THRIFT STAMPS AND WAR SAVINGS STAMPS On Sale at Business Office, Oregonian.

STOLEN CAR FORGOTTEN LOOTED—Automobile bandits looted the store of C. A. Norwood, 1907 Foster road, early yesterday, and escaped with $500 worth of sporting goods, automobile tires and extras, which they carried off in their machine. They left behind a note thanking the proprietor for the stolen goods and signed "The Three Diamonds." The thieves entered the store by breaking a back door. Their loot included 10 salmon reels, four small fish-reels, 10 fishing rods, 10 outer casings for automobile tires, and 24 inner tubes, besides eight flashlights, three automobile spot-lights, and 16 coils of auto repairing lines. Inspectors Snow and Tackaberry investigated. Automobile tires and other articles valued at $500 were stolen early yesterday from the P. J. Cronin Company, 122 First street.

LEGISLATIVE MEASURE INTERESTS—Merchants and business men are interested in senate bill No. 234, designed to compel collection of state tax on bond of $2000 with the secretary of state as a guarantee of faithful service and making returns on collections promptly. The bill is before the judiciary committee of the senate and will be supported by petitions signed by about 400 retail merchants, bankers, business and professional men of the city. It has the indorsement of the retail merchants' associations of the state and of Portland.

MR. HAGEN WOULD BE MR. HAGEN—Frank Frederick Hazenbruch says that the German-sounding termination of his name is a source of humiliation and financial loss to him as he is taken for a Teuton, while, in reality, an American citizen. He asks permission of the county court, in a petition filed yesterday, to change his name to Hagen. Chance acquaintances now invariably presume he is German, and moreover, he says, his name is too long for people to remember, thus, injuring his business as a salesman.

BUILDING IS GOING AHEAD—Building in Portland is picking up, according to Watta of the building permit bureau in the city hall. Last week there was an exceptionally small amount of building in the city, but indications are that this year there will be more activity. By next spring Portland will again be normal. The majority of permits issued lately are for garages. There have been few homes of any considerable size erected during the last year, according to Mr. Watta.

JOHN T. BATES PASSES AWAY—John T. Bates, a veteran of the civil war and a member of the G. A. R., died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Prince, 4225 Forty-eighth avenue, S. E., yesterday, aged 78. His widow and six children are survivors. They are Walter E. Bates and Mrs. Prince, of Portland; Mrs. E. F. Keir, of Phoenix, E. C. and Wesley F. Keir, of Portland; and Arthur G. Bates, living in Saskatchewan, Canada.

BOY OF 17 STAYS—Miles A. Eckerson, aged 17, through his guardian, J. W. Richards, filed suit in the circuit court yesterday against Roy K. Jeter, the county jailer, Sheriff Hurlburt, A. A. Bailey and A. M. Garland for damages of $2000. Eckerson was arrested by juvenile authorities and held in the city jail for six days. He alleges incarceration in a solitary cell on October 17, 1918, with no light or heat and a constant stench about.

NEW TYPE OF CAR SATISFACTORY.—Operation of the new type of one-man crew cars on the Irvington-Jefferson street line of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company, is proving satisfactory, according to officials. Eight cars are necessary to perform carrying service equal to five of the larger cars, but at the present time ten are used on the line. These are what is called the Birney safety car, and cannot start until the door is closed, and will promptly come to a stop when the door is opened. Control of power is in a lever that will automatically stop the motor unless the hand of the operator is upon it.

ASSISTANT EMPLOYMENT DIRECTOR NAMED.—Frederick E. Harlow, who has been identified with the United States government employment service in Portland and Oregon since March of last year, being office manager for the acting and acting federal director during the absence of Wilfred F. Smith, has been appointed assistant federal director. Director Smith has created this new office for Mr. Harlow, a well-known Portland man who has proved particularly efficient in government employment work. Mr. Harlow is a native of Portland, the son of John Harlow, an Oregon pioneer of 1831.

LOSS OF WRIGHT OF CATTLE CAUSES SUE.—Tough handling, lack of water, delay in shipment and other improper care caused 19,000 pounds shrinkage in 381 cattle on the way from Stanfield to Chicago, alleges R. N. Stanfield in a suit against the Oregon-Washington Railway & Navigation company, filed yesterday in federal court. He claims damages amounting to $4055 resulted. Of the amount $1830 was due to shrinkage, $97 to decline in value from date of sale, and $222 for extra feed along the way, the petition states.

YALE DEAN TALKS TO MILITARY STUDENTS.—Dr. Charles R. Brown, dean of Yale School of Religion, addressed the cadets of Hill military academy yesterday morning. Dr. Brown told of the aims of the league to enforce peace and of the moral results of the war. He was introduced by Joseph A. Hill, principal of the academy, and was greeted by several Yale men and by friends who formerly attended Dr. Brown's church when he was pastor of the First Congregational Church in Oakland, Cal.

FIRE MARSHAL ISSUES WARNING.—Fire Marshal Grenfell issued warnings yesterday to persons who attempt to smoke smelt or other food products in the city. The warning followed the report of a small fire at the northwest corner of Larrabee street and Broadway caused by A. M. Terrill smoking smelt in an old stable. The place he had equipped was not according to the specifications of the building code for smokehouses it is stated. Every year a number of small fires are reported caused by unsuccessful smokehouses.

RICHARD LOWMEAD GUILTY.—Richard Lombard pleaded guilty to passing spurious checks to the total of several hundred dollars on Portland business concerns, in the circuit court yesterday. He will be sentenced by Presiding Judge Stapleton on Wednesday. He was arrested in California, shortly after indictment for the same offense. The checks were given in advanced payment of tuition fees and were for larger amounts than the fees, the difference being received in change.

The connoisseur always demands the best

In his home—at his club—in hotel or restaurant—he chooses DEL MONTE Catsup as his favorite relish because it adds greatly to his enjoyment of other foods without destroying their natural flavors. There is almost no food that DEL MONTE Catsup will not make more appetizing. Its ripe tomato flavor is very distinctive yet delightfully delicate. Try it at your next meal and note how it improves even the most ordinary dishes.
