

JUDGE LANDIS PUTS ON SENSATIONAL DRIVE

Stock Salesmen Compelled to Make Restitution of Money.

"THINK IT OVER," IS ADVICE

Consumers Packing Company Case Before Court Being Threshed Out in Unusual Way.

CHICAGO, March 26.—Judge Landis' drive to recover money for investors who bought stock of the Consumers Packing Company continued today with a sensational trial of stock salesmen and sub-salesmen in court. The judge was unusually ferocious, ironical, sarcastic, but always insistent. It didn't matter whether the agent had spent his commission—the court would accept anything that was left, or could be turned into money. He was not averse to installment payments, as in the case of John Markel, a janitor.

Markel, it appeared, was a janitor who was acquainted with a widowed waitress, one Mrs. Kate Schmidt, and as a sub-agent, Markel persuaded her to invest her savings of $1500 in the company. Judge Landis ordered the janitor-salesman to turn in the entire sum to the court on the installment plan, as Markel had no money.

"Think it over," said the judge. "Max Newman, who obtained $1400 by the sale of stock, offered to restore this sum, minus his expenses. "You go off by yourself and think it over," said the judge. "We want all of the money."

Two other salesmen were sent to similar cogitations by the court. It was not long before the judge had dozen salesmen in an asterisk "thinking it over."

Philip Goldberg's haste to make restitution aroused spectators. He paid $1400 yesterday and rushed into court today.

"How much more do I owe?" he asked feverishly. He was told, wrote a check for $100 with a pen that fairly flew, and then rushed from the room.

No Compromise Considered.

Hyman W. Wolf, whose commissions amounted to $512, wanted to compromise with the court.

"What property have you, anyway," asked the judge.

"I have only $250 cash, $150 in history books and $125 in street stamps. It's all I have," pleaded the salesman.

"Why goodness gracious, that's more than I've got," said the court. "Sit down and think it over. We want it all."

Julius H. Zar had spent what he made in commissions and was out of work, he explained to the court.

"Some of you fellows are fixing for the grand jury and you'll have to stand suit anyway," remarked Judge Landis.

"Then I'll have to stand suit," replied the witness.

BAR TO SHIPBUILDING SEEN

GRAY'S HARBOR FUTURE IS DEEMED UNCERTAIN.

Shipping Board Attitude, Labor Troubles and Foreign Market Situation Blamed.

ABERDEEN, Wash., March 26.—(Special.)—While the decision of the government shipping board to bring its wooden shipbuilding definitely to a halt does not affect present conditions in Grays Harbor shipyards, which will continue work on uncompleted contracts, the future status of the yard here is uncertain owing, according to W. J. Patterson of the Grays Harbor Motorship corporation, first, to the attitude of the shipping board toward the industry; second, to labor disturbances in the Pacific northwest, and, third, to the foreign market situation.

The motorship corporation, according to M. R. Ward, manager, has work ahead to last until fall. The company has 11 ships on the ways and in the water. Of those even, will be completed steamships and four will be completed as hulls only.

"Shipbuilding yards have been greatly injured," said Mr. Patterson today, "by the policy of the shipping board in denying them the right to obtain foreign contracts as soon as the cessation of government work was certain. At that time any amount of foreign business could have been signed up, enough at the motorship yard, for instance, to run that plant for two or three years. At present foreign buyers are looking for bargains in government hulls and are chary of ordering ships built to order. They believe that many of the vessels which the shipping board has contracted for will soon be sold at low figures. The result is the worst complete stagnation of the wooden ship market."

"Labor troubles in the northwest were very damaging to yards on this coast," added Mr. Patterson. "No sooner had strikes been called in yards here and the ground than the shipping board began a sweeping campaign of cancellation, minimizing as far as possible the work which the yards still had to do for the government."

ARMY WANTS RECRUITS

Many Enlistments Expected Because of Short-Term Service.

With the new short-term enlistment periods in effect, Colonel E. A. Kephart of the local army recruiting office is anticipating a large number of applications for army service. The office, which has recently been reopened, is located in the Worcester building at Third and Oak streets.

