Germans Must Learn Lesson.

Concerning Germany, the president's attitude is unchanged, except that pe haps it has become more decisive than OIL COMPANY FILES SUIT : before. He is determined that Germany shall learn thoroughly the lesson of the war and that no fendency should be granted that might blunt the edge of defeat and let it be easily forgotion. But with all the firancess of his nature lantic Refining company today entered he is equally determined that there suit in the United States court here must be no errors tending toward the against the government for $2,193,251, other extreme.

It may not be amiss to quote him to the navy. The oil company claims directly on this point as being insistent compensation on the basis of war prices that "Germany shall be neither looted charged for its products, while Secrecated his atlitude on the assumption fixed by President Wilson that Germany is prepared to discharge Other concerns, it is stated, will enter to he imposed upon her.

Prosecuting Attorney Fred C. Brown oday endeavored to close all avenues of escape against Miss Garrison should the plead "not guilty" tomorrow.

Girl Has But One Wish.

Ruth Garrison, herself, was the one who caused all eyes to turn toward Storrs, who was reported to be on his way to this city from Okanogan in reponse to a telegram from hds mother Mrs. Sibylla M. Storrs, 2434 Tenth avenue north. Miss Garrison in her cell, has but one wish now: To see Storr-"Will be see me, and what will be say and how will be act?" the confessed wirl homicide asked over and over again, in one form or another last she was anxious to know was whether the man for whom she had committed the supreme crime would turn away from her, now that she had been found

"Surely Doug would stand by me.

Other developments of the day in the amination was given Miss Garrison to day by Dr. Don Nicholson, prominent alienisi, as to her mentality. The alienist was with his patient almost two hours at the city jail, he having been sent there by Prosecuting Attorney Fred C. Brown. The inference was said to be plain: The state is preparing itself to meet a possible plea of in-sanity; probably emotional insanity.

Information Is Filed.

Information formally charging Ruin Garrison with murder in the first degree was filed in the King county superior court at noon today.

Dr. Donald A. Nicholson, prominent allenist, after talking to the girl in the Peninsula company to increase capital stock differences, and y, reported to Prosecuting to $1,500,000, Page 22. Attorney Fred C. Brown that he considered Miss Garrison same.
