

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

CITY EDITOR: Main 7070, A 6995. PUBLISHER: Main 7070, A 6995. ADVERTISING: Main 7070, A 6995. SUPERINTENDING: Main 7070, A 6995.

AMUSEMENTS

PUBLIC AUDITORIUM (Third at Clay and Market)—Grand opera, "Madame Butterfly" tonight. BAKER (Broadway, near Morrison)—Baker Players in "Hete Comes the Bride" tonight.

THRIFT STAMPS and WAR SAVINGS STAMPS

On Sale at Business Office, Oregonian.

COUNTY FEES TURNED OVER

Turned over by County Clerk Beveridge to County Treasurer Lewis for the month of January totaled $7138.79, according to statistics compiled yesterday.

MEMORIAL PLANS TAKING SHAPE

The committee in charge of erecting a proper memorial for Oregon's war heroes will soon be called together by Mayor Baker for the purpose of beginning the work which is hoped will end by the erection of the memorial.

CHURCHIAN SCIENCE LECTURES

Third Church of Christ, Scientist, of this city announces two free lectures on Christian Science by Dr. John M. Tut, C. S. D., of Kansas City, Missouri, member of the board of lecturers of the Mother Church, the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Mass.

OPERA ASSOCIATION ELECTS

Mrs. E. L. Thompson has been elected president of the Portland Opera Association to succeed Charles F. Berg, who has resigned because of other business duties.

CHINESE OPIUM DEALER FINED

Ab Sam, Chinese, was arrested by Lieutenant Thatcher and Sergeant an O'Vern, of the war emergency squad, yesterday afternoon for conducting an opium joint at 87 Second street.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING POSTPONED

The regular school board meeting scheduled for this afternoon will be postponed, in all probability, until tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

WORKER IN COLLAPSE

Charles Primp, 45, a laborer at the Columbia River shipyards, suffered a badly injured shoulder when he fell from a scaffold while at work yesterday afternoon.

AUTO DEALER LOSES ACTION

Damages of $225 were awarded Rex Walters in a suit tried before Circuit Judge Jattens yesterday against W. H. Westingford, auto dealer. The plaintiff asked for $1500, alleging that Mr. Westingford had sold him a 1917 model car on the representation that it was a 1918 model.

IMPERSONATORS DECEIVE OFFICER—Two unidentified men secured substantial meals and a valuable Swiss watch early yesterday morning when they entered a restaurant at 35 North Sixth street and played the part of proprietors and cooks. The place was opened for business by the intruders, who played their parts so cleverly that even Patrolman H. E. Travis, who remembers having stepped into the restaurant and chatted with the men, was deceived. Officer Travis says that the men wore aprons and were cooking when he called upon them on his rounds. The truth became known when the real proprietor appeared at his place later in the morning.

FIRE PREVENTORS IN TOPIC—Fire prevention will be demonstrated to the residents of Portland through an exhibition to be staged at the Auditorium on Thursday, February 13. The exhibition is in line with suggestions made by the National Fire Prevention Association in an effort to lower the fire losses of the city. Motion pictures showing fire prevention methods and the disastrous effects of the failure to adopt the simple preventive measures will be shown. The efforts of Fire Chief Dowell and Fire Marshal Grenfell an exhibition will be staged by members of the Portland Fire Bureau which should prove interesting as well as informing.

FALL FATAL TO SHIPWORKER—A. J. Biber, of the Emerson Apartments, 1146 Williams avenue, died at Good Samaritan Hospital yesterday as a result of injuries received when he fell from a scaffold into the hold of a ship under construction at the Grant Smith-Porter shipyards yesterday morning. He was conscious when brought to the hospital by the Ambulance Service Company, but died soon after arrival there. The remains were removed to the public mortuary in the city on the 24 years of age and is survived by his widow.

MOTORMAN ARRESTED BY POLICE—R. Vassar, a motorist, was arrested at Sixth and Washington streets yesterday afternoon for driving a streetcar in a reckless and negligent manner. Officer Travis, who made the arrest, declared that the speed of the car was dangerous to the public safety. The motorist was fined $10 for lack of recognition and will be given a hearing today.

JAPANESE SEEMS DIVORCE—Kikue Ichimura, Japanese, residing at the rear maiden name of Konda and a divorce from her husband, Kusunosuke Ichimura, in a divorce suit instituted yesterday. She alleges that the other suit filed in the Circuit Court were Ned Arnold against Le Vada Arnold, next to C. C. Weist against John L. Weist, cruelty.

