Simont Estate $22,500.—A. P. Simont, who died in Portland on April 12, left an estate valued at $22,500, according to the petition for letters of administration filed in the circuit court yesterday by his son, James G. Simont. Of this amount about $20,000 is in real estate. The son who filed the petition and later was granted letters of administration alleges that he believes other relatives to be Asuntli Simont, widow; Amelia Simont, daughter, and Eietta Simont, daughter. He asserts that he has not heard from his mother or sisters for more than 25 years and that he does not know if they are living or dead or whether or not his sisters are married.

Forest Supervisors in Crit.—P. T. Harris of the Okanogan national forest is in Portland for a few days. The Okanogan forest is devoted for the most part to grazing. R. S. Shelley, supervisor of the Siuslaw national forest and former deputy supervisor of the Oregon national forest, reported to the district forest offices yesterday for a detail of several days. Mr. Shelley located the Eagle creek trail while on the Oregon forest. The Siuslaw forest is recognized as producing more timber than any other forest in the district. During the last period of five years, it produced 1754 board feet of timber an acre each year.

Surf for $16,124 Fined.—That the street car which hit him was going at a high rate of speed through the fog, without sounding gong or showing headlights, is the contention of Samuel P. Widen in a suit for $16,124 damages filed against the Portland Railway, Light & Power company yesterday in the circuit court. He is a carpenter, 60 years old, and was earning $5.50 a day up to the time of the accident at Mississippi avenue and Beach street, January 24, 1919, he alleges. He received a fractured leg and other injuries.

KILLINGSWORTH'S SUED FOR $20,500.—John W. Paxton, who was run down at the corner of Williams avenue and Monroe street, on December 12, 1913, by the automobile of William Killingsworth Sr. and William Killingsworth Jr., filed suit for $20,500 damages against the Killingsworths in the circuit court yesterday. He alleges he was injured permanently.

COCHRAN LOGGER INJURED.—Two logs rolled together and crushed Martin Paul, a logger, while he was working yesterday near Cochrans. His employers sent him to Portland, where he is in Good Samaritan hospital. His injuries are serious, both his back and pelvis having been injured. Paul is 40 years old.

MYERS' AUTO FOUND.—The six-cylinder automobile of Postmaster Myers, stolen from in front of the Arlington club Monday night, was discovered yesterday by deputies of the constable's office near Ryan station, at the bottom of a 29-foot embankment, where it had evidently been ditched, purposely, after a night of joy-riding.

MILWAUKIE BOY RUNS AWAY.—G. Pattison of Milwaukie, Or., reported to the police yesterday that his son, William Austin Pattison, 17, had run away from home and had taken the family automobile with him. Mr. Pattison requested the police to detain his son if the boy fell into their hands.

BURGARS LOOT ANOTHER HOME.—Burglars broke into the home of G. R. Staysa, 1234 Moore street, during the absence of the family and stole about $225 worth of jewelry and $25 cash, according to report to the police yesterday. The loot included six gold lockets, six rings and several brooches.

Colored Water Confiscated.—George Washington, colored, was arrested Monday at the Elmer apartments, Thirteenth and Flinders streets, by Officers Schmidtke and Rudolph of the war emergency squad. He had 13 pints of colored water in his possession, labeled whiskey. He was booked for investigation and held for the government authorities. The officers said that Washington left his suitcase at

The week before Easter is the busiest time in the whole year at the clothing store—but you'll find us not too busy to give you courteous attention, not too busy to study your individual requirements, not too busy to make your call pleasant.

But if you can so arrange it, come in before the final rush. Everything for men's wear and everything right in quality, style and price. "Waist-seam" coats, new double-breasted coats; all the novelties as well as new fabrics in conventional and conservative patterns.

Ask Him Where He Will Advertise
Mr. Storekeeper, when the salesman comes in and says, "We are going to advertise these goods," ask him where his house is going to advertise.

That is advertising in the newspapers of your own city.
That is the only kind that will reach all the prospective customers for the goods and for your store.
