

NEW YORK RADICALS FIGHT DEPORTATION

Habeas Corpus Writs Issued by Federal Judge Knox.

45 TO HAVE DAY IN COURT

Commissioner of Immigration Says Reports of Wholesale Deportation of Aliens Unjustified.

NEW YORK, Feb. 12.—Writs of habeas corpus sought by a group of radicals in an effort to prevent deportation of 45 of the 54 aliens to Ellis island from the west were issued tonight by Federal Judge Knox. The writs are returnable tomorrow.

Miss Caroline Lowe of Chicago, a lawyer, headed the group that obtained the writs, summoning Judge Knox from a Lincoln-day dinner which he was attending in order to make the request.

The application follows a number of conferences among New York radicals, which began shortly after news was received that undesirable aliens from Seattle, Chicago and other western cities were on their way to New York under a heavy guard.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 12.—Anthony Caminetti, commissioner-general of immigration, said tonight that reports of prospective wholesale deportations were "unjustified."

Six Thousand to Be Deported.

"It is estimated that about 6,000 aliens are to be deported, the great majority because they are insane or otherwise public charges," Mr. Caminetti said. "Most of the remainder are diseased or have been found guilty of offenses subjecting them to deportation. A few comparatively are agitators who are opposed to our form of government or all organized government."

"None of the aliens recently taken from Seattle to Ellis island for deportation has any connection with the strikes at Seattle or elsewhere in the west."

Deportees now in custody have been rounded up over a considerable period of time, but could not be deported before because of the shortage of shipping facilities.

All reports that trains are being mobilized to deport anarchists or any others are greatly exaggerated."

One-Tenth Unnaturalized.

About one-tenth of the population of the United States is composed of unnaturalized aliens, according to Raymond P. Crist, deputy commissioner of naturalization, who declared today that such a condition would not be permitted by any other country and appealed to American citizens to help in making citizens of alien residents. He said there were 10,000,000 persons in this country who still retain their allegiance to the land of their birth.

"There are now 17,500,000 aliens in this country, 1,600,000 have become citizens," Mr. Crist said. "Such a tremendous unassimilated mass means danger, for among these millions comparatively few have any knowledge of or interest in American institutions. It is the duty of every American citizen who loves America to seek out his friends and acquaintances of foreign birth and to prevail upon them, if they wish to remain here, to become citizens," Mr. Crist said.

LIKE BOLT FROM HEAVEN'S BLUE

A happy discovery of Cincinnati chemist interests women here

Your high heels have put corns on your toes and calluses on your feet, but why care now? A genius in Cincinnati discovered a magic ether compound and named it Freezone. A quarter ounce of this freezone can now be had at any drugstore for a few cents. Apply a few drops on your tender, aching corn or callus. Instantly the soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so shriveled and loose that you lift it off with your fingers. Just think! You get rid of a hard corn, soft corn or a corn between the toes, as well as hardened calluses for a few cents and without suffering one particle, without the slightest irritation of the surrounding skin. Just a touch of this marvelous freezone on a sore, troublesome corn gives instant relief.—Adv.

RAIDED THE ONCE BUSY GENERAL HEAD-QUARTERS OF THE I. W. W. AND ARRESTED 29 IDLERS "TO SEE WHO THEY WERE AND WHY THEY WERE NOT WORKING," AN OFFICIAL SAID.

Government agents professed no interest in the raid although the police said the arrests were made with the knowledge of the government. A number of the men arrested had just arrived here from Butte, Seattle and other western points. Some radical literature was brought from the Pacific coast, Montana and the Dakotas was found in their possession. All were forced to submit to the police fingerprint experts and photographers. After being advised to "get a job or get out of town" they were freed.

PROMISED HELP IS SOUGHT

MANY PROBLEMS NOW CON-FRONT STRICKEN BELGIUM.

Factories Destroyed, Raw Materials Lacking and People Are Discouraged Over Delay in Restoration.

BY ERNEST SMITH.

(Copyright by the New York World. Pub-lished by the New York World.) BRUSSELS, Feb. 12.—I have had an important conversation with M. Delacroix, prime minister of the coalition government formed to undertake the gigantic task of restoring Belgium. M. Delacroix, who holds the portfolio of finance as well as the premiership, explained to me the extent to which the allies will open in favor of Belgium, on the security of Germany's debt for reparations, are based on the Belgian government's estimate that it will require ten milliard francs ($2,000,000,000) to restore the country. The exact indemnity Germany must pay Belgium will be fixed by the peace conference. The following facts given to me by M. Delacroix illumine his situation. There are 1,600,000 working people in Belgium who are forced to be idle today. There is sufficient work at Antwerp, up to the moment, only for from 5 to 10 per cent of the dock and transport workers. The metal and transport workers are idle because so many factories have been destroyed and there is no raw material. The cost of living is five to six times higher than before the war.

