

JUVENILE BAD MAN'S AMBITION IS DASHED

15-Year-Old Would-Be Desperado Lands in Jail.

TRUSTY GUN SURRENDERED

Bill Hart Disciple, on Eve of Intended Big Adventures Encounters Chief Probation Officer.

The formidable sidearms of "Big Bill" Hart dwindled into insignificance beside the young cannon toter Larry Bates, 15-year-old bad man from Lents, who was brought into the juvenile court yesterday. The screen hero's trusty six-shooter was a cap-pistol by comparison with the antiquated Smith and Wesson .44-caliber nose-gun of desperate Larry, who scarcely could pull the trigger with both hands.

Almost two-feet long, with soft-nosed lead bullets somewhat smaller than the pellets Big Bertha hurled into Paris, the interesting relic of frontier days lay like a mammoth coast-defense gun among one-ponders in the armament collection of A. A. Bailey, chief probation officer.

Probation Officer Meets.

Larry was sullenly defiant, a large and expensive cowboy heaver hat rakishly hiding one ear and half his head. To the best of his recollection, policemen, probation officers and the like never crossed the path of Bill Hart. It would have been a different proposition had Bailey worn a sombrero, had two guns strapped to a giraffe-like cartridge belt, a large and obvious star pinned on his flapping vest and a drooping mustache which he alternately stroked and gnawed. Sheriff's always did bother Bill until he showed "em what a tough nut he really was by taking their guns away and standing off a hostile multitude of deputies, glaring at 'em with narrowed eyes and tight-locked lips.

Bailey didn't fit in with the scenario at all. He was smooth-shaven and he grinned. He eyed the blue overall suit of Larry—the dungarees of the plainsman.

"Where are your spurs and hair pants, son?" he queried, not unkindly. "Aw, I'm going to get 'em," responded the youth, scowling fiercely.

Parents Out of Town.

"Where's your ma and pa?" pursued Bailey.

"Aw, they went away for a couple of days Friday."

"And you thought you'd take advantage of their absence to terrorize the populace, eh?"

"Huh?"

"Thought you'd try a hold-up or so, did you?"

"Kinda figured there might be some excitement in it, 'specially if you could with a reminiscent gleam in a defiant eye."

"Guess we'll have to hold you upstairs a while until your folks can come and take you home," declared Bailey. And the boy was led to the juvenile quarters of the jail. Holy smoke! A jail on the ninth floor of a marble and stone building—no chance for cow-punching pals to effect a thrilling rescue through a hole in the roof or hand-to-hand combat with sleep-guards. Not a remote opportunity to dig an underground passage to where a trusty Pinto pony was chewing bark from trees and waiting. Not even a possibility of grabbing a revolver from a careless guard and forcing him to unlock the barred door—the guard usually left his gun on the office desk. Bill Hart has lost a disciple.

ROBERTS ESTATE FIXED

Appraisal Shows Total of $630,000.

337,275 Left by Portland Man.

An appraisal of $630,000.27 is placed on the estate of the late Henry Roberts, of the firm of Roberts Bros., in an inventory filed in the probate court yesterday. Of this amount a total of $26,229.20 is in liberty bonds.

There are in the estate $10,000 in bonds of the first Liberty loan, $10,000 in the second loan, $15,000 in the third loan and $15,000 in the fourth loan, totaling $55,000. Liberty bonds to the sum of $122,229 were taken on mortgages. War savings stamps totaled $238,146.50. Stock in the Colas Investment company is $19,750. The remainder is chiefly real estate, the total in real property being $225,500.

Make Your Own Gray Hair Remedy

Mrs. A. Dixon, a well-known Brooklyn trained nurse, made the following statement regarding gray hair:

"Straggled, faded or gray hair can be quickly turned black, brown or light brown, by the use of the following remedy that you can make at home:

"Merely get a box of Oriex powder at any drug store. It costs very little and no extras to buy. Dissolve it in 4 oz. of distilled or rain water and comb it through the hair. Directions for mixing and use and a gold bond guarantee come in each box. One box will last you for months.

