party by Mrs. Josiah Evans Cowles, president of the general federation of women's clubs, and her reported assertion that this organization caused defeat of suffrage in Congress is resented in Oregon, according to Mrs. L. W. Therkelsen. "The real cause of defeat," said Mrs. Therkelsen, "is the existence of the 29 willful, reactionary politicians elected to the United States senate to represent the unprogressive men of their respective states. If the general and state federations of women's clubs used the same energy in sustainubs used the same energy in sustain ing the various women's organizations devoted unselfishly to the enfranchisement of their sisters instead of publicly or leising their methods, the wave of solidarity of purpose would be too strong for any defeat."