WELFARE BODY APPOINTED

Governor Lister Names Men to Assist Soldiers.

Committee Will Meet in Olympia on Friday to Outline Plans for Meeting Peace Problems.

SOLDIER BAND IS FAVORED

Consideration of Bids for Summer Concerts Delayed.

Soldier musicians who have served with the army overseas will furnish the music at the summer band concert, if suggestion offered by Mayor Baker yesterday is adopted.

At the Theaters.

When Peggy Hyland, English beauty, is featured in a photoplay and presented to Strand patrons, the event invariably proves a worth-while one in the way of entertainment and interest.

DEBT DENIED BY WITNESS

Oscar Gerhauser Files Affidavit in Motion for New Trial.

Oscar Gerhauser, witness for the state in the prosecution of D. A. Hatfield, found guilty of a fraudulent estate deal in the court of Judge Tucker, filed an affidavit in the Circuit Court yesterday denying that he ever saw or heard anything of the juror in the case, or that he owed him any money.

'FLU' COST TOTALS $12,579

Barracks at County Hospital Chief Item of Expense.

The cost of handling the anti-influenza campaign in Portland under direction of Director Sommer reached a total of $12,579, according to a report filed with the City Council showing expenditures up to January 25.

JOB OPEN TO SOLDIERS

Men Leaving Fire Bureau for Better Positions Are Barred.

Positions in the fire bureau were held open for returning soldiers and men who left the department to enter the shipyards and other war industries at larger salaries will not be reinstated. This position was taken by the City Council yesterday following the recommendations made by City Commissioner Bigelow, who in a report advised the denial of a petition recently filed with the Council by the Local 122, International Association of Fire Fighters asking that all former employees of the fire bureau who had entered war industries be returned to work in the bureau. The recommendation was adopted by the council.

Grand Larceny Is Charged.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Feb. 6.—(Special.)—J. E. Keller, formerly well-known Lewis County sawmill man, is in the Lewis County Jail to answer a charge of grand larceny preferred by William Oliver, of the Oliver Har-

Men's Suits and Overcoats

It may prove a reminder to you, Mr. Man, to "speed up" and share in the savings which this

Clean-up Sale

Some of them bearing the label of the famous "House of Kuppenheimer." Pretty good assortment of styles and fabrics.

Lion Clothing Co.

MORRISON at FOURTH

ware Company. Keller is accused of buying an automobile from the Oliver Hardware Company on a contract and not paying for same, removing it from the store in violation of his agreement. Keller has been in court locally on previous occasions.

SOLDIER BAND IS FAVORED

Consideration of Bids for Summer Concerts Delayed.

Soldier musicians who have served with the army overseas will furnish the music at the summer band concert, if suggestion offered by Mayor Baker yesterday is adopted.

At the Theaters.

When Peggy Hyland, English beauty, is featured in a photoplay and presented to Strand patrons, the event invariably proves a worth-while one in the way of entertainment and interest.

DEBT DENIED BY WITNESS

Oscar Gerhauser Files Affidavit in Motion for New Trial.

Oscar Gerhauser, witness for the state in the prosecution of D. A. Hatfield, found guilty of a fraudulent estate deal in the court of Judge Tucker, filed an affidavit in the Circuit Court yesterday denying that he ever saw or heard anything of the juror in the case, or that he owed him any money.

'FLU' COST TOTALS $12,579

Barracks at County Hospital Chief Item of Expense.

The cost of handling the anti-influenza campaign in Portland under direction of Director Sommer reached a total of $12,579, according to a report filed with the City Council showing expenditures up to January 25.

JOB OPEN TO SOLDIERS

Men Leaving Fire Bureau for Better Positions Are Barred.

Positions in the fire bureau were held open for returning soldiers and men who left the department to enter the shipyards and other war industries at larger salaries will not be reinstated. This position was taken by the City Council yesterday following the recommendations made by City Commissioner Bigelow, who in a report advised the denial of a petition recently filed with the Council by the Local 122, International Association of Fire Fighters asking that all former employees of the fire bureau who had entered war industries be returned to work in the bureau. The recommendation was adopted by the council.

Grand Larceny Is Charged.

CHEHALIS, Wash., Feb. 6.—(Special.)—J. E. Keller, formerly well-known Lewis County sawmill man, is in the Lewis County Jail to answer a charge of grand larceny preferred by William Oliver, of the Oliver Har-

LADD & TILTON BANK advertisement. Features the text 'The Supreme Test' and 'Ladd & Tilton Bank, Oldest in the Northwest, Washington and Third Streets'. Includes an illustration of the bank building.

