Bolshevising Europe as Far West as Rhine Goal.

SOVIET RULE IS PROPOSED

Red Attack and Strike Coming Simultaneously Held Dangerous to Ebert Government.

BY ARNO DOSCH-FLEUROT.

(Copyright by the New York Werld, Pub-lished by Arrangement,) BERLAIN, March 25.—(Vis Copenhagen; Special Cable.)—The communists in Germany, acting in conjunction with the Russian boishevikl government, have fixed the middle of April as the time for the overthrow of demogracy in Germany, establishment of a soviet government in Berlin, and the complete bolshevising of Europe as far west as the Rhine. west as the Rhine.

I gain this information from a great tariety of sources. Two indications of is truth are so apparent there is no escaping the significance that the workmen's and soldiers' council has significated April 18 as the day on which to supersede the Welmar national asthly as the national legislative body The Weimar assembly has failed to play any important role, while the work-men's and soldiers' councils have the mans of the workingmen behind it.

Spartnean Element Feared.

By declaring another general strike it will give the Etert government a hard military task in the interior of the country, and as Colonel Reinhard of the famous Reinhard division said. In an interview I cabled to The World:
"Another time it will not be as easy to put down the spartacist movement."
This task will be harder on account of the other significant indication, the activities of the Russian bolshevik army. From a sure source I am informed that the recent interior changes in Russia, by which the menshivick and right social revolutionists were induced to cease fighting the Moscow government and the Czecho-Slovaks, were sent into Siberia en route home, has released the best part of the bolshevik army from other fronts, and it is concentrating against Koypo and of the other significant indication, the concentrating against Kovpo and

The present bolshevik army operat ing against Kovno numbers about 40,000. That is moving against Libau. The 15,000 troops on route will swell these forces by April 8 to 75,000 against Kovno, and 30,000 against Germany to send all her troops to de-fend the frontier there, thus making it extremely difficult for War Minister Noske to end the political strike by force, as he recently did. A bolshevik sitack and a general strike coming si-multaneously will prove a dangerous time for the Ebert government and of this the government is aware. Civilians have been forbidden to use the railways in western Russia until

Radical Teachings Spread. Reports also come from Russia that what was a growing divergence of opinon among the soviet leaders had been overcome by their united action against rmany, in the hope of setting up a lahevik government in Berlin. This would save the Bolshevik dictatorship in Russia, which recently was threat-ened again.

Libau is the point where the Moscow Libau is the point where the Moscow agents and the agents of the German communists have their headquarters. The Russian Bolshevik army, is at this moment, retreating from before Libau because it is pressed from the west and north by the Anti-Bolshevik and Baltic troops composed for the most part of landowners and Bourgoeis.

The mass of the population is inactive. With the holshevik army are the Lettish abarrahousers who formerly now opposing them cannot hold against the new troops coming from the Ukraine and Oroenburg. The fighting now going on before Libau is terrible beyond description.

Neither side is taking prisoners. As the anti-bolshevis troops advance east-ward the danger in the rear grows. The burning question in Libau is the steamer Saratoff, loaded with machine guns and munitions, which the British

British Guns Are Fenred.

If the guns are unloaded from the Saratoff, both the Lettish and antibolshevik troops regard it as certain that they will be turned against them, eventually, by the Libbus bolsheviki.

When the bolshevik reinforcements arrive Lettish resistance at Libbus will be futtle, and this rampart against bolshevism will have to be, Moscow hopes, upheld by German troops, many of whom are now policing the interior of Germany. Thus will be made easier the success of a general strike in Germany and the establishment of a soviet government.

How as army of civilians, but a few months in the uniform and gathered from all phases of life, met and whipped the lower of the German forces in the Argonne, is a bit of recent American history that Lieutenant Colin V. Dyment, A. R. C. former Portland newspaperman and dean of journalism at the University of Washington, is more than proud of. He served with the filst division, which trained at Camp Lewis, and he returned last night from overseas.

"Those cowpunchers of ours, those clerks and farmer boys—and everything," enthused Lieutenant Dyment. "Those cowpunchers of ellows who went overseas in that cosmopolitan frontier division, the fight, he pursued, "you cannot tell a man any longer that it takes specialized national military training, such as the Germans had, to make a first-rate fighting man.
