

MR. OLMSTEAD MADE BANK'S PRESIDENT

Northwestern's Manager Succeeds Late H. L. Pittock.

DIRECTOR ALSO IS CHOSEN

Frederick F. Pittock, Son of Late Publisher, Takes Vacated Place on Board.

The board of directors of the Northwestern National Bank at a meeting yesterday afternoon elected Emery Olmstead, president, to fill the position made vacant by the death of Henry L. Pittock.

—Photo by Bushnell. Emery Olmstead, Elected President of the Northwestern National Bank Yesterday.

The Northwestern National Bank has been identified with the institution since its organization. He began his banking career when 15 years of age in the Northwestern National Bank of Minneapolis.

Dr. and Mrs. K. F. Meyer, of San Francisco, are guests at the Hotel Portland. Dr. Meyer came here to assist in the fight against the influenza and was soon stricken with the disease, from which he is now convalescing.

In honor of Mrs. C. A. Macrum, of Hood River, who is visiting in this city with her husband, Dr. Macrum, Mrs. J. E. Bronaugh, sister of Mrs. Macrum, will entertain today with a tea at her residence in North Thirty-second street, Willamette Heights.

Mrs. Vernon A. Cartwright yesterday received a cable from her husband, Major Cartwright, stating that he had landed in Halifax and will proceed to New York and thence to Portland.

Mrs. Mary Muir, of 266 East Fifty-first street, has recovered sufficiently from an attack of influenza to be removed from the hospital to her home at 266 East Fifty-first street.

WOMEN'S NEWS

TRAVEL southward and eastward continues to induce Portlanders to leave their homes for attractions to be found in the other cities.

The monthly luncheon and business meeting of the Portland Kindergarten Council will be held at noon tomorrow at the Y. W. C. A. tea room.

A movement which probably will be adopted by other women's organizations of the city will be presented at the meeting Wednesday afternoon, when it is voted to adopt one or two children in Portland who have been made orphans through the epidemic of influenza.

The Portland Federation of Women's Organizations will hold its monthly meeting tomorrow at 2 P. M. in the assembly room of the Hotel Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Root are down from Hood River for the opera season and are at the Hotel Portland.

Mrs. L. W. Therkelson has returned from a several months in California and is domiciled at the Hotel Portland.

Dr. and Mrs. K. F. Meyer, of San Francisco, are guests at the Hotel Portland.

In honor of Mrs. C. A. Macrum, of Hood River, who is visiting in this city with her husband, Dr. Macrum, Mrs. J. E. Bronaugh, sister of Mrs. Macrum, will entertain today with a tea at her residence in North Thirty-second street, Willamette Heights.

Mrs. Vernon A. Cartwright yesterday received a cable from her husband, Major Cartwright, stating that he had landed in Halifax and will proceed to New York and thence to Portland.

Mrs. Mary Muir, of 266 East Fifty-first street, has recovered sufficiently from an attack of influenza to be removed from the hospital to her home at 266 East Fifty-first street.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

AN important part will be taken by the clubwomen of the Northwest in the Northwest conference of the League to Enforce Peace, which will meet in

LADIES' TAILOR UNHAPPY

WIFE'S UNGOVERNABLE JEALOUSY CAUSE FOR DIVORCE.

Accusations of Unfaithfulness Made in Presence of Customers Said to Have Ruined Business.

Un governable jealousy, which ruined her husband's business and drove him from city to city that he might leave behind the sullied reputation she had given him in a community, is charged against Mrs. Reide Schenk in a suit for divorce filed by William Schenk, a ladies' tailor, in the Circuit Court yesterday, who asks the custody of three children.

Accusations of unfaithfulness, made in the presence of neighbors and customers, ruined his tailoring business in Cleveland, O., where he was married in 1892, alleges Schenk. From there he went to Newark, O.; from there to Portland, thence to Lebanon, O.; then back to Portland.

