Yakima Indians Consult Wilson. YAKIMA, Wash., March 13.—(Special.)—

"FAKE" ASPIRIN WAS TALCUM

Therefore Insist Upon Genuine "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin"

Millions of fraudulent Aspirin Tablets were sold by a Brooklyn manufacturer which later proved to be composed mainly of Talcum Powder. "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin," the true, genuine American made and American owned Tablets, are marked with the safety "Bayer Cross." Ask for and then insist upon "Bayer Tablets of Aspirin" and always buy them in the original Bayer package which contains proper directions and dosage. Aspirin is the trade mark of Bayer. Manufacture of Monosodiumaceticacidester of Salicylicacid—Adv.

Chief Thomas Yallop, George Menick and Thomas Spedls have returned from Washington, D. C., where they went as a special delegation from the Yakima tribe to consult President Wilson regarding Indian affairs. They asked the president not to grant patents to Indian land for another 25 years and to retain the young men as wards of the government for that period. They will make a report of their trip to a tribal meeting next Saturday in Toppenish.

GAMBLING CLEAN-UP IS AIM

Police to Launch Surprise Offensive in Downtown District. Gambling raids which are expected to disclose wide open gambling in the heart of the west side business district may be conducted by the police any night, according to information which has been drifting about police headquarters for the past several days.

SUCCESSOR TO SAM C. BRATTON ANNOUNCED

John H. Hartog has been selected successor to Sam C. Bratton as sales manager and head of the advertising and publicity departments of the Portland Gas & Coke company, according to announcement made by H. M. Pappert, general manager of the firm. Mr. Bratton recently left for New York. Mr. Hartog came to Oregon nearly two years ago at the request of the late Tom Richardson to take charge of publicity work in Eugene and has since been known as the man who "put Eugene on the map." Recently Mr. Hartog has been engaged in the building of bungalows at St. Johns for shipbuilders.

The police not only intend to put a stop to the gaming in the Chinese section, but they have likewise decided to make a thorough clean-up throughout the city, and are preparing for a big swoop upon the so-called "clubs" in downtown office buildings. It was rumored yesterday at police headquarters that the police have evidence of eight or nine wide-open gambling houses which are in full operation day and night. These places cater largely to shipyard workers, say the police and many who have frequently complained of their husbands losing an entire month's wages in a day. The police heretofore had found a barge in the fact that most of the clubs take out state licenses as social clubs. Sufficient evidence has been gathered, it is said, to make the police certain of their ground.

STUDENTS SEEK INSURANCE

Fee for Medical Attention Indorsed at University of Oregon. UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, March 13.—(Special.)—The student body at assembly held yesterday indorsed the plan presented by Dr. John F. Board, chairman of the student health committee, for health insurance. Dr. Board will place his recommendation before the board of regents next week. He suggests that each student pay $2.50 extra entrance fee each term, which will be treated as a student's dues in case of sickness during the school year. All diseases except chronic cases will be treated and the student may remain in the infirmary for four weeks without charge. A doctor, who shall be a member of the faculty, will serve as university physician and will have charge of all problems of sanitation. Minor operations will be performed free of charge. The tax will also cover all medicine bills.

HOMES WILL BE BUILT

VANCOUVER IN EARNEST WITH PLANS FOR BUILDING. Own-Your-Home Company Is Incorporated for $50,000 to Sell Houses to Workmen. VANCOUVER, Wash., March 13.—(Special.)—Vancouver is in earnest in providing enough houses for the many workmen in this city and for the many more who are working here and living elsewhere. The Own Your Own Home company has been incorporated for $50,000 to furnish houses at first cost to those wanting them, and permit them to pay for them like rent each month. Mayor G. R. Percival, president, has named the following committee: Finance—W. S. Short, vice-president of the Vancouver National bank; James J. Padden, clothing merchant; Rufus Detrick, furniture, and W. C. Stumberg, grocer. To secure fund of $100 to defray cost of incorporating—M. S. Cohen, clothing merchant; Guy Bennett, hardware, and Charles W. Davis, councilman and grocer. Bungalows and plans—Dennis Nichols, architect; Donald McMaster, attorney; and E. L. Miller, attorney, each of whom has been judge of the superior court of Clarke county. Publicity and campaign methods—George E. Simpson and R. C. Sugg, attorneys; W. McPadden, fuel dealer.