Men having previous military training are accepted for an enlistment of one year's duration. Men without training must enlist for three years, but they have the privilege of applying for discharge after one year's service. If discharged, they will not be held in the reserve corps—under the new ruling as interpreted by Colonel Kephart.

All branches of the service are open to recruits. These include the coast artillery, field artillery, infantry, cavalry and air service.

Copies of discharges to be sent to Washington to obtain the $20 bonus are being made by men in the recruiting office, according to Colonel Kephart, whose assistant is Lieutenant-Colonel C. R. Bennett.

SELLWOOD DISTRICT TOPS

Victory for Oregon Baptist Assured in State Reports.

Victory for Oregon Baptists in their victory campaign movement is assured in early reports received from various parts of the state, according to State Director Harry K. Hallgren. A large number of the churches did not start the financial drive last Sunday, so the statistics are not complete.

Bethany Baptist church in the Sellwood district holds the record for the state at present. They were apportioned $200 by the committee. Wednesday they raised $445. Their goal now is $1000. White Temple, under the leadership of Grant Phegley, last Sunday raised $2900 of their $3500 apportionment. Calvary Baptist church raised $360.

Eugene Baptists are optimistic because one of their members gave $200 to the cause. Other cities in the state report the following amounts: Albany, $170; Roseburg, $193; Baker, $611; McMinnville, $890; and Gladstone, $110.

MEAT EXAMINATION RIGID

City Slaughterhouses Seek Protection From Country Shippers.

Rigid examination of all carcasses shipped into Portland for human consumption, through an amendment to the present meat inspection ordinance, was requested by a committee representing the slaughter-houses of the city, who appeared before the City Council yesterday.

City Commissioner Mann explained that the committee was anxious that the meat inspection ordinance be amended so that it would be unlawful to ship carcasses into the city bereft of such organs as the heart, lungs and liver, without which it is impossible to learn if the animal was diseased before being killed.

GENERAL DIRECTIONS TO AMATEUR GARDENERS.

Don't cultivate or tramp over the garden when the ground is wet or sticky.

Cultivate or hoe between the rows often. This keeps the weeds down and makes fine vegetables.

Square up the small beds and keep the paths smooth and clean.

This will make your garden neat and attractive.

Keep your hoe and other tools clean and bright. A successful gardener has a sharp hoe and a bright spade.

Hoe the weeds in the morning and the sun will kill the roots.

Water in the evening always.

A good soaking occasionally is better than a light sprinkling every day.

Even cultivation will take the place of water if it is scarce.

Water that has stood in a tub or barrel all day is much better for the plants than the cold mountain water from the hose.

JAPANESE TO PAY VISIT

Prominent ex-Official to Reach Honolulu in April.

HONOLULU, T. H., March 26.—(Special.)—The men prominent in the political life of Japan, now on their way across the Pacific, will reach the coast early in April. Yukio Ozaki, former minister of justice and leader in the Kenseika party opposed to the present ministry, is one of those aboard the Shinyo Maru. He is accompanied by his son, Yukitaru Ozaki, an aviator; K. Mochizuki, member of the Japanese diet, and D. Tagawa, former assistant mayor of Tokyo.

Other distinguished passengers are Shuyo Matsui, one of the leading novelists and playwrights of Nippon, and Ennosuke Ichikawa, one of the best-known Japanese actors.

BRITAIN TO STAY PREPARED

No Reduction in Army and Navy Estimates to Be Made.

LONDON, March 25.—In the House of Lords tonight Viscount Milner, secretary of the colonies, said the country was still far from a well-established peace, therefore, he declared, the army and navy estimates could not be reduced.

WOMAN DIES FROM BURNS

Mrs. Elizabeth Krueger Uses Kerosene to Start Fire.

SALEM, Or., March 26.—(Special.)—Mrs. Elizabeth Krueger, a widow aged 33, died shortly after noon today from injuries received this morning when a can of kerosene exploded as she was attempting to start a fire in the kitchen of her home here.