Charles Croall declares that his wife, Florence, called him a "slacker" and encouraged him to enlist in the Army, she left his wife and two children, he alleges in a divorce complaint filed yesterday, and enlisted. Later rumor told him his wife received calls from

LOCAL DOCTORS RETURNING

Physicians With Base Hospital 46 Due Here Tuesday.

Major Thomas M. Joyce, chief surgeon of Base Hospital Unit 46, composed almost entirely of Portland men and nurses, and Dr. Robert Benson and Dr. William Knox, officers in the same unit, are on their way across the continent and due to arrive in Portland Tuesday, according to word received by Mrs. Joyce from her husband. These men were called back from France ahead of the remainder of the unit, which, according to all official information received by the

RAINBOW HAS SOFTEST OF PILLETS

Quartered Where Wealthy Sick Once Lollid.

RHENISH BATH NOTED ONE

150th Field Artillery Has Howitzers and Mules Parked in Scenes of Splendor.

BY CERYL BROWN. (Copyright, 1919, by the New York World. Published by Arrangement.)

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY OF OCCUPATION, Jan. 6.—(Mail.)—The competition for softest billets, open to all members of the American Army of Occupation, appears to have been won by the 150th Field Artillery of the Rainbow Division.

Its members are leading near-millionaires' lives, when not otherwise occupied by military duties, in Bad Neuenahr, "the Rheinish Karlsbad."

This "world-famed cure and bath resort" (according to the guide books) was before the coming en masse of the Americans, visited annually by 2,000 guests, not counting transient tourists and though the Teuton sick, who suffered from ailments for which Bad Neuenahr's hot spring waters are vouchsafed specifically by legions of bearded German professors, are giving the Rheinish Spa a wide berth just now.

There are no bathtubs. The individual bathrooms, averaging 10 or 12 feet square, are done in spotless white tiling, sometimes figured in Pompeian blue. And the marble baths are sunk below the tiled floors, Roman style, with marble steps for the buck privates and visiting doughboys to descend into the hot mineral waters.

There are no bathtubs. The individual bathrooms, averaging 10 or 12 feet square, are done in spotless white tiling, sometimes figured in Pompeian blue. And the marble baths are sunk below the tiled floors, Roman style, with marble steps for the buck privates and visiting doughboys to descend into the hot mineral waters.

Attendants' Service Good.

Busting German women attendants draw these bath hotels, with its reading and conversation rooms, its theater and concert hall, and above all, the springs that made Bad Neuenahr famous. Here the signs of American military occupation are quite unmistakable, for certain heavy field mortars are drawn up in line in front of the pavilion on the main street.

Water Hardly Drinkable.

You probably would judiciously through the park between the mules and horses and arrive at a large structural iron shed, with its front open and its interior in staling mules, mostly cracked or broken. Over the entrance arch stands the inscription in Latin, "For the Edification and Benefit of the Sick while among the mules across the pathway is a granite monument surmounted by the bust of the discoverer of the saline alkali mineral water."

Mules and M. P.'s permitting, you climb down into the structural iron shed, where you find a large, mostly cracked or broken. Over the entrance arch stands the inscription in Latin, "For the Edification and Benefit of the Sick while among the mules across the pathway is a granite monument surmounted by the bust of the discoverer of the saline alkali mineral water."

Water Hardly Drinkable.

You probably would judiciously through the park between the mules and horses and arrive at a large structural iron shed, with its front open and its interior in staling mules, mostly cracked or broken. Over the entrance arch stands the inscription in Latin, "For the Edification and Benefit of the Sick while among the mules across the pathway is a granite monument surmounted by the bust of the discoverer of the saline alkali mineral water."

Water Hardly Drinkable.

You probably would judiciously through the park between the mules and horses and arrive at a large structural iron shed, with its front open and its interior in staling mules, mostly cracked or broken. Over the entrance arch stands the inscription in Latin, "For the Edification and Benefit of the Sick while among the mules across the pathway is a granite monument surmounted by the bust of the discoverer of the saline alkali mineral water."