"Among the numerous problems which the restoration of Belgium raises," said M. Delacroix, "there is one which is agonizing in the first instance, that is the urgency of starting work again. Our great allies often have given us solemn assurances of help and aid, but they have not kept their word without reserve; they declared that the restoration of Belgium was one of the objects of the war. They refused all proposals with Germany so long as she did not undertake to restore Belgium. The hour has now come to redeem these promises, but the allies are obliged to delay action until the conclusion of the peace conference. In fact, it is the conference that will determine the indemnities that are to come to Belgium and the mode of their payment."

YOUNG SUITOR IS SPURNED

MARRIAGE VENTURE LEADS MAN TO NIGHT IN JAIL.

Irvin Beach, Robbed in Chicago, Works Way to Albany to Claim Correspondence Bride.

ALBANY, Or., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—About a month ago Irvin Beach left a good job in Ypsanti, Mich., and with his worldly assets in his pocket started for this city, expecting to wed upon his arrival here. Today he wound up in the local police court, broke and without immediate prospects of matrimony. His trouble started, he says, when he read an advertisement in a matrimonial bureau paper. Then he began corresponding with Mrs. Florence Zimmerman of Albany. Beach says his wedding was arranged and because Mrs. Zimmerman preferred Oregon climate to that of Michigan he started westward. In Chicago he fell in with a sharper who got his roll of $200. With what small means he had left and by working some he made his way to Albany, arriving a few days ago. Beach says he was welcomed at first at Mrs. Zimmerman's home. He claims that he found the latter low and replenished it and bought a little alcohol. Then he went to see about a marriage license but found that he did not have enough money for medical examination and license fees. He then went to work for the Southern Pacific section here to earn the money. Last night he went to the Zimmerman home and found his bride-to-be absent. Instead Mrs. Zimmerman's daughter, who had come here from Salem, advised him that her mother had changed her mind and would not marry him, so he had better leave. Beach refused to go and the police were called and he spent last night in the city jail. Today to Judge Llewellyn in the police court he related the story of his experiences and was released.

HONOR PLANNED FOR BOYS

CHANGING OF SIXTH STREET TO VICTORY WAY PROPOSED.

Frank Branch Riley, Speaking Before Portland Ad Club, Pays Tribute to Lincoln.

To change the name of Sixth street to Victory Way as a permanent memorial to the Oregon boys who fought and won was the proposal which W. P. Strandberg broached to the Portland Ad club yesterday. He declared it would be appropriate that the thoroughfare leading to Liberty Temple be Victory Way. President Dana appointed Mr. Strandberg the representative of the club to take steps to bring about the change, which was approved by the club.

Frank Branch Riley was the principal speaker at the luncheon in the crystal room of the Benson hotel, and paid a beautiful and impressive tribute to the memory of Abraham Lincoln. H. R. Albee spoke on "Fathers and Sons' Day," and members who had brought their sons to the luncheon as special guests of the day introduced the boys to the club. Resolutions were adopted approving the efficient handling of a critical situation by Mayor Hanson of Seattle and commending the action of the strikers at Seattle in renouncing a false position and renouncing a vicious leadership when the error was discovered.

Another resolution approved of house bill No. 276, which would prevent the drainage of Malheur lake by ceding jurisdiction to the government that it may be retained as a bird reserve. Seasoned slabwood and inside wood green stamps, for cash. Holman fuel Co. Main 353, 355, 357.

REDS TOO STRONG FOR ALLIES, SAYS PREMIER

Lloyd George Defends Dicker-ing With Bolsheviki.

POLICY DECLARED FORCED

British Leader Says Criminals in Russia Efficient and to Fight Them Would Cost Much.

LONDON, Feb. 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Premier Lloyd George spoke again today on the general peace situation.

The premier, defending the proceedings of the peace conference, said the government had been devoting its time to speeding up agreements. He was anxious that a complete agreement would be reached concerning the German western boundary, but the eastern boundary was a different matter. Until the commission sent to examine the matter reported, the allies would be in no position to make demands upon Germany. The conference was unanimous, he said, that Germany had forfeited all rights to her colonies.

Feeling of Peace Necessary.

