

GERMANY ENDEAVORS TO MISLEAD ALLIES

Raoul Peret Discusses Financial Phase of Settlement.

TWOCOURSES ARE OFFERED

Immediate Payment or Installments Suggested; Reasonable Demand Is Recommended.

PARIS, Feb. 6.—(By the Associated Press)—Germany is making utmost efforts to have the allies believe that she is nearing bankruptcy, declared Raoul Peret, chairman of the budget commission of the Chamber of Deputies...

Guarantees to Be Sought. "I do not believe that Germany at the present time is in position to pay a large amount in cash. We must not demand from her too heavy payment now, as we are in a position where she is strangling her and killing the goose that is to lay the golden eggs."

Whether the installment we shall demand from Germany be twenty, thirty or fifty billions of francs yearly depends entirely on our decision after an investigation as to what amount Germany will be able to pay.

Imports May Be Allowed. Discussing the question whether Germany should be permitted to import raw material so as to enable her to resume her manufacturing industry, Mr. Peret said:

"I do not believe that all importations of raw material to the Germans should be forbidden, because their industry would then be at a standstill and they would be unable to pay."

that, though 42 years old, he had the mind and brain development of a 14-year-old child, are charges made in concurrent suits filed by the two victims in the Circuit Court yesterday, asking damages totalling more than $41,000.

The actions are brought against Harold T. Prince, Thomas Prince, and Winthrop Hammond, individually, and Mr. Hammond as guardian of the person and estate of Thomas Prince.

Harold Prince is the son of Thomas Prince, for whom Mr. Hammond is guardian. The plaintiffs in the two damage suits allege that the sub-normal mentality of the son was a fact known to the father and Mr. Hammond, that his asserted addiction to strong drink was known, yet, in spite of these things, he was allowed by them to operate a powerful automobile on public highways.

The accident occurred at 7 P. M., November 9, 1918, on Tenth and Jefferson streets. Messrs. Prentice and Butler were crossing the street when run down. When the automobile was stopped, the victims alleged the instant offering aid, Mr. Prince ran away and was later found by police officers at his home in a drunken condition.

Inquiries which, it is said, will shorten the lives of both men, are alleged by the victims, Mr. Prentice asks damages of $20,510 and Mr. Butler, damages totalling $20,541.

VAUDEVILLE PROBE IS ON

CHARLES T. ALDRICH TESTIFIES ON BOOKING CHARGES.

Association Is Declared to Be Conducive to Restrain Trade.

Walsh Gives Details.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6.—Testimony that he had been compelled to go to Europe to obtain vaudeville engagements because "some sort of agreement" among managers prevented him from obtaining bookings in the United States, was given by Charles T. Aldrich at today's hearing before the Federal Trade Commission of charges that the Vaudeville Managers' Protective Association is a combination in restraint of trade.

Aldrich said he went abroad in 1906 which remained until 1916. On cross-examination he admitted he had been offered an engagement by the United Booking office while he was in Europe and testified that he now is playing at a theater here booked through the same office.

Details of the working of the United Booking office which John Walsh, counsel for the commission, declared he would show virtually controlled the booking business, were given by Sam K. Hodgdon, its booking manager.

"Actors are continually demanding higher compensation for their acts," he declared, citing as an example the case of Weber and Fields who recently worked for the Keith vaudeville circuit. "In 1884 they played at the old Keith theater in Boston for $40 a week," he said, "and after the first week we had them for $30 because they had no place to go. Our last contract with them was for $3000."

The lowest salary he could think of when he acted now, he said, was $125 a week, and the number of acts receiving as little as $150 and $200 was "very small."

SECURITY LEAGUE IS DEFENDED BY ROOT

Honorary President Defends Acts of Organization.

PACIFISTS ARE OPOSED

Sole Purpose Declared to Have Been to Educate Voters Regarding Records of Congressmen.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—Elliott Root, honorary president of the National Security League, today told the special committee investigating the league's political activities that in his judgment Congress had failed to support President Wilson's war programme until the people reacted to its attitude, and demanded whole-hearted co-operation.

The people, he said, were "deadly earnest" about prosecuting the war to the fullest that Congress had to lend its support.

Mr. Root made a general defense of the league in putting forth during the last Congressional campaign its chart showing how members of Congress had voted on important war measures, and said that he so resented the imputation that the league had been organized for the interest of munition makers and others benefiting from the war that he could not think of strong enough terms in which to make a satisfactory denial.

Ford Considered on Verge. Defending the action of the league in opposing the election of Henry Ford as Senator from Michigan, Mr. Root said that it was "of the greatest importance to the successful prosecution of the war that Mr. Ford be defeated. The league considered Mr. Ford a pacifist and an opponent of the war, Mr. Root said. He added that Mr. Ford went to the "very verge" of disloyalty, if he did not actually "go over."

Mr. Root stated the league had carefully avoided taking any part in politics and that its sole purpose had been to educate the voters regarding the records of their Congressmen so that they would elect for Senator the man as a candidate for Senator for the only persons that could be depended upon to do everything needed toward winning the war.

Details of the working of the United Booking office which John Walsh, counsel for the commission, declared he would show virtually controlled the booking business, were given by Sam K. Hodgdon, its booking manager.

Actors are continually demanding higher compensation for their acts," he declared, citing as an example the case of Weber and Fields who recently worked for the Keith vaudeville circuit.

In 1884 they played at the old Keith theater in Boston for $40 a week," he said, "and after the first week we had them for $30 because they had no place to go. Our last contract with them was for $3000."
