

BILL HITS AT ALIEN STRIKE AGITATORS

Washington Measure Would Punish Trouble-Makers.

HEAVY PENALTY PROVIDED

Another Measure Would Bar Public Employment Aliens Who Evaded War Service.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Feb. 6.—(Special.)—Pressure of strike conditions became evident when the Legislature convened at 1:30 this afternoon. Suppression of alien agitators is intended in a bill introduced by Representative Robert Grass, of King, making it a felony for any person not a citizen of the United States to urge or advise a strike. The maximum penalty is ten years' imprisonment and $5000 fine.

In the Senate Frank H. Renick, of King County, introduced a bill making illegal the employment on public work of any kind an alien or non-citizen who claimed exemption from military service in the war with Germany on that account. Public officials are held liable to misdemeanor penalties for violation of the bill.

The House passed bills previously passed by the Senate appropriating $100,000 each for armories at Aberdeen and Walla Walla and $125,000 for an armory at Everett.

House bill 106, appropriating the permanent highway levy of $4,000,000 in the coming two years, also passed the Senate today with an emergency clause, which will make the main road immediately available when the Governor approves the bill.

Another road revenue bill of importance is being drawn upon agreement of joint committee to double auto license fees, which will add more than $2,000,000 to road funds. This revenue is ultimately intended for paving, but for the next two years, preceding a popular vote on the Carlyon bonding plan, the license money may be available for road building and maintenance. All indications are that state road work will be in full swing as soon as weather conditions will admit, and some of the new work is already under way.

HUNTER DECLARED SUICIDE

CORONER REPORTS ON DEATH OF DOUGLAS COUNTY MAN.

Frank Acosta, Wounded by Accident, Takes His Life to End His Suffering.

ROSEBURG, Or., Feb. 6.—(Special.)—That Frank Acosta, found dead at a lonely spot 16 miles above Tillamook his own life in the statement of Coroner Ritter, who returned from the scene Tuesday. Acosta, who has hunted in the mountains in the South Umpqua country for more than 20 years, it appears, lost his footing and fell over a low ridge of rock, his rifle being discharged in the fall, the bullet striking under the left arm and coming out at the shoulder.

Despairing of assistance and fearful of a lingering death, Acosta wrote a brief note stating the fact, then dragged himself several feet away, where he leaned against a log, drew his revolver and shot himself through the head. In the opinion of the coroner, the first wound, while an ugly one, would not necessarily have caused death, but Acosta is thought to have been weak from loss of blood and took no chances of suffering alone in the wilds. He was unmarried and about 40 years of age.

SPRUCE DIVISION IN SUIT

TWO LUMBER CONCERNS ALLEGE BREACH OF CONTRACT.

Ending of War and Closing of Mills Cause Actions to Recover From Government.

VANCOUVER, Wash., Feb. 6.—(Special.)—Suit has been filed against the United States Spruce Production Corporation by the Hamly Lumber Company, in the Superior Court of Clark County to collect $14,041.8 for alleged breach of contract entered into May 15, 1918, with the United States Government and assigned October 23, 1918, to the defendant. The Government was represented by J. Van D. Crisp, Captain of the Signal Corps. The contract was for 1,500,000 feet of sawed fir cants. The Siler Mill Company has brought suit against the same corporation for alleged breach of contract entered into with the Government, April 1, 1918, when the plaintiff agreed to operate its mill at Raymond, Wash., for 18 months at full capacity, night and day, upon the manufacture of spruce timber for $105 per 1000 feet. The contract was assigned to the plaintiff October 2. On November the mill was ordered to cease operations. Shank & Co. are attorneys for the plaintiffs.

PROBE PUT TO BOLSHIEVISM

SENATE SUB-COMMITTEE MAKES PLANS FOR PROCEDURE.

Writer Recently Returned From Russia Summoned to Appear Before Committee.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.—The Senate judiciary sub-committee today held a secret session to plan procedure in its investigation of Bolsheviki, L. W. W. and other propaganda in the United States, but postponed hearing of the first witness, Albert Rays Williams, a writer, recently returned from Russia, who had been subpoenaed by the committee. Chairman Overman announced later that the first hearing would be held Tuesday. Williams appeared with counsel and declared he was anxious to testify concerning his address on Bolshevism at a public meeting in Washington last Sunday and similar speeches in other cities, but insisted that he must be heard in public sessions. He was told by Chairman Overman to be prepared to testify later. The committee expects to decide tomorrow the plan of procedure. American diplomatic and consular representatives and others who have been in Russia recently and who are acquainted with phases of social agitation in the United States may be called.

CHURCH TO HONOR MEMBER KILLED IN ACTION.

Albert L. Harlow. Official notice of the death of their youngest son, Albert Lincoln Harlow, has been received by Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Harlow, of 192 Simpson street. He was killed in action nine days before the signing of the armistice. Among the first of Oregon's volunteers, young Harlow enlisted in the Marines. Previously he had been employed in the offices of the O-W & N Company. In a letter to his parents on October 4, 1918, he had told how fortunate he had been in being transferred to the Fifth Regiment. Memorial services in his honor are to be held at 2:30 Sunday afternoon at the Highland Baptist Church, of which he was a member. At this time the blue star in the church's service flag will be replaced by a gold one. Surviving are a mother, father, five sisters and three brothers. A brother, Clifford, has been serving as a member of base hospital unit No. 45 in France for several months.

situation clears, and maybe longer, for the City Council appears to have gotten over its huff against the Tacoma Railway & Power Company. The Council ordered the City Attorney to draw up an ordinance restoring 1-cent fare to the city when the Stone & Webster interests, owners of the traction company, went to the Legislature seeking to defeat home rule by vesting all rate regulation in the state public service commission. L. H. Bean, manager of the street railway system, addressed a letter to the Council and said that his company could not keep up the present scale of wages to carmen if the proposed out was made. A chambermaid in a Chicago hotel, who has been in this country two years, sports a $200 diamond ring, which she boasts she has bought out of her frugal earnings.