"It is not sticky or gummy, and does not rub off, is not sticky or gummy, and leaves the hair fluffy. It will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger."—A. D.

COOLIE NEWS

BY GERTRUDE P. CORBETT

THE annual junior week-end festival at Oregon Agricultural college are being arranged by a committee of students and will be given with all pre-war status. The date has been set for May 2, 3 and 4. A number of Portland people will be guests at the various events which will comprise the entertainment for the week-end.

The "junior prom," the formal dance of the year given by the third-year class, will be held on May 2. Alumni and out-of-town guests will attend. In addition to the dance there will be a junior vaudeville, the annual girls' stunt show, an interesting programme of athletics and open house at the fraternity and sorority houses. William Teutsch of Nyssa, Or., is general chairman and is assisted by a score of 1920 class members.

The Misses Florence and Mary Holmes are spending their vacations in the city with their mother, Mrs. E. K. Holmes.

The college and high school sets are taking a great deal of interest in the dance to be given this evening at the Multnomah Hotel. The affair is to celebrate the mid-semester and the numerous girls and boys here for the short vacation are enthusiastic about the dance.

The men from overseas are to be the special guests of honor and they will have an excellent opportunity of renewing old friendships and college acquaintances.

Patrons and patronesses include Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Campbell of University of Oregon, Mayor and Mrs. George I. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. Kerr of Corvallis, Oregon Agricultural college.

The committee for the event includes: Tracie Maynor, Alice Hayman, Florence Hemingway, Jennie Parelius, Dorothy Merrill, Marian Speer, Marian Stephenson, Theodora Stoppinback, Reba Macklin, Miss Peterson, Gene Geisler, Marian Grobel, Helen Wheeler, Geraldine King, Virginia Cash, Oscar Driscoll, Stan Anderson, Paul Campbell, Ted Peterson, Gobbie Reed, George Beggs, Spud Glennon, Osburn Walker, Merle Margason, Herman Lind, Helmar Edlund, Hugh Thompson, John Hunt and Mrs. J. H. McManis.

HONOLULU, T. H., March 24.—(Special.)—Miss Margaret McLennan, of Portland, will be married next month to James Lindsay Grimshaw, who has the honor of having been Hawaii's first returning war hero. The ceremony will take place here, Miss McLennan having recently returned from a visit to her father's home in Portland to prepare her trousseau.

Mr. Grimshaw is connected with the Mutual Telephone company of this city and was the first man to leave the islands in 1914 for the war. He went to Australia and took part in the Gallipoli and French campaigns of the Australians.

Among the students of Oregon Agricultural college who are spending the spring vacation at their homes in Portland are Miss Stephanie Strain, Miss Marion West, Miss Mildred French and Miss Mary Emily Appleby. Miss Leotta Day of Victoria is a student of the college who is visiting relatives in Portland during the holidays.

Miss Gladys Lenox of Klamath Falls is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. E. J. Davidson, for a few days. Miss Lenox is a student of Oregon Agricultural college, where she is a prominent member of Chi Omega sorority.

Miss Gertrude Wilson of Portland is visiting Honolulu. She was the honored guest at a buffet luncheon given by Mrs. Archie Guild there recently.

Mrs. L. H. Marshall of this city has been stopping at the Hotel Lankershim in Los Angeles during the past few days.

W. A. T. Bushong of Portland stopped at the Hotel Lankershim of Los Angeles during a recent visit to that city.

Among the many prominent people from this city stopping at the Hotel Lankershim in Los Angeles are Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bronaugh, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Call, Mr. and Mrs. W. Shentiff, R. H. Roney and Captain J. Speier.

Ruth M. Beno, Linda Bolling Sturgis, Lillian F. Woodward and Mrs. Woodward were among the recent arrivals at the Arlington hotel of Santa Barbara from this city.

Among the many prominent people from this city enjoining in San Diego and stopping at the U. S. Grant hotel are Mrs. Anna Autzen, Captain J. S. Frice.

