Forces Are Shifted From Residence District to Mass Attack on Downtown Section.

More than 300 new members were reported at the noonday meeting of the workers in the membership drive of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday. Captain Walter H. Evans of team No. 3 won the prize for the highest percentage of members from the list of prospects visited by his team during the preceding 24 hours. J. A. Currey of team No. 5 won the prize for the best returns the preceding day. Captains reported that the greater a full freshman team in the Portland meet. Captains reported that the greater part of the outlying territory would be finished last night, and that this morning the workers would be shifted for the mass attack on the downtown usiness district.

Owing to the fallure of many workers to get into the drive Tuesday and some lack of workers yesterday, the drive has been extended for one day, to finish tomorrow night. Volunteer workers who falled to join the forces yesterday are asked to do so this morning, reporting at room 765 Oregon building at 9 o'clock. But the captains expect to turn in a record at noon today that will make a change in the returns.
