Hungarians and Czechs Clash in Bloody Battle—Soviet Government Is Reported.

VIENNA, April 9.—(By the Associated Press.)—Among the prominent Hungarians arrested by the communist government in Budapest are Joseph Stejny, former minister of commerce; Herr von Surmay, former food minister; and Herr Leo Lancy, one of the leading financiers of the old empire and a trusted adviser of the late Emperor Francis Joseph.

Baron Hassall, former minister of justice, and Dr. Julius Wlassics, once a leading member of the house of magnates, also are under arrest.

Archduke Joseph Francis, son of Archduke Joseph, formerly the representative of the Emperor in Budapest, has been interned.

Violent fighting has taken place between Hungarians and Czechs at Ungvar, near the Moravian-Hungarian border, says a Central News dispatch from Amsterdam today.

Many Hungarians Killed. One hundred and fifty Hungarians were killed. The Czechs also had considerable losses.

Two hundred German-Austrian volunteers for the Hungarian communist army have arrived in the Hungarian capital from Budapest says a dispatch from Budapest today.

More Austrians are expected, General command of the Hungarian red army will commence Sunday.

The proclamation of a soviet republic in Salzburg, Austria, is reported in an Amsterdam dispatch today to the Central News.

Salzburg is near the Bavarian border.

Socialist Rule Favored. BERNE, Switzerland, April 10.—The conference of soldiers' councils of German-Austria which met in Vienna Monday decided against the establishment of a soviet republic in Austria and in favor of a socialist government.

BERLIN, April 9, via Copenhagen, April 5.—The arrival in Munich of Beta Kun, the bolshevik dictator of Hungary, with a large staff, is believed to be the signal for an imminent proclamation of a soviet republic in Bavaria.

From the bolshevik standpoint, the psychological moment for a coup d'etat in Bavaria has arrived since the general strike in Stuttgart and the disorders throughout Wurttemberg form an ideal bridge of bolshevism, joining Bavaria to the Spartacist hotbed of the Rhenish Westphalian industry region.

Representative at Marshfield. MARSHFIELD, Or., April 10.—(Special.)—Representative Hawley spoke tonight in the Orpheum theater and was afterwards entertained at the Millicoma club with a smoker.

The congressman had been at other cities in the county, where he spent four days. His talk was political and reviewed the war in detail.

Mrs. Hawley, who is touring with her husband, will be entertained by the women's club tomorrow afternoon.

MONROE DOCTRINE O. K'D. Conference has received a telegram from ... saying that the American population there is threatened.

HUSBAND AND WIFE IN RACE. (Continued From First Page.) me and, as I have represented Mrs. Mannion in all prior proceedings, I cannot understand why I have not been notified, previously, as the Mannion has had no knowledge of the motion, either," said Mr. Royal.

The attorney would not confirm the report that Mrs. Mannion was on her way to the Philippines, but did not make any direct denial.

Mr. Royal asserted that the only legal action against Mrs. Mannion that he knew anything about was an action filed in the district court a few days ago by the son, Joseph, seeking to attach her household property, due to an alleged refusal to turn over two liberty bonds valued at $200, the son asserted his mother had been holding for him.

Mrs. Mannion is said to be a very attractive woman. Captain Mannion met her while in the army of occupation in the Philippines and later married her. She is believed to have been of pure Castilian blood and of a family of noble Spanish. They were married in Manila, May 14, 1902.

Captain Mannion was a lieutenant of regulars at the taking of Manila, where he served with distinction. After the occupation of the city he was ordered to inland service and went through much of the bitter jungle fighting, when the American troops were chasing the agile "Aguilas." Two years later he returned to Manila, left the service and was appointed chief buyer of the bureau of supplies of the Philippine government. It was then that he met and married the young Spanish woman.

At the outbreak of the recent war Captain Mannion applied for a commission and sailed with his family for America, coming to Portland. He was commissioned a captain in the ordnance reserve corps and was assigned to overseas duty, an order which was countermanded while he was at the port of embarkation at Hoboken.

Captain Mannion's absence in the east that his domestic difficulties multiplied, it is said, leading directly to the action for divorce instituted by Mrs. Mannion. Friends of the husband allege that former friends and acquaintances of the late Captain Mannion and incited her to leave him.

Messenger's Delay Costly. One peculiar quirk of the story, according to a close friend of Captain Mannion, is that a message to San Francisco police, sent to head of Mrs. Mannion in her flight with the children, was not delivered in time, though it arrived before the sailing of the boat. This friend alleges that the messenger boy was found enthralled by and alley crap game, while the husband thousands of miles of pursuit was crumpled in his cap.

Captain Mannion filed a demurrer to the divorce action of his wife, but when that was overruled by Judge Morrow, did not contest the proceedings. Mrs. Mannion declared in this suit that her husband was dictatorial, domineering and severe, so harsh in his treatment of her that she could no longer live with him. She accused him of influencing his eldest son, Joseph, against her, so that the boy would not obey her or assist her about the house. She asked only the custody of the younger children.

Mexican Palms Scarce. JUNEAU, Mex.—Yucca blades supplant palm leaves in the Palm Sunday observance at the old mission here. Palms are difficult to obtain because of the interrupted rail communications to the south, from which place the palms were sent in the past. Instead the Indians go to the mountains and cut great shocks of the long, sharply pointed yucca blades and these are blessed by the priest and given to the congregation on Palm Sunday.

"Full justice and complete reparation; that is what France wants." Under this caption, the Petit Parisien, the most widely circulated newspaper in France, prints today an article by Senator Henry Cheron, declaring that an essential principle of common law in all civilized countries is that a person causing damage must make it good, and arguing that similarly Germany must pay not only for the damage she caused and the pensions of war sufferers, but must eventually bear the cost of the war.

"Any solution contrary to this would perpetuate the most odious injustice in history and in addition would involve our ruin.

Guarantees Are Demanded. "In addition to pecuniary reparations, continues the writer, there is moral reparation. It is true that there are voices raised against the infliction of a judicial penalty upon the author of the death of so many millions of human beings, but must eventually demand guarantees against the renewal of the crime."

LUMBERMEN WIN VICTORY

CUBICAL CONTENT MINIMA TO BE CANCELED. Application of Rules Suggested by National Manufacturers Association Now Recommended.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—The practice of maintaining cubical capacity minima in connection with interstate rates on lumber from the Pacific northwest and inland points while flat minima are maintained from competing territory, was held to be unduly prejudicial to western interests in a tentative decision today by an executive committee of the lumbermen of Washington and Oregon, but the railroad sought to justify it on the ground of car space economy.

While lumbermen are maintaining the status quo, the flr and pine manufacturers of the northwest were usually obliged to justify their higher rates to reach the cubical capacity minimum.