Water Hardly Drinkable.

You probably would judiciously through the park between the mules and horses and arrive at a large structural iron shed, with its front open and its interior in staling mules, mostly cracked or broken. Over the entrance arch stands the inscription in Latin, "For the Edification and Benefit of the Sick while among the mules across the pathway is a granite monument surmounted by the bust of the discoverer of the saline alkali mineral water."

Water Hardly Drinkable.

You probably would judiciously through the park between the mules and horses and arrive at a large structural iron shed, with its front open and its interior in staling mules, mostly cracked or broken. Over the entrance arch stands the inscription in Latin, "For the Edification and Benefit of the Sick while among the mules across the pathway is a granite monument surmounted by the bust of the discoverer of the saline alkali mineral water."

Water Hardly Drinkable.

You probably would judiciously through the park between the mules and horses and arrive at a large structural iron shed, with its front open and its interior in staling mules, mostly cracked or broken. Over the entrance arch stands the inscription in Latin, "For the Edification and Benefit of the Sick while among the mules across the pathway is a granite monument surmounted by the bust of the discoverer of the saline alkali mineral water."

Water Hardly Drinkable.

You probably would judiciously through the park between the mules and horses and arrive at a large structural iron shed, with its front open and its interior in staling mules, mostly cracked or broken. Over the entrance arch stands the inscription in Latin, "For the Edification and Benefit of the Sick while among the mules across the pathway is a granite monument surmounted by the bust of the discoverer of the saline alkali mineral water."

RAINBOW HAS SOFTEST OF PILLETS

Quartered Where Wealthy Sick Once Lollid.

RHENISH BATH NOTED ONE

150th Field Artillery Has Howitzers and Mules Parked in Scenes of Splendor.

BY CERYL BROWN. (Copyright, 1919, by the New York World. Published by Arrangement.)

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY OF OCCUPATION, Jan. 6.—(Mail.)—The competition for softest billets, open to all members of the American Army of Occupation, appears to have been won by the 150th Field Artillery of the Rainbow Division.

Its members are leading near-millionaires' lives, when not otherwise occupied by military duties, in Bad Neuenahr, "the Rheinish Karlsbad."

This "world-famed cure and bath resort" (according to the guide books) was before the coming en masse of the Americans, visited annually by 2,000 guests, not counting transient tourists and though the Teuton sick, who suffered from ailments for which Bad Neuenahr's hot spring waters are vouchsafed specifically by legions of bearded German professors, are giving the Rheinish Spa a wide berth just now.

There are no bathtubs. The individual bathrooms, averaging 10 or 12 feet square, are done in spotless white tiling, sometimes figured in Pompeian blue. And the marble baths are sunk below the tiled floors, Roman style, with marble steps for the buck privates and visiting doughboys to descend into the hot mineral waters.

There are no bathtubs. The individual bathrooms, averaging 10 or 12 feet square, are done in spotless white tiling, sometimes figured in Pompeian blue. And the marble baths are sunk below the tiled floors, Roman style, with marble steps for the buck privates and visiting doughboys to descend into the hot mineral waters.

Attendants' Service Good.

Busting German women attendants draw these bath hotels, with its reading and conversation rooms, its theater and concert hall, and above all, the springs that made Bad Neuenahr famous. Here the signs of American military occupation are quite unmistakable, for certain heavy field mortars are drawn up in line in front of the pavilion on the main street.

Water Hardly Drinkable.

You probably would judiciously through the park between the mules and horses and arrive at a large structural iron shed, with its front open and its interior in staling mules, mostly cracked or broken. Over the entrance arch stands the inscription in Latin, "For the Edification and Benefit of the Sick while among the mules across the pathway is a granite monument surmounted by the bust of the discoverer of the saline alkali mineral water."

