VERNON TO BE OPPONENT

Addition of New Shortstop and Outfielder Expected to Strengthen Languishing Line-Up.

After a fearful record on the road Portland's 1919 Pacific Coast league baseball team is now aboard a "rattler" speeding homeward to tackle Vernon here Wednesday afternoon. Two games won, 11 lost, and a percentage of .186 is a nightmare, but with the addition of a sheristop and an outfielder it is expected that soon after the club's arrival here the score will be telling a different story.

Judge William Wallace McCredie, president of the Portland Baseball company, announced last night that president of the Portland Baseball company, announced last night that games would commence at 3 o'clock P. M., as usual this season, instead of 5:15 P. M., which has been mentioned. Both Portland and Vernon fared badly with the same pair of opponents the first fortnight. Los angeles took six out of seven from both of them, but Vinegar Bill Essick's hirelings succeeded in winning a brace of games on the Mormon pasture. The trained Tigers will not be able to reach here until Tuesday night, which caused the postponing of the opener until Wednesday. The Beavers will steam in tomorrow morning.

Oakland and Seattle are billed to pry off the lid at the Sound City on Wednesday also. They will come north on the same train and will not reach the Puget Sound burg until late Tuesday afternoon, which will make it next to impossible to pull off the proper opening day festivities prior to the game. Therefore it is likely that Prexy Brewster will postpone his opening, although no announcement has yet come from the north.

Portland's baseball boosters will consregate at 12:30 P. M. today in room 2:8 of the Oregon hotel. Final arrangements for the opening day parade will be made. Several amateur and semi-professional baseball teams will ride in the parade clad is uniforms. Automobiles will be furnished for all such nines, and all are urged to get in communication with Ray Barkhurst, chairmobiles will be furnished for all such nines, and all are urged to get in communication with Ray Barkhurst, chairman of the parade committee.

Oliver Stevens has already entered his Willamette Iron and Steel works crew, which will be dressed in its new outfit. Wednesday's victory loan and baseball parade will commence at 12:30 P. M. at 14th and Morrison streets. Anyone wishing to enter is asked to be there at 12 o'clock (noon), reporting to Ray Barkhurst.

Local fandom is "pulling" for Outfielder Dixie Walker and is hopeful that he will break in the opening series. Walker was put out of the game at Salt Lake when he cut his hand on a piece of rusty tin on the Mormon centerfield fence, and the injury has been announced as serious. He was hitting at a 351 clip at the time and is missed from the Beaver muster roll.

Seattle's Siwashes showed that they were improving at Sacramento in the series just closed. Manager Bill Clymer has won seven pennants in 15 years of managing and finished lower than third place but once in all that time. If his record goes for anything, the Rainlers will make it interesting for the rest of the clubs all season. Take a peek at Clymer's pedigree:
