

SOLDIERS TO LEAVE COBLEZ TOMORROW

42d Division Men Ready to Start for Home.

GERMANS REPORTED SULKY

Enmity of Civilians Toward Americans in Occupied Area Appears to Be Steadily Growing.

COBLEZ, April 3.—(By the Associated Press.)—The 42d division is all packed up and waiting the final order to leave for home.

Official cognitions have been taken by the 3d army of the increased spirit of enmity shown by civilians against Americans in the occupied area.

There is considerable feeling against our strict enforcement of the civilian circulation regulations.

This is especially so with reference to the circulation on the left bank of the Rhine between the several occupied territories.

Regarding bolshevism and the opinions of civilians in the occupied area, the summary says:

The general idea is that bolshevism will die of its own accord, and satisfaction is expressed that it cannot make headway in the American zone.

Representative Julius Kahn of California arrived in Coblenz this morning after having visited the battlefields.

Other congressmen who arrived during the day were Hutton W. Summers, of Texas; Addison C. Johnson, of Iowa; Ramsay, of Iowa; and Wm. W. Hastings, of Oklahoma.

Representative James P. Glynn, Connecticut; Ladislav Lazarski, Louisiana; Burton L. French, Idaho; William A. Ashbrook, Ohio; and Wm. R. Green, Iowa.

BRITISH LABOR IS HOPEFUL

WORK OF INDUSTRIAL CONFERENCE HELD SUCCESS.

Full Agreement With Employers is Counted Assured—Numerous Reforms are Expected.

LONDON, April 4.—An optimistic view of the work of the industrial conference, comprising representatives of the employers and the trade unions of the United Kingdom, was expressed at a joint meeting of the body today.

The secret report, it is understood, recommended the following immediate reforms:

A 48-hour week with a scale of minimum wages to be applied universally. Trade boards for organized trades. The wages and hours recognized and agreed on by the trade unions and the employers to be applied to all other workers and employers.

Trade conferences to be held on future war bonuses, the maintenance of the unemployed and old age pensions.

WILSON ILL WITH BAD COLD

President Wilson. First it is not that the president had been under a terrific strain, but that his usual amount of exercise, his illness would be the cause of little worry.

Wilson Takes Little Rest. Since his return the president's work has been enormous, and he has been unable to secure more than an occasional walk at odd intervals either with Mrs. Wilson or Rear-Admiral Grayson.

Quiet and Rest Prescribed. Rear-Admiral Grayson is always near the president. His treatment for the patient consists of the requirement of absolute quiet and rest.

The president's appetite today was good, but at luncheon he was limited to oyster soup and a light entrée.

The American executive, however, is sick enough to be unable to read. He appears to be quite content to rest and sleep lightly from time to time.

After the forenoon session of the council today the members, on departing, renewed their wishes for the rapid recovery of President Wilson.

King Albert of Belgium. King Albert of Belgium, who met with the council of four at its morning session, sent to the president an official expression of regret at his indisposition.

When the king talked with the president yesterday, the president appeared to be well. The president himself did not appear to feel a warning of the approaching illness. It was during the latter part of his meeting with Premiers Clemenceau and Lloyd George that the cold developed.

The president's voice began to grow hoarse enough to cause comment from the premiers before the adjournment of the council.

After 4 o'clock the president's condition became such that he could scarcely talk. Dr. Grayson saw him immediately after the conference adjourned and ordered him to bed.

News is Kept Quiet. Members of the president's household, his friends and newspaper correspondents, were advised of his condition, but in the hope that a night's rest would bring definite improvement, the correspondents were requested not to make public what was regarded as only a slight indisposition.

With E. M. House in the place of President Wilson, the premiers met the afternoon at the war office, but agreed to meet tomorrow at the president's house for the purpose of consulting him, if his condition has sufficiently improved, should a question arise to make it necessary.

The illness of President Wilson has caused numerous wild rumors to circulate in the city and even the dignitaries themselves are immune. Mr. House had heard that the president was laid down with a case of influenza, but Rear-Admiral Grayson personally assured both him and the premiers that Mr. Wilson merely had a bad cold.

He warned them, however, that the utmost care must be exercised to prevent it from getting worse.

Wilson Told of Proceedings. Informally the proceedings of the council were related to the president. King Albert of Belgium, who presented his country's case to the council today, made an excellent impression, but it is understood to have been given no prominence. The Czech-Slovak question was again discussed today, as was reparation.

The council resolved, for the sake of facilitating its work, that the decisions of the various commissions be reported directly to those engaged in drafting the treaty. Mr. House at the close of the day was pleased with the progress made and Captain Andre Tardieu of the French delegation also expressed satisfaction.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—President Wilson is confined to his bed in Paris with a severe cold.

GERMAN SPARTACANS' GREAT OFFENSIVE ON

Death Grapple of Factions Expected This Month.