Lloyd George contended that with regard to indemnities the British government was in advance of any government, as it was the first to appoint a commission to deal with this matter. He declared that there had never been any proposal advanced at the peace conference to recognize the bolshevists. Russia was easy to organize about but difficult to deal with. He admitted that the horrors of bolshevism were so great that there was a sense of disgust when they came to the aid of its leaders, but it was useless to blind their eyes to the real facts.

Russia represented in area over half of Europe and nearly half of Asia, he pointed out. If peace were not made, the whole of this immense territory would be seething in anarchy, bloodshed and bloodshed; there would be no peace in the world.

The bolshevists, the premier declared, were assuming guilty of the crime laid to their charges. The allies had given the anti-bolshevik government financial support and assistance. Much of their equipment had been supplied by the allies, who were anxious to keep the rich territories of Russia out of German hands.

Reds Declared Efficient.

If troops were to be sent to Russia, who should send them? America, he said, would send neither men, money nor material, and the work would fall on the British and French. The bolshevik machinery in Russia was ruthless and brutal, but there was no doubt about its efficiency, and it was the only machinery there. Everybody in the past who had interfered in Russia had come to grief.

There was an idea of recognizing the bolshevists; it was quite impossible to do so as long as they were pursuing their present methods.

It might be argued, he said, that the bolshevists governed by terror. The same could be said of the French revolution. He was unable to describe the figures that intervention would involve, but after seeing them, no sane man, he declared, would advise the allies after five years of war, to undertake the enterprise. The bolshevik military power had grown strong, while both England and Germany were too occupied to attack it.

Parley With Reds Defended.

"If we won, how long should we occupy the country," he asked, "and what guarantee would there be when we withdrew, a dependable government would be set up?" Referring to the alternative of allowing the fire in Russia to burn itself out, the premier characterized this as a brutal policy and added that it would be useless to send food to Russia when the only distributing organization was bolshevik.

Supporting the Prinkipo island proposal, the premier argued that it was by no means unknown on the northern frontier of India to parley with brigands and even savagians. The bolshevik system could not last forever, and, in the meantime, he was informed, the threat of intervention was driving the moderate elements in the bolshevik hands. He urged that the allies must do their best in the interests not only of Russia, but also of Great Britain and the world, to restore a good government in the distracted country.

Mr. Lloyd George was sorry to hear members talking in rather slighting tone about the league of nations. Anyone attending the peace conference must realize how much the negotiations were relying on the league. They were not only unanimous, but eager, in its support.

Taft's Views Are Cited.

It was suggested that President Wilson only represented one party regarding the league, but former President Taft, he said, went much farther on the mandatory question than President Wilson himself, and much further than Britain could follow him. "I have been assured by a prominent republican," he continued, "that so far as the league is concerned, the republican working men of America are just as keen as the democratic workingmen and that American public opinion is not divided on the league."

RETAILERS SELECT ASTORIA

Charles Brown Chosen President of Merchants' Association.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 12.—(Special.)—Astoria was selected as the next meeting place and Charles Brown of Astoria was elected president of the Oregon Retailers' association which closed its sessions here tonight, after a successful three days' convention. N. L. Croust of Portland is the new first vice-president; George Cusiter, Silverton, second vice-president; A. J. Libbary, third vice-president; Edward A. McLean of Portland, secretary, and D. J. Van Scoy, Portland, treasurer.

The convention closed with a banquet at the Commercial club with more than 200 Oregon retail merchants present.

Ski Club to Visit Mount Hood.

On their seventh annual trip to Mount Hood lodge members of the M. C. A. Ski club will leave Portland Saturday morning at 7:30 o'clock, returning Monday. The organization was formed in 1912 and has made a pilgrimage to the famed mountain every year since, with the exception of 1915, which was skipped because of a critical situation by Mayor Hanson of Seattle and commending the action of the strikers at Seattle in renouncing a false position and renouncing a vicious leadership when the error was discovered.

HOLSUM Starts Its New Drive

You home-makers know from sad experience how hard it was to bake up to standard when substitutes for white flour had to be used. You then may realize what the bakers had to contend with—how very difficult it was to turn out bread of the same standard of excellence you had grown to expect of us. Some days, due to the mixed flours, things would go wrong, and the bread would be soggy and lacking in flavor in spite of our best efforts.

But now we are happy to tell you that HOLSUM BREAD is again all white and as fine as the days before the war. Daily we must turn out more and more loaves to meet the ever increasing demand. Last year we sold over eight million pounds of bread—this year promises to far overstep that mark.

When you ask your Grocer for HOLSUM BREAD you are demanding the best bread that can be turned out by the largest and finest equipped bakery in the Northwest.
