new road from Canby to Markham. The question of pavement was considered, but no decision was reached. A petition was presented to the court for a new road in the northern part of the county connecting with the Holiday territorial road. This petition was referred to the road viewers.

Begin Hot Water Drinking if You Don't Feel Right. Says glass of hot water with phosphate before breakfast washes out poisons. If you wake up with a bad taste, bad breath and tongue is coated; if your head is dull or aching; if what you eat sours and forms gas and acid in stomach, or you are bilious, constipated, nervous, sallow and can't get feeling just right, begin inside bathing. Drink before breakfast a glass of real hot water with a teaspoonful of limestone phosphate in it. This will flush the poisons and toxins from stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels and cleanse, sweeten and purify the entire alimentary tract. Do your inside bathing immediately upon arising in the morning to wash out of the system all the previous day's poisonous waste, gases and sour bile before putting more food into the stomach.

Frank Phelps was arrested at Bull Run yesterday on a statutory charge. Behind this brief statement lies the sordid story of the weakness of the woman left behind by her soldier husband and the perfidy of a brother. If allegations are facts. Eva Phelps, who was indicted jointly with Frank Phelps, her brother-in-law, was arrested Tuesday and released on her own recognizance. The man is held at the County Jail in lieu of $1500 bail.

Elmer Phelps, husband of Eva Phelps, told the grand jury that he had been wronged by his brother, Frank, while he had answered his country's call and Frank had stayed at home. The soldier's home had been at Gresham. There he left his wife and three children in December, 1917, when he enlisted in the 20th Engineers.
