EXCHANGE DUE IN 1920.-Bankers and bond houses are not yet in position to exchange for their patrons the temporary liberty bonds bearing 4 or 6 coupons for the bonds that have all remaining coupons attached. Notice received from the 12th district federal reserve bank of San Francisco stating that all coupon bonds are now in the hands of banks of the district was misconstrued. Not until the last coupon on bonds of the third loan has matured in April, 1920, will the permanent bonds be available for exchange. The exchange of bonds of the fourth loan can be effected begin-ning October, 1920.

SUN RIBES ON MOUNTAIN.-Along about Sun Ribes on Mountain.—Along about this time of year majestic old Mount Hood bites an exact segment out of the sun, according to John U. Smith of Newberg. The spectacle is decidedly worth watching, says Mr. Smith. "Within a week," he declares, "the sun will rise directly out of the top of Mount Hood, as it does twice a year. That is to say, it rises exactly behind the mountain and seems to spring from the summit. For an instant the moun-tain top cuts a piece of pie, farmer size, in the sun's disk."