GOVERNMENT IS WEAKENED

Ebert Party is Acting With Show of Energy, But is Handicapped in Task of Restoring Order.

(Copyright by the New York World. Published by Arrangement.)

BERLIN, April 3.—(Via Copenhagen, April 4.)—The Spartacists have begun their greatest offensive against the government today.

The most active and the principal theater of war today is the Westphalian region. The spiritual leader and chief strategist of the coal strike there is a Russian bolshevik, Dr. Karak, who is conducting the strike in the so-called commission of nine which is directing the strike from headquarters at Essen.

Dr. Karak is injecting all the latest novelties in Russian bolshevik tactics into the new movement. The strike is purely political, its goal being to compass the restoration of order and to establish a bolshevik strike organization.

It is believed that the majority of the miners are opposed to the strike, but they have been terrorized into striking by the armed Spartacist minority. The first day saw 55 mines at a standstill and 50,000 strikers out.

Government's Test Coming. The decisive question today is, can the government's solitary strong man, the war minister, localize the conflict and prevent the strike from spreading and causing wide conflagration?

The Ebert government is acting with a show of energy. It has issued the usual proclamation to the strikers, ordering martial law, and is rushing the still loyal white guards into the strike region.

The government's one strategic novelty is the threat to import troops from order in the Rheinisch-Westphalian theater by a simultaneous outbreak and hunger revolt in Frankfurt, where the strike is in progress.

Three civilians, the lynching of a sailor whose body was thrown into the river Main, the burning of a prison, the murder of a prisoner, and the storming of many food shops and a hotel, the Frankfurter Hof, by a famished mob.

Stuttgart Trouble Center. An even more serious trouble center is Stuttgart, where a political and general strike concretely aim to bring about new elections by the soldiers and workers.

Stuttgart is now cut off from telegraph and telephone communication, according to the World correspondent. The socialist reports say that Bavaria will be heard from soon and that a fresh outbreak of bolshevik terror is breaking there.

Berlin sits in quietude. The government has saved the situation temporarily, but only by showing weakness and backing down by ordering the release from jail of Lenin's associates.

An ultimatum served on the government by the executive committee of the workers' councils. Encouraged by this success, the Spartacists and independent socialist allies are certain to continue their attacks on the government, employing the same tactics, the use of ultimatums.

ing of Belgium from the entente standpoint. The correspondent has just returned from an extended trip in Belgium.

Everywhere he found manufacturers complaining of the situation arising from the fact that while the Americans and British permit exportation into Belgium of manufactured articles, they thus far have failed to export into Belgium raw materials which would permit of industries resuming work.

The promised limitation of German armaments has at present for the Germans largely an academic interest as the dependable forces which the state and private enterprise have been able to raise by an incessant advertising campaign and offers of good pay and bonuses to volunteers do not reach the lowest figures mentioned in reports as to the size of the army to be allowed Germany by the peace conference.

According to the latest advices from German sources, the socialists, in addition, retain their old objections to militarism and are not enthusiastic about even the proposed popular militia on the Swiss model.

An exception to the general socialist attitude, however, is furnished by the socialist war minister, Gustav Noske, who has expressed the opinion that the lowest figures mentioned in reports as to the size of the army to be allowed Germany by the peace conference, according to the latest advices from German sources, the socialists, in addition, retain their old objections to militarism and are not enthusiastic about even the proposed popular militia on the Swiss model.

REV. J. R. N. BELL HONORED

VETERAN PASTOR EMERITUS OF FIRST PRESBYTERIAN.

Preacher Has Longest Masonic Grand Chaplain Service Record in the World.

CORVALLIS, Or., April 4.—(Special.)—Dr. J. R. N. Bell of this city was elected last night pastor emeritus of the First Presbyterian church of this city.

He came to Corvallis in 1881 as a minister of the Methodist church, and then changed his allegiance to the Presbyterian church in 1881. He was pastor of a church at Roseburg for a time, where he also was editor and publisher of Roseburg News. As a newspaperman he founded the Oregon Compendium, which later changed its name to the Oregon-Sage. Journal.

He served the Presbyterian churches of Baker and at Portland and returned to Corvallis as pastor of the First Presbyterian church in 1907, resigning in 1914.

He is grand chaplain of the grand Masonic lodge of Oregon and has the longest grand chaplain service record in the world. He was at one time a regent of Oregon Agricultural College. The position of pastor emeritus is rare.

German Seeks Citizenship. DALLAS, Or., April 4.—(Special.)—Ernest Zieselsch, a resident of the Parker section, who, before coming to this country, was a subject of the ex-Kaiser of Germany, has filed his petition for final naturalization papers in the circuit court for Polk county.

Mr. Zieselsch came to the United States in 1889 and for a number of years has made his home in this country.

