FRENCH TO SOLVE PROBLEMS UNAIDED

War Debts' Internationalization Plan Given Up.

RECONSTRUCTION JOB IS BIG

E. M. House Goes to Brest to Counsel With Wilson.

PRESIDENT TO BE POSTED

Personal Adviser of Executive to Prepare Chief to Meet All Questions at Peace Conference.

BY HERBERT BAYARD SVOPE.

PARIS, March 13.—(Special.)—France has definitely abandoned plans she had contemplated for the internationalization of war debts. I make this statement on authority. It is the French intention to tackle the stupendous job of reconstruction single-handed, except for such assistance as she may normally receive from her associates. It may be said with certainty that her ministers are no longer giving consideration to the idea of apportioning war obligations among the allies, as had been previously urged, though not officially.

In this attitude, as well as in her willingness that German gold be used, if necessary, for revictualizing Germany, France is displaying a spirit that is winning commendation from those who have been her bitterest critics, because of her apparent reluctance to face what the critics regarded as the inevitable. Now she has rolled up her sleeves and is pitching into the job with energy, instead of dallying in the hope that something would turn her way. Her present disposition is encouraging to the entire peace conference.

House to Make Report.

E. M. House, who hastened to Brest to meet the president, will report this new phase of affairs in his outline of the general situation, which the president will face on his arrival in Paris. Many grave problems have been deferred for his final consideration. Not the least of these are matters of the Rhineland republics, the relations of Germany with Austria and other proposals looking to the disintegration of the former German empire. These questions bear so intimately upon the formula of self-determination that President Wilson is regarded as the proper person to rule finally on them.

No one may say with authority what his attitude will be, but others of the American delegation have expressed themselves satisfied with the plans offered by the French. At the press club dinner, where Marshal Foch, Andre Tardieu and Secretary Lansing spoke, point was made of the fact that much obscurity has been cleared away and the true significance of problems that were not previously understood in all their bearings is now appreciated.

Lansing's Talk Approved.

Paris newspapers attach great importance to Secretary Lansing's speech, and approve of it. His speech was a decision to bring out certain vital phases which the social and economic world is facing. His suggestions were along lines that have frequently been presented in these dispatches, as showing the American position in respect to the world problems now in course of solution.

One of these problems certainly will be solved at the meeting of the representatives of the allies and of Germany in Brussels, to resume the economic negotiations which were interrupted in Spa last week. There is a touch of drama in the presence of Food Director Hoover on the delegation, for the last time he met the Germans in Brussels was when they were conquerors and made him feel their power.

With the delivery to the Germans of guarantees that they will be fed throughout August, there will be turned over to the allies something like 1,500,000 tons of merchant ships now lying in Teutonic ports. It is probable that while the majority of the ships will be handled by allied crews, some of them will be manned by German sailors, who otherwise would be thrown out of employment, and so add to disturbed conditions in Germany. German sailors will be used on ships sailing to neutral ports.

Neutrals Are Invited.

E. M. House has invited the neutrals to send delegates to a conference on the subject of the league of nations, in order that the suggestions of neutrals may be considered, with the view of possible inclusion in the final draft of the project. Neutrals from South and Central America, with two significant exceptions, and from Asia and Europe, are embraced in the invitation. From this announcement it may be assumed that provision for the league of nations will not be included in the first draft of the peace treaty which Germany will be asked to sign, when German commissioners are sent for, around April 1.

In drafting rules for the air forces of Germany, the council of ten has decided to permit the development of commercial aircraft, but to place a ban on war machines.

WILSON ON VESSEL LAYS PEACE PLANS

WIRELESS INFORMS PRESIDENT OF NEW SITUATION.

Party Disembarks at Brest in Moonlight Night and Boards Train for Paris.

ON BOARD U. S. S. GEORGE WASHINGTON, March 13.—(By the Associated Press, by Wireless.)—Today, the last of his voyage from the United States to Brest, President Wilson put in several hours mapping out his plans for his peace conference work. During the day the president received a wireless dispatch outlining the situation with regard to the phases of the negotiations which are to come up soon after his arrival in Paris.

The voyage has been of great benefit to President Wilson, who throughout has obeyed the instructions of Rear-Admiral Grayson, his personal physician, to rest.

The president has entirely recovered from the cold from which he had been suffering and also the fatigue consequent on his hurried trip to Washington, and is in vigorous condition and ready to take up the tasks awaiting him. These tasks will begin when he boards the train at Brest for the last stage of the journey to Paris.

BREST, March 13.—(By the Associated Press.)—President Wilson and the party which came with him from the United States left Brest for Paris at 11 o'clock tonight. The president and Mrs. Wilson disembarked from the George Washington at 9:45 o'clock. It was a moonlight night.

Though numerous decorations had been hung out to welcome the return of the president, his reception was entirely without ceremony. Those who extend their greetings were the French ambassador to the United States and Madame Jusserand, M. Leygues, minister of marine, and several other representatives of the French government. Major-General Eli A. Helmick, Brigadier-General W. W. Harts and Colonel House met the president at the dock. The presidential party came ashore on an American tug and, while on board, Mrs. Wilson was presented with a bouquet by M. Leygues. There was a little flurry of mist during the trip from the steamer, but this lasted only a short time.

DOLLAR A YEAR MEN TAXED

Pay Must Be Reported as Part of Income, Government Holds.