Mules and M. P.'s permitting, you climb down into the structural iron shed, where you find a large, mostly cracked or broken. Over the entrance arch stands the inscription in Latin, "For the Edification and Benefit of the Sick while among the mules across the pathway is a granite monument surmounted by the bust of the discoverer of the saline alkali mineral water."

Water Hardly Drinkable.

You probably would judiciously through the park between the mules and horses and arrive at a large structural iron shed, with its front open and its interior in staling mules, mostly cracked or broken. Over the entrance arch stands the inscription in Latin, "For the Edification and Benefit of the Sick while among the mules across the pathway is a granite monument surmounted by the bust of the discoverer of the saline alkali mineral water."

Water Hardly Drinkable.

You probably would judiciously through the park between the mules and horses and arrive at a large structural iron shed, with its front open and its interior in staling mules, mostly cracked or broken. Over the entrance arch stands the inscription in Latin, "For the Edification and Benefit of the Sick while among the mules across the pathway is a granite monument surmounted by the bust of the discoverer of the saline alkali mineral water."

Water Hardly Drinkable.

You probably would judiciously through the park between the mules and horses and arrive at a large structural iron shed, with its front open and its interior in staling mules, mostly cracked or broken. Over the entrance arch stands the inscription in Latin, "For the Edification and Benefit of the Sick while among the mules across the pathway is a granite monument surmounted by the bust of the discoverer of the saline alkali mineral water."

Water Hardly Drinkable.

You probably would judiciously through the park between the mules and horses and arrive at a large structural iron shed, with its front open and its interior in staling mules, mostly cracked or broken. Over the entrance arch stands the inscription in Latin, "For the Edification and Benefit of the Sick while among the mules across the pathway is a granite monument surmounted by the bust of the discoverer of the saline alkali mineral water."

Water Hardly Drinkable.

You probably would judiciously through the park between the mules and horses and arrive at a large structural iron shed, with its front open and its interior in staling mules, mostly cracked or broken. Over the entrance arch stands the inscription in Latin, "For the Edification and Benefit of the Sick while among the mules across the pathway is a granite monument surmounted by the bust of the discoverer of the saline alkali mineral water."

Water Hardly Drinkable.

You probably would judiciously through the park between the mules and horses and arrive at a large structural iron shed, with its front open and its interior in staling mules, mostly cracked or broken. Over the entrance arch stands the inscription in Latin, "For the Edification and Benefit of the Sick while among the mules across the pathway is a granite monument surmounted by the bust of the discoverer of the saline alkali mineral water."

Spring Modes in Dresses

Long and straight of line, unusual and very new as to style, and irreproachably smart as to detail, are the Spring dresses which are arriving by every express. Emphasizing such colors and materials as Fashion has ordained for the coming season.

Never were such charming new dresses so moderately priced.

$25, $35 and $45

Serge, Tricotine, Taffeta, Crepe Meteor and Georgette delightfully trimmed with braid, gold embroidery, or quaint stitching applied in many a novel fashion. Featuring many new characteristics of the mode.

A Wonderful Assortment of Georgette Crepe and Crepe de Chine

BLOUSES

In a Special Sale At $5.95

Unusual novelties in low-neck styles and exceptionally smart high-neck models in fresh and white satin tailored blouses. Some especially attractive modes in soft creamy nets trimmed in narrow Val lace edgings.

Special Showing of Silk Camisoles 95c to $3.50

Flesh and white crepe de chine and satins trimmed with Val and filet laces, and very chic touches of blue ribbon and roses.

H. Liebes & Co.

Established 1864 149-151 Broadway FURS

BAR ON EXPORTS REMOVED

Shipments to North European Neutral Freely Licensed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Removal entirely of limitations upon the export of

CLEARANCE SALE

GIRLS' AND BOYS' COATS and SUITS

Unusual bargains await the shrewd mother here in odd lots and broken sizes and in some cases complete lines of girls' and boys' wear. Note these examples.

