COLONEL MAY HONOR GUEST—Eighty-two members of the Lang Synce society were present at the luncheon given yesterday in compliment to Colonel L. May, retired, commander of the 182d Infantry, and enjoyed from him a lively narrative reciting experiences in Europe. The honorarium was paid his auditors by assuring them his command had never lost its identity as the 3d Oregon, this name being conferred on the 182d Infantry in 1917.

CAPTAIN FRANKLAND GETS OLD POS-ITION—Captain James Frankland, who reported at the district forester's office yesterday, was informed that his old position in the district forester's office would be open to him. He will commence work April 1. Captain Frankland was in the topography department of the forest service. He taught map construction to the ranks in France. He returned to America on the transport, Mercury, formerly one of the larger Lloyd steamships taken from the Germans. The voyage was three days late because of a storm. Water washed into the mess hall, where 17 of the 3000 men on board were thrown from the floor, and received serious injuries.

SHIPBUILDERS TO ADDRESS BOARD—Joseph R. Bowles, president of the Northwest Shipbuilders Association, will address the members of the Portland realty board in the crystal room of the Benson hotel at noon today, on "The Future of Shipbuilding in Portland." W.
E. Shively, chairman of the legal committee, will explain: "Where a broker, without a written contract for a commission, finds a sale for certain real estate and then enters into a written agreement with the owner to submit the amount of his commission to arbitration, may this broker recover from the owner the amount awarded him by the arbitrators, if the owner refuses to pay?" Mr. McCritchell will be chairman of the day.

RICHIE TAX $47.25—An inheritance tax of $47.25 must be paid by the widow of the late Sigmond Richel, according to the determination in value court yesterday. Mr. Richel died December 10, 1917, leaving an estate appraised at $18,685.94, but which by an unexpected rise in the value of the estate amounted to $18,547.54. Claims amounted to $899.14, leaving a total of $9754.40.
Two daughters, Ruth K. Richel and Marion Richel, received $5 each by terms of the will and the residue of the estate went to Mrs. Sarah Richel, the widow. She has a $500 exemption under the law and the 1 per cent tax on the remainder reaches $17.25.

NEW YORK DENTISTS SUIT—Florence M. Sturtevant, doing business under the name of New York Dentists, 27 1/2 Morrison street, and a dentist in her employ whose name is not known to the plaintiff are sued for $212.26 damages by Edward Brunning, in an action filed in the circuit court yesterday alleging malpractice. On January 25, 1919, Brunning had two lower molars extracted.
He alleges that the dentist broke portions of his lower jaw, lacerated his gums, polished his teeth, while the wounds were still open and did not sterilize the hypodermic needle or forceps.

SENATOR HUSTON TO SPEAK—State Senator Huston will be the speaker at the monthly gathering of the Realization Men's club at 8:15 o'clock tonight at the Y. M. C. A. cafeteria. His subject will consist of a review of the accomplishments of the recent Oregon legislative session. President Harper, one of the speakers in the people's popular Sunday night series being given by the league, will preside.

ST. FRANCIS HALL PROGRAMME PLANNED—A splendid programme has been proposed for the evening of March 17 at St. Francis hall, where St. Patrick's day is to be celebrated. Irish dancers will step off some of the old dances, while vocalists will render choice American and Irish songs.
Father O'Donovan and Thomas Mannix will deliver short addresses.

Mr. FINLEY PUTS OFF DECISION—

William L. Finley, state biologist, will not make known his acceptance or refusal of the offer of the American Game society which offered him the vice-presidency of its organization, until the first of next week when he can receive further information concerning the position. Mr. Finley has telegraphed asking permission to remain in Oregon until after completion of the Rainier national park survey scheduled for next July and August.
He has accepted the position of official photographer for the committee chosen by the government to make the survey. Mr. Finley will leave Portland Tuesday on a lecture tour in eastern Oregon and northern Washington.

COLORADO TENOR TO APPEAR AGAIN—Roland W. Hayes, colorado tenor of Boston, and Lawrence B. Brown, his accompanist, arrived in the city last Tuesday and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Cannady at their home, 520 East Twenty-sixth street north. A fine programme will be rendered by Mr.
Hayes and Mr. Brown at the Little theater, Twenty-third and Washington streets, Friday night, March 21. Mr.
Hayes appeared in concert last February at the Masonic temple to a large audience and was heartily received.

phoning him at Woodlawn 2617.
STANDS TO BE ASSIGNED—Assignment of stands for owners of for-hire automobiles in the congested district of the city will be made by the city council this afternoon at a hearing. Under a newly-enacted traffic ordinance the owners of the for-hire machines must apply to the city council for stands and under the plan suggested to Sergeant Hammerly, in charge of the detail of the police bureau, the majority of the downtown blocks will have but four for-hire machine stands.

WORK ON HIGHWAY BEGINS Umatilla to Gravel Road Between Pendleton and Echo.
PENDLETON, Or., March 12.—(Special.)—While it is unlikely that any permanent work can be started before fall on the road between Pendleton and Echo, the county court has a crew of men at work now scarifying the gravelled portion and grading the dirt road. This road, on the old Oregon trail, one of the main routes from Portland to eastern Oregon, last year was the source of much complaint from travelers.

14,000 MARINES NEEDED Recruiting Officers Endeavor to Reach Peace-Time Strength.
More than 14,000 strong, ambitious young men still are needed to fill up the marine corps to peace-time strength, according to recruiting officers at 506 Panamint building.
While the present strength is well over 60,000, only 12,000 are enlisted for the full four years. Others are being released as the army expands. Peacetime strength has been authorized as 26,000, leaving 14,000 still to be signed

WARRANT FOR LOUIS SLIGHT—Fire caused by a spark from machinery set fire to a pile of shoddy in the warehouse of the United Mattress & Pad company, 480 Dixon avenue north yesterday. The damage was about $50.
The spark came from a "picker" used to tear old rags to bits for use in filling ticks. The shoddy was carried into the storeroom on an automatic conveyor and the blaze started there.
Fire Captain Robert investigations.

WHERE IS SERGEANT KEARNEY?— Police yesterday received a letter from Mrs. Philip S. Kearney of St. Louis, Mo., asking help in finding her husband, Sergeant Philip Kearney, who recently was discharged from the army. She says he had over $500, and that she fears he has met with foul play. Inspector Craddock is handling the case.
