UNIT HAS EXCELLENT RECORD Between 8000 and 9000 Patients Are Cared for During Service.

While base hospital 46 was never crowded to the limit in taking care of American doughboys disabled at the front, it made a proud record during its eight months of active service in caring for between 8000 and 9000 patients. The hospital was splendidly equipped and won commendation for the proficiency with which it was managed.

It was stationed at Bazolles, France, overlooking the Meuse. It arrived there in June 1918 and ceased its activities and moved toward the embarkation port a month ago. It was officially listed for convoy on date of March 15. The unit was organized in Portland under direction of Lieutenant-Colonel (then Major) Robert C. Yennoy, who has remained commander during its entire career. A majority of the officers and enlisted personnel were Oregon boys and most of the nurses volunteered from Portland and nearby points. Rounding out the personnel were a goodly number of Washington state volunteers.

At least four of the officers and a few of the men have been returned home. A few more of the unit, detailed to serve with other contingents before the hospital left Bazolles. The returned officers include Major Thomas M. Joyce, Major W. E. Knox, Major Robert L. Benson and Lieutenant Karl P. Moran. Captain Lawrence Selling was reported to have left France in advance of the unit.

Clarence S. Jacobson Leaves Bulk of Property to Widow. Clarence S. Jacobson, one of the managers of Neustadter Bros., who died in Portland March 18, 1918, left an estate valued at $107,597.88, according to the petition for probate of will filed in the county court yesterday by the widow, Mrs. Dorothy H. Jacobson. With the exception of $20,000 bequeathed to his mother, Mrs. Yetta Jacobson, the widow is the sole heir.

Two sisters, Harriett and Angie Jacobson, were named as beneficiaries, in case the mother was not living, in the sum of $10,000 each. The will was drawn September 25, 1917. The will was admitted to probate by Judge Taylor and the widow appointed executor. The property includes 85 shares of the capital stock of Neustadter Bros., valued at $85,000; a life insurance policy for $19,000, and a $12,597.88 in cash.

WASHINGTON, April 11.—Approximately 1800 officers and men will be engaged under Rear-Admiral Strauss in the dangerous task of removing the 37,000 mines which American naval forces laid in the North Sea anti-submarine barrage. Two of the mine sweepers are in British waters, 12 are en route there and the remaining four will sail from Boston next Tuesday.

TWO WILLS IN CONFLICT

Invalid Bequeaths Estate to Friend, Then to Lake Whatcom Home. TACOMA, Wash., April 11.—(Special.)—Does the $7000 estate of Martha W. Preston belong to Leonora Hlatt, her friend of 14 years, or does it go to the Lake Whatcom home for the aged? When Judge E. M. Card gives his decision in the case, he will answer this question. The story of two wills was explained to the court in the argument of the contesting parties. For 14 years Leonora Hlatt cared for Martha Preston, who was an invalid and attended her with little or no remuneration, except board and lodging, according to her counsel and in appreciation Mrs. Preston made her will naming Mrs. Hlatt as beneficiary. About two weeks before Mrs. Preston died she went to the Whatcom Home, and after her death it was learned that she had made a second will giving her estate to the home.

ROME SEES BOLSHEVISM

STRIKE ENGINEERED BY SOCIALISTS GROWS WORSE. Walkout Called to Protest Against Ban on Liebknecht Demonstrations.

BY BEATRICE BASKERVILLE. (Copyright by the New York World. Published by the New York World.)

ROME, April 11.—(Special cable.)—Rome's first political strike engineered by official socialists has now developed into bolshevism, lacking sympathy of the masses of the proletariat, but all labor is adhering because "we must obey though we disagree."

Turati, a shining light of the socialists, when interviewed, said: "I know nothing about the strike, which was arranged without consulting me, nor can I foretell the consequences."

The chief organizer of the strike is Serrati, imprisoned for inciting rebellion, but recently liberated on the strength of the armistice amnesty. The strike was called by the council of labor federation as a 24-hour protest against the action of the authorities in refusing to allow the holding of a demonstration in memory of Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg. Socialists whose bolshevik tendencies are openly avowed supported the movement and it is significant that Thursday was Lenin's birthday. The real object of the promoters of the demonstration, it is asserted in some quarters, was to spread bolshevik propaganda.

TRAFFIC CLERK IS FREED

Harry Bales Acquitted on Charge of Stealing Relief Funds.

Harry C. Bales, clerk in the traffic office at police headquarters, was acquitted by a jury in the municipal court yesterday of a charge of stealing $5 from the fund for the relief of French and Belgian babies, Sergeant Eyrin and other policemen arrested Bales on the morning of January 15, and the case has been dragging along in the municipal court since that date.

The jury brought in a verdict after considering the evidence 15 minutes. The trial had developed into a legal battle and attorneys for both the state and the defendant indulged in acrimonious tilts. Bales insisted that the charge was a "frame-up." Robert Maguire, attorney for Bales, said last night that his client would not have a hearing before the civil service board to determine if he could retain his position in the police bureau.

NEWSBOY DISTURBS SLEEP

Harry Alpher Reprimanded in Court for Early Morning Cries.

Guests of the Nortonia hotel who are not early risers have joined in a protest which found vent in the juvenile court yesterday in the arrest of a newsboy who was disturbing his neighbors with his cries. Every morning at an early hour, they told Probation Officer Bailey, this boy exploded with sudden and loud cries of "downtown murders" and the defendant, completely rending the veil of sleep.

They likened his voice to that of a large gun, not a continuous roar, but one which demanded attention when it did speak. The boy was Harry Alpher. He was arrested by the police but turned over to the juvenile court because of his age.

After the matter had been presented properly to the lad he promised vehemently to ease up on the early-morning shouting and was dismissed with a reprimand.