Girls' Coats, $6.95 and $9.95 Corduroy and zibeline, 2 to 12 yrs.

Boys' Olive Drab Mackinaws $15.00 and $16.50 regular Army Cloth Mackinaws, sizes 6 to 11 years only—special $12.50

$7.50 to $11 Raynsters $5 These are genuine "Raynsters"—waterproof—for girls or boys—sizes broken, mostly 8 and 10 years.

Boys' Overcoats $10 Boys' new $16.00 Belted Overcoats—3 to 14-year sizes—in heather and green—two-days' special.

OPEN SATURDAY NIGHT. The Juvenile Outfitters & Children 143 Sixth, Opp. Meier & Frank.

WILL PRAISE IT LONG AS HE LIVES

Would Like to Meet Face to Face Everybody Suffering as He Did So He Could Tell Them of Tanlac.

"I will praise Tanlac the longest day I live for the wonderful improvement it has made in my condition," said George T. Green, who lives at 323 Williams street, Portland, a few days ago.

"About six months ago," he continued, "my stomach seemed to go back on me. I couldn't eat the very lightest kind of food without suffering tortures for hours afterward. I could hardly eat enough to keep me alive, and I just lived on milk, and occasionally an egg, all the time. It looked like everything that could possibly be done for a man was done for me. I was given the best medicine known in the treatment of cases like mine, but I gradually got worse all the time. Then, to make my condition worse, I was taken with rheumatism in my right arm, and the pain I suffered from this was almost enough to kill me. There were times when I couldn't raise my hand to my face. I read in the papers about Tanlac and decided to give it a trial. Well, sir, it would just do my heart good, if I could meet face to face everybody who suffers as I did and tell them about the good Tanlac has done me. I am as well and strong today as I ever was, and my appetite is simply fine. I eat just anything I want, and it doesn't hurt me a particle, and the way I have gained in weight and strength is nothing short of a miracle. Why, I have actually gained sixteen pounds already, and the rheumatism has left me entirely, and I never miss a day from my work now. My friends are all talking about the way I have improved today as I ever was, and my Tanlac did it all. I believe it is, without a doubt, the best medicine on earth."

Tanlac is sold in Portland by the Owl Drug Store.—Adv.

TELL THE WORLD THIS WOMAN SAYS

That Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made Me a Well Woman.

Los Angeles, Cal.—"I suffered with female troubles for years, was sick most of the time, was not able to do my own housework, and I could not get help from doctors. I saw Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound advertised in the newspapers, and took six bottles, and am a well woman. You can use my name to tell the world the good your medicine has done me as I shall praise it always." Mrs. A. L. DEVINE, 647 St. Paul Avenue, Los Angeles, Calif.

Women who suffer from any form of weakness, as indicated by displacements, inflammation, ulceration, irregularities, backache, headaches, nervousness or "the blues," should do as Mrs. Devine did, and give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a thorough trial.

For over forty years this famous remedy, which contains the curative, strengthening properties of good old fashioned roots and herbs, has been correcting just such ailments. If you have mysterious complications write for advice to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

ASTHMA

There is no "cure" but relief is often brought by—

Your Bodyguard VICK'S VAPORUB

NEW PRICES—30c, 60c, $1.20

ITS DIFFERENT

Get Rid of That Persistent Cough

Stop that weakening, persistent cough or cold, threatening throat or lung affections, with Eckman's Alternative, the tonic and upbuilder of 20 years' successful use. 80c and $1.50 bottles from druggists, or from

ECKMAN LABORATORY, Philadelphia.—Adv.

LOST

A certain style of notice in so many girls, well dressed in well-fitting suits, coats and dresses. Reward for information.

FOUND: A way to do it. Bought at Cherry's on their Easy Payment System and I found I look like a different girl and no worry for the Easy Plan show the way. 389-391 Washington St., Pittock Bldg.