Many people from this section have been visiting in Los Angeles during the past week. Among those at the Hotel Clark are Mrs. Ralph Blaisdell and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Markowitz, Mrs. S. D. Muncey, Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Munly, E. C. Griffin, C. W. Stinger, Charles J. McPherson, B. Metzger, D. F. Clarke, Thomas Autzen, Mrs. H. B. Shofner, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hale, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Quest, and Mr. and Mrs. P. Stott.

Eric V. Hauer, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Lang, this city, were at the Hotel Del Monte at Del Monte, Cal., recently.

Captain Alfred Hekford and Lieutenant Robert W. Hoffman returned yesterday from Bend, Or., where they were house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry K. Brode.

Messages of cheer and sympathy are being sent from Exorlanders to Walter S. Martin, a clubman and business man of San Francisco, who recently was stricken with appendicitis. He is recovering rapidly from the necessary operation, at one of the San Francisco hospitals. Mr. Martin, who has frequently visited in Portland, has a number of friends in this city.

Mrs. Ralph W. Hoyt and daughter Louise, who have been in California on an extended trip, visiting in San Francisco at the H. M. A. Miller home, and in points in the southern part of the state, are due to reach Portland tomorrow evening. Miss Flora Miller arrived here Friday evening for a visit with Miss Kathryn Hoyt, with whom she went to school. Miss Miller's fiancée, Francis Langton, also is a visitor in Portland.

Liberty assembly No. 525, United Artisans, Wednesday last at the East Side Woodmen hall pulled off the biggest initiation that any club assembly has pulled off in the city. The names of 52 applications for membership in this live wire organization were read and 40 of them were desired to get better acquainted with the coat attended and were duly initiated. H. S. Hudson, the supreme master artisan, and C. L. McKenna, supreme secretary, were in attendance.

The younger element of this assembly will give its second party in the 22nd St. W. O. W. hall tomorrow night. The proceeds of this dance will be used to purchase equipment for a baseball team being organized to represent this assembly the coming season.

A pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday evening, March 15, at the home of Mrs. E. B. Strain when Rev. William Potemkin united in marriage Miss Naomi Lee Barrett and Carl Herbert Halum. The bride was attended by Miss Esther Pielle and Robert Waterman was best man. The bride wore a gown of white crepe de chine and Pantages.

ALL the gorgeous colorings and poster-like atmosphere of the girls who populate the covers of the magazines, a dozen of pretty maids disport themselves amiably and nimbly in "The Magazine Girls," the headline act at Pantages, with Doc Baker, a dashing comedian and vocalist, as the bright and cheery pivot round which the gawky revolves.

Another joy forever in the act is Polly Walker, who is a beautiful girl of sparkling personality and whose graceful splendidly proportioned young body is a delight to watch as she dances her various specialties. Polly and Doc are a keen pair.

An act of headline caliber is called "At Home," in which Lulu McConnell demonstrates a comedienne quality that is reminiscent of May Irwin. Lulu is downright clever and wholesome.

Law Wilson, the variety boy, returns with his brilliant line of songs, with yodeling notes, his whistling, his fine imitation of Douglas Chaplin, his playing on the steel guitar while he vocalizes an exact replica of each note, his cleverly told dinky stories and excellent dancing. Law certainly is a variety lad, and his variety savors of the spice of vaudeville.

Tommy Van as a "stew" and Sara Vernon as a "peach" are a pair of happy folk who provide happy, snappy entertainment, singing, exchanging jokes and stepping a bit.

Mr. Sleeman is a late member of the Canadian engineers and appears in uniform. The best part of their act is an original song put on in an original way, which Mr. Sleeman wrote.

Joe Dealy and his pretty sister dance a series of attractive, graceful dances, featuring an old-fashioned cake walk admirably done.

The eighth thrilling episode of Pearl White's adventures in "The Lightning Raider" is being shown.

Chehalis Resident Dies.

CHEHALIS, Wash., March 24.—(Special.)—George W. Kendall, who for seven years past has had charge of the uptown office of the Western Union Telegraph company in Chehalis, died early today, following an attack of heart failure Saturday forenoon. Mr. Kendall was 58 years old. A widow and four daughters, one of whom is married and lives in Seattle, survive the deceased.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth" now and then—a bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists.