WASHINGTON, March 13.—During the war the government accepted the services of nearly 1,000 men and paid them the nominal compensation of $1 a year. Today the dollar became a tax issue through a ruling by the internal revenue bureau that not only must the dollar be reported, but that it is taxable if the total income from all sources is in excess of the usual exemptions.

Most dollar-a-year men had private sources of income above $6000, and in these cases the normal tax on the dollar will be 12 cents, or nearly two months' pay at the government rate.

NOSKE'S FIRM HAND SAVES GOVERNMENT

Restoration of Order in Berlin Triumph.

BOLSHEVIK DANGER PASSING

Continued Vigorous Action Is Declared Necessary.

PESSIMISTS STILL SPOULD

German Press in Occupied Areas Is Still Discouraged and Prone to Recurrence of Riots.

BY CYRIL BROWN.

COBLENZ, March 13.—(Special Cable.)—"With the restoration of order in Berlin," the official army bulletin says today, "there are many expressions of satisfaction that the dangers of bolshevism are passing in Germany. Although martial law rules Berlin, it is believed the worst period of danger is over. A few days of firmness by Herr Noske, the military secretary, has done more than the temporary policy of the government accomplished in four months.

"Naturally, the great majority of the Germans want a strong and orderly government. Whenever there is order the German does what he can to make the most of the situation and to revive his business. He is accustomed to letting someone else do his politics for him and to attend to keeping order. He wants to make money and to have a government that will keep order and look out for his interests. The imperial government did both, and if the republic cannot do as well he wants to know the reason why."

Noske Saves Situation.

"Thanks to Herr Noske, the government has a new lease of life. It must now act vigorously to feed the people and to keep order, or renewed outbreaks may be expected, notwithstanding the innate desire of the typical German to pursue his business undisturbed."

By contrast with this cheery opinion, the German press in the occupied area continues to take the gloomiest view of the situation. It prophesies general strikes of increasing violence and outbreaks of bolshevism. The Cologne Gazette compares the recent election of Melvin J. Ballard to the apostle ship.

Natron Cut-Off, Highways, Schools, Parks and Clean Streets Are Objects of Society.

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., March 13.—(Special.)—The first commercial organization ever started by women in this locality has been launched by 11 women in this city. The men of the city, the women say, have been somewhat dilatory in reviving the commercial club which was suspended here for the period of the war and the urgent need of an organization of this kind is believed to have prompted this step.

The new organization has not yet been named, but the members have announced their intention of getting behind the move for the completion of the Natron cut-off, better county highways, civic improvements of all kinds, parks, schools, public playgrounds and clean streets.

The officers are: President, Mrs. Rose Soule Bratton; secretary, Mrs. Ann L. Winick; treasurer, Miss Maude Baldwin; first vice-president, Mrs. Myrtle Martin; second vice-president, Mrs. Charles Wood Eberlein.

THIRTEENTH AERO SQUADRON ARRIVES

More Oregon Boys Reach American Port.

PORTLAND SURGEON IS HERO

Return Voyage Marked by Influenza Epidemic.

BOYS LONG FOR LETTERS

Lieutenant Dunn, Gassed in Argonne Fighting, Says Doughboys Greatest of All.

BY PEGGY CURTIS.

NEW YORK, March 13.—(Special.)—"Feel? Say, it's the greatest feeling you ever had, when that old boat swings into the harbor," said Stuart McKrea of Salem, color-sergeant for the 13th aero squadron, which arrived this morning on the America. The men are now in sanitation quarantine at Camp Mills, N. J. It was not an especially bad trip, say the boys, but an epidemic of influenza sent 195 men from the various units aboard to the sick bay, and there were four deaths. However, I learned that the Oregonians aboard were in good health and that none of them were influenza patients.

Return of Troops Sought.

The America was well filled with troops. I have learned from senators, mayors and other public officials from western states that there is a strong sentiment on the part of the people to hurry the return of soldiers.

Military men and officials in position to know are of the opinion that the very people petitioning their representatives and public men to speed up return of troops do not know that such an act would work a hardship on the men themselves, who now are being brought back in as good shape as possible. Further rush would no doubt mean more crowded quarters and less facilities of comfort for the troops.

Portland Man Gassed.

Early this morning the hospital ship Comfort docked at Hoboken. Aboard it were five Oregon men, and some wounded or ill men from almost all of the states. The Comfort is a model of excellence and comfort as ships go, and the men were well cared for by Lieutenant John J. Dunn, 452 7th.

SWAN IN LAURELHURST PARK PINES FOR MATE

MATRIMONIAL BUREAU OPENED TO FIND BIRD'S CONSORT.

Feathered Guardian of Lake Mopes, Weary of Bachelor Life, and so Companion Is Sought for Him.

Superintendent of City Parks Keyser has opened a "matrimonial bureau" reaching throughout the United States. The bureau has derived no success as yet, but Superintendent Keyser is confident of ultimate results.

The bureau is operated for the sole purpose of securing a mate for General Pershing, the swan in Laurelhurst lake. This bird has been pling of late for company other than the children who romp and frolic in the park. In fact, according to Mr. Keyser, General Pershing has not been as efficient in "policing" the lake of late as during the last summer, when he continuously guarded the shores of the body of water to keep children from falling into the lake. At times, when the youngsters would like to head him, General Pershing has not been as efficient in "policing" the lake of late as during the last summer, when he continuously guarded the shores of the body of water to keep children from falling into the lake.
