SUMMER HOME SITES APPROVED.—George H. Cecil, district forester, yesterday approved a part of the Lakewoods group of summer home sites on the shore of Spirit Lake of the Columbia National forest.

DAIRY COUNCIL GETS NEW MEMBERS.—J. E. Dunne, chairman of the membership committee of the Oregon dairy council, yesterday telephoned from Tillamook that he has secured seven new members for the council.

FOREIGN FIRM WANTS TIES.—That France is turning to the United States for some of the materials that will be needed in rehabilitating its properties is seen in the fact that the Portland Chamber of Commerce has just received notification that a French firm is ready to place orders for 2,500,000 cross-ties with firms presenting the most satisfactory bids.

DEPUTY GAME WARDEN TO BE TRIED.—The second case in which a special deputy game warden has been arrested for violations of the game code was reported yesterday to State Game Warden Shoemaker with the information that Dan Heising of Metolius had been placed under arrest.

LECTURE TO CONCLUDE SERIES.—"Foundations Principles of the Ideal Commonwealth," the eighth and concluding lecture in the series, which was given by Emanuel Swedenborg's "Heaven and Hell," will be given this evening at the central library, library hall, at 3 o'clock.

STANTON G. SMITH ON WAY EAST.—Stanton G. Smith, for 15 years connected with this forest district, has resigned and yesterday passed through Portland on his way to Rochester, N. Y., where he will commence his duties as manager of the new Western Wood Products company.

MUD-SLIDE COVERS TRACK.—A mud-slide on the Spokane, Portland & Seattle line to Astoria yesterday, has inconvenience to the road yesterday morning in the operation of trains. A brakeman was reported slightly injured, but whether directly by the slide or in the process of clearing it away was not indicated.

WOMAN ATTACKED BY DAMAGES.—In the suit of Elizabeth Wood against the Portland Railway, Light & Power company, asking damages of $12,900 for injuries received when a street car ran off a track on Woodcock avenue on May 16, 1918, an award of $4250 was given the plaintiff by a jury in the court of Circuit Judge Gantenbein yesterday.

SHIPWORKER INJURED IN FALL.—Hugh Platt of Gladstone was seriously injured yesterday morning when he fell from the upper deck of the ship upon which he was working, his head striking a keg of rivets. He was taken to the Sellwood hospital, where he received treatment. He has been employed as stowage-rigger by the Columbia Ship corporation.

THE INDIAN REVIVAL will be the subject of the fifth lecture in the Reed college extension course in "Modern English Poetry," which will meet tonight in room A, central library, at 8 o'clock. The course is being given by Mr. Charles Wilber Snow, professor of English at Reed college.

ARREST MADE FOR DRUNKENNESS.—Carl Martin was arrested yesterday at Second and Oak streets on a charge of being drunk and disorderly. He was taken to the police station, where he will be held pending a hearing.

PORTLAND SOLDIER'S RECORD LOST.—The loss of the service record of Elisha G. Wilson en route from Fort Mason, Cal., to Camp Lewis, Wash., caused his name to be listed among deserters from the service and an article was published February 25. Wilson was honorably discharged on February 8, 1919, and yesterday received a telegram from Brigadier-General Leitch at Camp Lewis assuring him that he was not carried as a deserter. Wilson left Fort Mason, San Francisco, January 8, and reported to the quartermaster department at Camp Lewis January 12. The loss of his service record, sent by mail, resulted in the notice of desertion dated from January 8. Wilson lives at 1247 East 30th street.

Y. W. C. A. RESPONSE LIBERAL.—The hearts of the workers in the "carry on" campaign of the Young Women's Christian association, were made glad yesterday following the arrival at headquarters of a check for $300, from an eastern woman who owns property in Portland. The workers started out to raise $20,000 for the association's needs Monday morning and they have met with encouraging response. It is an interesting fact that business and professional women of the city, who make daily use of the association building and its many facilities for rest and recreation, are among the generous contributors.

U. S. CHAMBER SECRETARY DUE FRIDAY.—Colvin Brown, organizing secretary of the United States chamber of commerce, is scheduled to spend Friday in Portland, according to a message received by Secretary Dodson of the Portland Chamber of Commerce. It is considered especially timely that Mr. Brown is to be here now because of the membership campaign to be waged next week. It is a special function to aid and counsel commercial bodies with regard to the best and most approved methods of enrolling new members.

PORTLAND WANTS FIRE CHIEF'S CONVENTION.—Portland is out after the annual convention of the National Fire Chiefs' association. Invitations on behalf of this city are being extended to the executive committee of the body at a session in St. Louis. Fire chiefs of the Pacific coast are to meet in Portland next fall and an attempt is to induce the national body to come here at the same time. The city administration, city fire department and the Chamber of Commerce sent in invitations.

FRENCH FIRM WANTS TIES.—That France is turning to the United States for some of the materials that will be needed in rehabilitating its properties is seen in the fact that the Portland Chamber of Commerce has just received notification that a French firm is ready to place orders for 2,500,000 cross-ties with firms presenting the most satisfactory bids.

CLOTHES SOCIETY FOR NEEDY.—"Don't wait for the old-clothes drive, but begin to look through your clothes closets now," urges Mrs. Carolyn Jones of the National League for Women's Service, "and help us outfit a poor Portland family before the big drive for the war victims of Europe begins. The family we refer to, through illness and unemployment, is now destitute and in need of clothing." Mrs. Jones can be reached in the auditorium of the Meier & Frank store.

TWO DIVORCE SUITS FILED.—Minerva E. Pullen filed suit for divorce from W. A. Pullen, whom she married in 1914, in the circuit court yesterday. She asks custody of the youngest of six children born during the past 23 years and alimony of $75 a month. The result is alleged to have been the most satisfactory divorce from William Clay Oxford, alleging cruel treatment.

MILKMAN OF HALSBY ARRESTED.—Robert Halsey, a milkman of Halsey, Or., has been arrested in connection with the high finance transactions of his son, J. Al Pattison. The elder Pattison was indicted jointly with his son, and V. Cooper and Jerome Mann by the federal grand jury last Saturday. They are charged with conspiring to misappropriate bank funds. Mr. Pattison's bail is placed at $1000.

AUTO DRIVER ASKS DAMAGES.—Hugh M. Skinner filed suit for $10,000 damages against the Portland Railway, Light & Power company in the circuit court yesterday for injuries received in a collision between an automobile he was driving and a street car at Park and Galian streets October 1, 1918. He is 21 years old and alleges he suffered permanent injuries.

LICQUOR VIOLATOR FINED $200.—James C. Payton was fined $200 in the federal court yesterday for bringing liquor into dry territory. He said he wanted it on his lonely ranch in Montana. Not having the money to pay the fine he promised to pay it in 30 days or go to jail.

REPAIR MEN TO BANQUET TODAY.—A banquet will be given today in the Multnomah hotel by the Portland Garage and Repair Men's association, for about 30 of their members. Speeches and reports will be part of the program.