AT THE THEATERS

Hippodrome. HARRY SLATKOF Revue, held over from last week's bill at the Hippodrome, added color and action to the new bill and delighted the audience immeasurably. Two exceedingly graceful girls, both of them talented dancers, and five men compose the revue. Three of the men are musicians and make as much music as a big orchestra, playing with animation and skill. The two girls, and their partner partners whirl rapidly through fascinating dance steps and continually spring terrific surprises. The act is good. An act which made a big and instant bid for popularity was L. Ayres. He treated the two girls and their petite cabaret revue in which wee manikins appear as entertainers and dancers. The miniature men and women figures dance naturally through many measures and argue sustained interest. The act is cleverly managed to suggest realism. Arthur Don and Patty, a smiling girl, present a smart little skit entitled "Kidding the Women," full of nimble wit and keen repartee. This act is quite popular. The Niles Trio are three men musicians who play the clarinet, saxophone and violin delightfully and are warmly applauded. A female baritone is Winifred Stewart, whose voice has all the elements of a deep masculine singing voice and is quite novel. The play features Mary Miller Minter, always a favorite, in a new production called "The Amazing Incident," which has a slight twist and humorous twist and is full of romance, excitement and good acting.

SALARY RISE BILL MAY DIE

Legislature Plans to Go Beyond 60-Day Limit by Stopping Clock at Midnight.

OLYMPIA, Wash., March 13.—(Special.)—Earlier prospects of final adjournment of the Washington legislature by noon vanished today in a debris of conference committee disagreements, and by this evening's outlook, the clock probably will have to be stopped at midnight—a substitute by which the legislature stretches the constitutional limit of 60 days in session.

Tonight's blockade centered on senate bill 138 and senate bill 139. The first places auto stages and auto vehicles generally that are operated for passenger revenue under regulation by the public service commission. The house amended this to exclude cars operated by the owner or member of his family, for which conference committee substituted a new section designed to include only cars professionally operated. The house by an overwhelming majority rejected this compromise and served notice on the senate that it would not recede from the original amendment. Senator Phipps, author of the bill, stated later that he would move an indefinite postponement of the measure this evening unless the house vote is reconsidered.

Salary Rise Bill May Die. Senate bill 139, which underwent one conference committee session and another most of the day, reclassifies all counties of the state and increases official salaries an average of about 25 per cent, with several of the larger counties to exceed this rate. Various influential members of both houses would patiently see the bill die in prevailing complications, as there is believed to be no pressing necessity for it beyond the county officials' lobby that has shepherded it through the session thus far. Meanwhile both houses have passed the necessary concurrent resolution authorizing last-minute introduction of a bill drawn to modify alarming possibilities aroused by a recent decision of the supreme court on tax levy limitation. The constitution requires that property be assessed at its true fair value in money and that the rate be uniform over the state. This session passed an act fixing the assessment rate at not more than 50 per cent of the actual valuation, the result of which provision is that barely any two counties have the same rate.

Assessed Valuation Made Basis. In an appeal from the city of Bellingham the supreme court held that a levy of 12 mills, based on an assessed valuation, does not legally constitute an excess over the charter limitation of 8 mills based on actual value following closely the constitutional requirements. Seattle legislators especially awake to the realization that their city could, if it desired to, expand a $20,000,000 indebtedness limit to $40,000,000, and a frantic search began to discover a means of keeping within the constitution without complying with its provisions and still retain charter limitation. The result is a bill drawn by the attorney-general which defines the term valuation as used in relation to tax levies as meaning assessed valuation instead of actual value.

IDAHO RAIL HEAD QUILTS

COL. E. M. HEIGHO SUFFERS DUE TO OVERWORK. Pacific & Idaho Northern Railway Has Rapid Development Since 1903. BOISE, Idaho, March 13.—(Special.)—Colonel E. M. Heigho, well known in railway circles in the west, has resigned as president of the Pacific & Idaho Northern railway and its subsidiary companies on account of ill health. He suffered a severe stroke of paralysis in November, 1917, occasioned by overwork, which rendered him almost helpless physically. Because of the scarcity of help and the exigencies of the war situation he continued to perform all of his duties until October, 1918, when he resigned as general manager and moved from New Meadows to the milder climate and lower altitude of Boise, Idaho, but retained the presidency. He took charge of the railway in 1905, when it was poorly equipped, without money or credit, and traversed an almost primeval wilderness. He built three extensions, put the road on its feet and enormously developed its territory, as indicated by an increase of more than $13,000,000 in the tax rolls. He has no plans beyond taking a much-needed rest. Dance with the street car men at Cottillon hall tonight. Street Car Men's Local No. 757.—Adv.