She leaves a daughter, aged 12, and a father and mother, who were visiting with her from Spokane at the time she was burned. The burial will take place Friday afternoon.

Big Grazing Area Designated.

YAKIMA, Wash., March 26.—(Special.)—Official announcement was received yesterday by the Yakima land office that the secretary of the interior had designated 62,750 acres in this land district as grazing land. The order affects directly about 100 pending claims for entries on land of this character.

Don't Entertain Disease In Your Business

Though they be of the finest hardwood and embellished with the richest rugs, your office floors are covered all the time with millions of disease germs—unless these floors are systematically disinfected with a dependable germicide.

Through the windows, in the dusty breeze, on the shoes of your visitors, your employees and yourself they come—unseen and unthought of, undisturbed. They lodge, breed, and carry on their malignant work of disease and death.

will go a long, long way in preventing those epidemic-like waves of sickness from sweeping through your establishment.

Sprinkle Lysol solution on your rugs—it won't harm them in any way. Mop your floors often with water containing Lysol. Keep Lysol solution always in every cuspidor. Make Lysol your toilet-room disinfectant.

A 50c bottle makes 5 gallons of powerful disinfectant; a 25c bottle makes 2 gallons. For factories and large institutions use Lysol F & F—unrefined Lysol.

Lysol Toilet Soap
Contains Lysol, and therefore protects the skin from germ infection. It is refreshingly soothing and healing and helpful for improving the skin. Ask your dealer. If he hasn't it, ask him to order it for you.

Lysol Shaving Cream
Contains Lysol, and kills germs on razor and shaving-brush (where germs abound), guards the tiny cuts from infection and gives the antiseptic shave. If your dealer hasn't it, ask him to order a supply for you.

Dandruff Surely Destroys the Hair

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't.

It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy never fails.—Adv.

ABLE TO DO A MAN'S WORK NOW

Actually Enjoys Splitting Wood Since Tanlac Built Her Up. Gains 20 Pounds.

"I was barely able to drag one foot after the other when I started taking Tanlac, but now I am able to walk five or six miles without being tired out," said Mrs. Albina Martell, who has lived in Spokane for the past twenty-eight years and is the owner of the well-known Greeneyes ranch, as well as other valuable property in Spokane.

"About a year ago," she continued, "I had a serious operation performed, and it left me almost prostrated and nothing I could do seemed to bring back my health and strength. I was very much worried, as I could not attend to the work on the farm as it ought to have been done. I had an awful pain in my back that hurt me so much that I could not even turn over in bed and there were days at a time when I could not get around at all. A friend of mine who saw my deplorable condition recommended Tanlac to me because it had done her so much good when she was weak and run-down."

"I hadn't been taking the medicine hardly anytime before the pain in my back was gone entirely and I was able to do lots of the work on the farm. Now I am so strong that I enjoy splitting wood with an eight-pound sled and steel wedges. I have a fine appetite, digest perfectly everything I eat, and at night sleep like a child. I have gained twenty pounds in weight since Tanlac built me up, and I have added this weight in spite of the fact that I have been working hard, even doing what is considered man's work. I had so much trouble from my disordered stomach that it seems to me there are no words that will express the relief I feel, now that I know I'm all right again. I am so well that I don't need any more medicine, but I have bought two bottles for my daughters, considering their work up in the same way it did me. I just think that Tanlac must be the grandest medicine in the world for people who need something to tone up their systems and give them strength."

Tanlac is sold in Portland by the Owl Drug Co.—Adv.

"BALMWORT" FOR RHEUMATISM

Mr. J. M. Hunter, Longmont, Colo., writes: "I have been taking Balmwort Kidney Tablets for my rheumatism and find they help me more than anything I ever took," etc. Some forms of rheumatism are caused by failure of the kidneys to secrete and throw off the waste and poisons of the body. If kidneys and bladder are not doing their full duty, Balmwort Kidney Tablets will thoroughly revive their activity. Sold by all druggists.—Adv.