Negro Slayer Surrenders. LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 4.—Jim Cameron, a heavyweight negro pugilist, gave himself into custody while police-men were searching for him in connection with the slaying today of E. D. Bly, also colored, at Vernon, a suburb.

The police said Cameron admitted the killing, but asserted he did so in self-defense.

PARIS, April 4.—The aspirations of Denmark are regarded favorably by the peace conference, The Mattin says. Indications are that Denmark will recover the part of Schleswig-Holstein which she desires.

LOYD GEORGE DENIES RUMOR

British Premier Says England and France Will Always Be Friends.

PARIS, April 4.—Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain in a statement to the Petit Parisien today denies the report, generally prevalent, that he is an obstinate opponent of the guarantees asked by France against a renewed attack by Germany.

"Do you seriously think that we can ever exist between our two countries?" "There has been some discussion, but it is not from ostensible discussion that a final agreement must emerge between France and England? Our understanding has remained complete and absolute."

Englandmen did not come to fight by the side of the French to give our country merely relative security during a limited period. No, they mean France to have absolute security in the future.

"You know what sacrifices England has made and you know well that England does not regret them. She is ready to make any sacrifice if it becomes necessary to guarantee the peace and independence of France."

"I have seen the scourge of war twice in my life, and I know Germany," the premier told the Petit Parisien. "We do not intend that there shall be a third time and should it be 50 years hence France again will find England by her side with all her wealth and power, for, mark well my words, the wild beast must be mastered."

SENATOR MUCH DISTURBED

CALAMITY IS COMING, SAYS JOHNSON OF CALIFORNIA.

WASHINGTON, April 4.—Urging that Americans awake to the problems confronting the country, Senator Johnson of California, in a statement issued tonight, declares: "We've been afflicted with mental far-sightedness since the signing of the armistice, and unable to see and care for the ills and problems of our own."

"Our demobilized soldiers ask only justice and work, and get neither," declared his statement. "Our ordinary business lags, and because of the government's inactivity or indifference cannot resume its normal conditions; unemployment increases daily and foreign agitators play upon distress and discontent."

"We are under the spell of a world generalism, no conscious of what is happening about us, and our computing government hovers around European capitals, basking in the sunlight of foreign adulation. The president is in Paris; the secretary of state is in Rome; the secretary of the navy in Italy; the secretary of war on his way to Europe; the interior department is scattered east and west and north and south in Europe—there's nobody home in America."

"I have seen the scourge of war twice in my life, and I know Germany," the premier told the Petit Parisien. "We do not intend that there shall be a third time and should it be 50 years hence France again will find England by her side with all her wealth and power, for, mark well my words, the wild beast must be mastered."

VENICE, CAL., HAS AIR 'COP'

Aviator Joins Force to Chase Speedsters and Stop Smuggling.

VENICE, Cal., April 4.—This beach resort officially makes claim to having the first aerial policeman in America. Otto Meyerhofer, a local aviator, was yesterday sworn in as a member of the Venice police.

The aviator donated to the use of the city one of his airplanes, on the bottom of which he found white letters against a dark green background, was painted the words "Venice Police."

"The new air policeman," said Mayor A. C. Colton, "will appear in automobiles, investigate reports of smuggling, inspect the bay in search of violators of fishing regulations and help rescue drowning persons."

COAL ADVANCE Held Justified.

HARRISBURG, Pa., April 4.—Governor Sprout tonight issued a statement declaring that, as a result of his study of the anthracite situation in Pennsylvania, including the wage proposition, he appears to believe that under conditions, he had concluded "that the action of the producers in announcing a gradual increase of 10 cents a ton, effective five months beginning May 1, is justified."

Boy Murderer Pleads Guilty. PENDLETON, Or., April 4.—(Special.)—Harry Samuels, youthful slayer of Omar Olinger, Milton farmer, today entered a plea of guilty to murder in the second degree. He appears unconcerned as he waited for sentence. He was remanded to the custody of the sheriff until Monday, when he will receive sentence. Samuels was one of seven indicted by the grand jury this term.

Logging Train's Plunge Due to Slippery Rails, It is Said. ABERDEEN, Wash., April 4.—(Special.)—The accident near Melbourne yesterday, in which George Clemons, superintendent of the Clemons Logging company, and four others lost their lives and three others were seriously injured, is believed to have resulted from a combination of slippery rails and failure of hand-brakes to take hold.

Alex. Lempi, the brakeman who jumped from the train when he saw the crash was inevitable, said today that the train went down the first two grades smoothly, the brakes holding; but when the 9 per cent grade was struck everything seemed to go to pieces. The brakes seemed to have no effect. After setting them and seeing the result, he signaled Clemons to jump, but Clemons did not jump. Lempi jumped and ran for aid.

Assembly Hits at "Soft Drink." SACRAMENTO, Cal., April 4.—The assembly of the California legislature today passed a bill to prohibit the sale of a "soft drink" which, the measure stated, contained a habit-forming drug.