TAILORS INVITE TROUBLE

SALE OF UNIFORMS TO SOLDIERS VIOLATION OF LAW.

Private tailors who solicit soldiers for the purpose of uniforms or who sell to them violate existing laws and court trouble for themselves.

College Preparatory Schools—Day and Night

Offers rapid and thorough preparation for college to ambitious young men.

Business Administration and Accountancy School

Registration for Spring work must be arranged before February 10.

URGENT MATTERS DELAYED

Commissioner Barbur Insists on Regular Calendar Course.

Business School Day and Night

Business and Secretarial Courses. Bookkeeping, Typewriting, Short hand, Penmanship, Spelling, Arithmetic. Other business courses.

ESTACADA TRAINS.

Effective Sunday, February 9, train leaving Portland at 5:15 P. M., which heretofore been scheduled to Cazadero on Sunday will hereafter leave at 4:30 A. M. and run daily to Estacada, arriving at Estacada at 8:40 A. M. An additional train will leave Estacada daily, effective February 9, at 6:30 P. M., arriving in Portland at 8 P. M.—Adv.

Christian Brothers to Play.

The Christian Brothers' Alumni basketball team will play the Silent Five quintet on the Y. M. C. A. floor next Tuesday night. The Silent Five and Christian Brothers' Alumni teams met earlier in the season, the former team winning after a hotly contested game. The Christian Brothers' Alumni team is after a game with South Parkway and if they defeat the Silent Five they will claim the independent championship.

Rosenblatt Concert Seat Sale.

Now open at Sherman-Clay & Co., Sixth and Morrison streets.—Adv. Seated at 1000 and inside wood, green stains, for cash. Holman fuel Co. Main 523, A 353.—Adv.

ARMY ORDER JUST ISSUED

Restrictions Regarding Wearing of Service Garb.

Private tailors who solicit soldiers for the purpose of uniforms or who sell to them violate existing laws and court trouble for themselves.

HIGHWAY LAWS FAVORED

Oregon Hotel Men Urge Need of Enacting Road Legislation.

A warm indorsement of the proposed road legislation for the means it will be of employing soldiers who have been discharged from the army.

For Valentine Day

the sweetest remembrance of all is Hazelwood Candy

We have prepared some lovely red satin boxes in heart shape—all packed with our choicest candies—there are other novel ideas also that will appeal to you as Valentines.

Take breakfast, luncheon or dinner at the Hazelwood—fine quality food, excellently prepared and served in the most pleasing surroundings.

The Hazelwood 127 Broadway 388 Washington St.

IRVIN S. COBB

Business and Secretarial Courses. Bookkeeping, Typewriting, Short hand, Penmanship, Spelling, Arithmetic. Other business courses.

Practical Shop and Laboratory instruction. Prepare now for Spring and Summer demands.

Radio Telegraphy

500 men prepared for Government service last year. Reduced rates to returned soldiers. Membership in Y free. Address Div. C, Call Room 418, or Phone Main 8700, A 6521.

HOTELS. HOTEL SEWARD advertisement. Features the text 'HOTEL SEWARD' and 'The SEWARD is a new, modern and elegantly appointed hotel'.

PALACE HOTEL advertisement. Features the text 'PALACE HOTEL' and 'Large, airy rooms, elegantly furnished'.

HOTEL CLIFFORD advertisement. Features the text 'HOTEL CLIFFORD' and 'A Moderately Priced Hotel of Merit'.

When you think of SYSTEMS—think of "Y and E" advertisement. Features a logo with 'Y and E' and text about systems.

Busy Business Men EAT AT WOOD'S QUICK LUNCH THEY LIKE IT advertisement. Features the text 'Busy Business Men' and 'EAT AT WOOD'S'.

For Valentine Day Hazelwood Candy advertisement. Features the text 'For Valentine Day' and 'Hazelwood Candy'.

Safe Milk for Infants and Invalids HORLICK'S advertisement. Features the text 'Safe Milk' and 'HORLICK'S'.

COZY DAIRY LUNCH and CAFETERIA advertisement. Features the text 'COZY DAIRY LUNCH' and 'CAFETERIA'.

Wanted Chairs to Cane by School for Blind advertisement. Features the text 'Wanted Chairs to Cane'.

THE RIGHT SYSTEM advertisement. Features the text 'THE RIGHT SYSTEM' and 'RIGHT PLACE'.

KIRK'S MILITARY SHOP advertisement. Features the text 'KIRK'S MILITARY SHOP' and 'A Full Line of Big Values at Low Prices'.