PRANKISH STUDENTS STILL EXILED. Although some dissatisfaction has been shown by the students of Reed college regarding the action of the students' classmen who, were responsible for the practical joke played upon the freshmen of the college last week, the punishment has not been remanded and the "exile" will continue for 20 days. The meeting of the student body held Saturday noon was for the purpose of asking lenioncy, but nothing of a defi-nite nature was accomplished. The suspension of the students followed the charges made against them that prop erty of the college was damaged as a result of the joke played.

Soldium in New York Phones Moth-ru.—When Mrs. F. W. Kruger, $25% Fuxton street, was called to the tele-phone late Saturday hight it wasn't to the attendant nulsances of a midnight call, but it was to hear the voice of her son, Lieutonant Herbert W. Kruger, who was calling her from New York. Lieutenant Kruger had just arrived from overseas on the United States steamer Panama, and employing the usual American disregard for time and smace, just called up the folks to say "hello." Lincoln High School Club Collects $2200 for Armenians: Garments Made for Destitute Belgiaus.

Raised thousands of dollars for the Raised thousands of dollars for the Armenians, adopted war orphans, sewed for the Belgians and the Visiting Nurse association, made scrap books for the bables and joke books for the soldiers, held profitable sales and sold war savings stamps—these are some of the accomplishments of the past few weeks of the girls clubs of the Young Woman's Christian Association, accomplishments that adults might be proud of, yet the girls are all in their early teens, some of them in grammar school and others in high school.

The presidents of the clubs met for a council in the social hall of the association last week and each one gave a report of the special work of her organization. Mildred Peterson, of the Tri-L club of the Lincoln high school, said $2200 had been collected for the Armenians, three girls having collected at the Multnomah hotel by returned members of this organization and those who were formerly members of this organization and those Pipe Organ and Vocal Selections Please Audience at Auditorium. One thousand one hundred and eighty cople attended the pipe organ recital of Irish music given at the auditorium yesterday afternoon by Frederick W. Goodrich. The vacalist was Roscoe Bell, tenor soloist, at Wilbur Methodist opal church.

RELIEF WORK DONE

The event was in celebration of the approach of St. Patrick's day, the entire recital programme reflected the gay music of the Emerald Isle, and the renditions of the stirring music were greeted with round after round of applause. The audience consisted of many family parties. The pipe organ selections played so skilfully by Mr. Goodrich included such Irish airs as "Cruiskeen Lawn," "The Harp That Once," "The Minstrel Boy," "Off in the Stilly Night," "The Low-Backed Car," "Killarney," "Wearin' o' the Green," etc. One of the specially enjoyable airs was "Trish Tune From County Derry," arranged by Granger and transposed for ranged by Granger and transposed for the pipe organ by Mr. Goodrich. Mr. Bell made a good impression with his finely sung tenor solos, and invested each song with sympathy. His singing was so much liked that he had to sing extra numbers.
