PRESENT CHANGE OPPOSED

Oregon Association Turns Guns on Expensive System of Titles in Obtaining Loans.

With the adoption of resolutions and a petition to congress whichembody an expression orf the things for which the conference was called, the Oregon State Association of Farm Loan adjourned after two days of discussions of the many problems confronting the members of the different associations and of desired reforms in the farm loan act.

The petition to congress asks that body, in view of constant efforts by home interests, to have congress place a fax on farm lean bonds, to vote against any law that will in any way tax the loans. The petition asks that to changes be made at present in the farm loan act, and that no effort be AN—3 EUGENE, Or., April 4 .-- ((Special.)tax the loans. The petition asks that no changes be made at present in the farm Joan act, and that no effort be made to abolish the farm loan associations, which are declared to be the atrength and stability of the system. Changes at the present time would be an unwise experiment, it is pointed out.

Selling Campaign Requested.

to join in a vigorous campaign to sell farm loan bonds of this district, favorto join in a vigorous campaign to sell farm loan bonds of this district, favoring hearty co-operation between the farm loan association appraisers and the federal land bank of the district, that credit may be given to all worthy farmers and all returning soldiers, sallors and workmen desiring to take up agriculture, horticulture and stock raising. It is asked that attention be calle dto the present expensive system of titles for members securing loans in this state, and aska the law committee of the association to make a study of the matter to the end that some better an dless expensive method of guaranteing titles may be recommended by the law committee to be considred by the board of directors of the association. If the plan is approved by the heard it is to be presented to the next state or group meetings. Officers Are Elected.

D. G. O'Shea, president of the Federal Farm Loan bank at Spokane, today ex-plained the farm loan system in detail and answered hundreds of questions and answere hunted of questions asked by delegates.

Charles M. Emery of Eugene was elected president of the association; A. W. Stone of Medford, vice-president, and W. A. Ayers of Eugene secretary. The directors are the president, vice-resident and the following: L. B. Brit-ton of Boyd, D. B. Cooley of Hillaboro, H. J. Kaufmann of McMinoville, K. L. Weekley of Gravel Ford, George Hardie

The constitution and bylaws provide The constitution and bylaws product that annual meetings of the association shall be held on the fourth Tuesday in each January and the directors are to select the meeting place.

TEACHERS TO SEEK RISE

Agitation for Higher Salaries to Be Launched in Tacoma.

TACOMA, Wash., April 4.—(Special.)

Dr. A. E. Winship, editor of the New England Journal of Education, Roston, will initiate a coastwise movement for higher salaries in Tacoma tomorrow, He will speak before 100 school directory of the second to the secon He will speak before 100 school direc-tors, representing every district of Pierce county. The agitation started here will be carried to other cities of the coast where teachers say that they are not receiving sufficient salary. When Tacoma teachers made their first request for an increase they were rebuffed by the board. The stir it arcused caused the school directors to make an offer to reconsider.
