I believe Tanke is the best all-round medicine made, and I have faithfully tried about all of them in the last twenty years. I am now a well, strong and happy man and have regained all my lost weight and more. I never in my life had such an appetite and, although I cat three, big, hearty meals every day, I never suffer a bit from indigestion or any kind of stomach trouble. I am free from constipation and never have those bad headaches any more, and feel full of life and energy all the time. I am more than glad orgy all the time.
