AMERICANS IN COREA COMPLAIN OF SEARCH

Houses of Missionaries Are Raided by Japanese.

REV. MRS. MOWRY ACCUSED

Eleven Koreans, Including a Girl, Arrested and Valuable Documents Are Seized.

SEOUL, April 12.—(By the Associated Press.)—Houses of seven American missionaries at Pyeung-Yang, in northern Korea, were searched by Japanese at the time of the arrest this week of Rev. Ell M. Mowry, a Presbyterian missionary, official services, say.

The official report says Japanese authorities obtained knowledge that Koreans engaged in editing and circulating news of the independence movement, were hiding in Rev. Mr. Mowry's residence and were issuing newspapers and circulars from the house. More than 40 policemen were stationed around the house during the search. Eleven Koreans, including a girl, were arrested, it is said, and three copies of press and documents relating to the independence movement were seized. Six were found guilty and sent to prison. The others were freed.

Rev. Mr. Mowry Accused.
Rev. Mr. Mowry, the report adds, is charged with harboring persons actively engaged in propaganda and permitting the use of his premises for printing propaganda as at first reported.

Commenting on Rev. Mr. Mowry's arrest, Seoul newspapers charge that the conduct of some missionaries in Pyeung-Yang and Syen-Chiyun, northwest of Pyeung-Yang, has been anything but discreet and that, notwithstanding their professions of neutrality, some missionaries have given the impression by their actions that they encourage Korean agitators.

Future Attacks Feared.
The newspapers express the belief that the missionary body in Korea as a whole is not anti-Japanese and is not inclined to encourage the Koreans, but they fear the Pyeung-Yang incident will give the jingoistic newspapers of Japan fresh material for further attacks on foreign missionaries.

MASSACRE IN COREA DENIED

Japanese Consul Declares Reports Are False and Exaggerated.

"No occurrence bearing a semblance of massacre in Corea, as mentioned in recent dispatches, has ever taken place," said Fumero Sugimura, Japanese consul at Portland, in a statement issued yesterday concerning the Korean situation. Continuing, the statement is in part as follows:

"That there is much unrest in Corea is undoubtedly true, and riots have occurred which have necessitated the use of armed force to quell them. Those seeking independence in Corea are naturally anxious to impress the outside world with the justice of their claims and undoubtedly have caused false or exaggerated reports to spread in order that they may arouse sympathy for their cause. The wildest and most exaggerated charges are made by the Koreans, and in most cases there is only a mere fraction of truth expressed.

"The unrest has been caused mostly at the instigation of the leaders of 'heaven worshippers' and partly by a group of so-called Christians, with whom were joined a considerable number of students who were excited by the agitation concerning the problem of the league of nations and the idea of self-determination of race. 'Heaven worshippers' are a body of Koreans united for political ambition under a camouflage of religious faith.

"Reports of indignities to American missionaries and to an American teacher are declared to have been proved unfounded, and the charge that an American consul was arrested by Japanese authorities through mistake is pronounced too preposterous to be dignified with any denial.

COREAN ACTIVITIES ARE TOLD

Setting Up of Provisional Government at Seoul Denied.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 17.—Formal denial that a Korean provisional government had been set up in Seoul was made here today by T. Ohta, Japanese consul-general. He stated also that authorities denied the Korean declaration of independence was openly distributed.

by the provisional government in Seoul. Mr. Ohta said that Seoul "has been quiet since the end of March, although there have been some disturbances in the neighboring provinces which are expected to end soon."

"Certain Koreans tried to distribute the declaration with a great demonstration on April 10," he said, "but failed to do so on account of the strict vigilance of the police. It may not be denied, however, that they succeeded in distributing three or 400 copies."

Cabled advices of the progress of the revolution given out by Mr. Ohta today said:

"April 11 a mob of 200 people violently attacked the office of the local government of Chosen county, in the Koo-Kai-Do, where there were on the same day two other disturbances on a smaller scale, but all of them were subdued without casualty.

"A violent attack was made by mobs on gendarmes who were pursuing certain criminals in Rishun county of the Keiki-Do. The gendarmes protected themselves by firing a gun which killed one of the mob. The crowd then disbanded. In two disturbances in South Keishoo-Do and Koogren-Do, mobs were reported numbering from 20 to 300 persons, but later they were all dispersed without damage on either side.

"April 12, in Kinkai county of south Zenra-Do a mob of 200 rushed at the patrol station and inflicted some damage. They were at first repulsed by the gendarmes but again came back in greater strength, which was met by the gendarmes and infantrymen, who fired jointly upon the lawless crowd. It is probable that there may be a considerable number of casualties. One gendarme has been found seriously wounded. A mob of 30 people in a certain locality of North Keishoo-Do was dispersed without damage."

A British expert on gas poisons contends that one of the effects of carbon monoxide upon the human system is to cause a pronounced susceptibility to pneumonia. Automobile engine exhaust fumes always contain this insidious poison.
