

A Message to Our Mother City

COME on, Portland! Oregon-at-Large sends you the patriotic greetings of this day. May the opening of the Victory Liberty Loan find you prepared to uphold the pride of the State and the honor of the Country in which we are united; may it find you ready to bear your share of the unpaid account which our Boys opened on the Books of Freedom "over there."

Twenty-seven counties and hundreds of your kindred cities have already squared their balance, while those remaining will not fail to meet this final reckoning.

We implore you, Portland, to help us make it "Oregon-First" once more—that the sacrifice, generosity and loyalty of a free-born people in a free-born state may not rest upon the record of the past—but be perpetuated through the present into the generations to come.
